PORTLAND, Feb. 9 .-- (AP)-With an acute shortage of supplies and with open market values held taut, there was a spectacle of a still further artificial cut in butter prices on the Portland pro-

In face of the shortage here toin most of the country, the shipping interests catering to the California trade, determined to force lower values here so that shipments could be profitably made to the southern trade.

The price of butterfat was reported down another cent a pound but the previous cut of that amount has not been generally followed because most churners could not secure sufficient fat to take care of their needs. The cut of 1c dozen which the outsiders and private firms, has been followed by similar action by the same interests. Drifting tone was continued in the market for onions here and along the coast generally. This applies to both primary points and consuming centers. The general trade still lacks faith. There was a rather good call for quality veal and lambs. Top calves were around 8 % c lb. with best lambs 12c. Hogs were about

GRAINS RISE HIGH, THEN DECLINE DESPITE SHORTAGE HOGS, WHEAT UP; BUTTER FALLS

Profit - Taking, Sales By Government are Thought Cause

CHICAGO, Feb. 9-(AP)-Setbacks of grain values late together with the sub-zero weather day followed an early brisk rise to the highest point reached by wheat in almost a month. Profit-taking by new speculative buyers of wheat, together with persistent sales attributed to government-sponsored sources, did much to offset the market influence of crop damage advices and of reports that two additional cold waves were threatened, one working downward from Alaska and one working eastward from the Pacific northwest. Late estimates of fresh export business at Winnipeg were disappointing, and local co-ops were forced to make Argentine shipments this week in eggs as a result of cutting by were large, about 1,000,000 bush-

Red, White Wheat up 2c; Veal off Half Cent

Snappy weather Thursday morning brought with it increases in two farm commodities, hogs and wheat; and also a slight drop in yeal and a cent down on butterfat. These were the first breaks in price for the week.

Both red and white wheat jumped two notches to 47 cents each and hogs climbed 15 cents a hundred to top of $3.75. Butterfat fell to 14 cents on sour, and 16 cents on sweet. Dressed veal declined a half cent to seven cents a pound.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Feb. 9 .-(AP)-The trend of prices on flaxseed, a crop interesting an increasing number of Oregon farmers, has been steadily upward during the last three weeks in Decamper and early January in the leading world markets, according to a review issued today by the U. S. D. A. bureau of agricultural economics cooperating with the O. S. C. extension service. These markets are Minneapolis, Winnipeg and Buenos Aires.

Substantial decrease in world production of flaxseed during the past season is considered responsible for the price rise, despite the heavy falling off of demand for inseed oil and flaxseed meal in this country. Decline in volume of competing products such as whale oil, soy been a factor in the rise in flaxseed prices. Lessened demand in the United States for flaxseed products is reflected in lessened imports, yet 1.424,000 bushels of flaxseed entered the United States during
