Scouting Held Economy-Sup-port of the Boy Scout movement is economy, not a cost, W. L. Hayward, northwest regional executive, told Lions club members yesterday. The scout program reduces delinquency among youth and thus lowers public expense, he asserted. He referred to Wednesday as the 23d anniversary of the movement and asked the club members' support of the scout merit badge exposition to be held at the armory tonight and afternoon and night tomorrow.

Dozen Fires Reported - Fires repairted in the city since the dozen last night. All but one were chimney blazes. Fire starting in a car at the Motor shop, 255 North Church street, yesterday forenoon while a blow-torch was being used to thaw out a radiator, was extinguished with a blanket before firemen arrived. The other two alarms answered yesterday were for chimney blazes at 1820 North 19th and 265 East Superior.
