Interesting Facts

The distribution of The Statesman Advertiser (Green Section) today is 13,277

A most complete coverage of Salem and rural routes.

We ask Mrs. Tokel, who lives on Salem route 1, where she did her buying and she told us that she took The Statesman and either copied the items she was interested in or cut them out and used them for her buying guide.

We were talking with Mrs. Mark McCallister and ask her where she bought her groceries. "I buy them all over", was her answer. Then she went on to explain that she used the Friday Statesman as her guide.

We could tell you of lots more smart Salem women who use this paper as their buying guide.

In Washington D. C., senators receive haircuts at taxpayers expense. An item of $3,000 for the Senator Barber shop is reported.

Other items of interest in expense in Washington are: $4,000 for the upkeep of the vice president's car, $1.35 for Bruno Biltzer, $80 aspirin at 85c per hundred, $400 worth of ice, Chauffeur's gloves $3.45.

The house likewise has heavy expense lists such as—2,400 headache tablets, $70 for water coolers, $1,200 for ice to keep the water coolers cool, $44 for hair brushes, $18 for combs, clothes brushes $15.50, cloths $17.48 nail brushes $18, matches $37.50.

Ninety years ago 60 to 70 per cent of all men who worked were employed in agriculture. In 1930 75 per cent were engaged in other occupations.

For ten years ending 1930, 430,000 patents were granted.

The democrats used $2,000,000 worth of radio time and the republicans $500,000. A large part of this amount is still unpaid.

Eighty-eight thousand fatal accidents in the United States in 1932. Nearly 19,000 less than in 1931.

Davidson Hired To Audit Books, County Offices

The county court yesterday hired A. O. Davidson of Salem to audit the books of Marion county, except the sheriff's office which were audited before A. C. Burk assumed office. Davidson's work will include also records of the justice court in Salem.

J. H. Roberts who has been chief on the county audit for a number of years, will be Davidson's assistant. Davidson audited the city of Salem books the past two years.

We were completely modified... or somethin last Sa'urday!

We just simply could'n give the kind of service we figure our customers are entitled to on account of there bein either to many of em or to few of us—we never could figure which it was. But dont let that keep you away this Saturday because we're gona be Enlarged (that is our help is gona be enlarged, heck that dosent sound right what we mean is we're gona have more folks to serve you. Now thats all we've got to say except a little note to the Editor to remind him we've heard a little complaint about some the ads he's been turnin out for us. It seem acordin to some of the complaints the right words are not always used. So we ask you to print this so'es the readin will be the same as the writen and so far as the prices ar concerned leave em as they are theyre good enough.
