NEW YORK, Feb. 10 .- (AP) -The stock market's record of improvement this week was marred by a slight setback today. though trading again slackened as quotations declined. Steels softened toward the close, presumably because the industry's leading unit had dipped deeper into backlog last month than had been anticipated. Unfilled orders of U. S. Steel January 31 set a low record for the tabulation, thus completing erasure of what had been gained last August, September and October. American Tobacco "B" and Liggett & Myers "B" lost about 2 points each while Lorillard vielded nearly one. U. S. Steel common and preferred, Allied Chemical, Harvester, American Can, Public Service of New Jersey, Sears Roebuck, American Smelting, Consolidated Gas and Du Pont finished from fractions to a point lower. Gold shares were firm but quiet. Some rails closed at slight concessions. General Motors was active but little changed. Sales totaled 753,833 shares.

GRAINS TAKE LATE DOWN TURNS

Speculators Belief in Salem Markets Crop Loss Wanes; Damage Slight

CHICAGO, Feb. 10 - (AP) essened confidence of speculators who had bought wheat on reports of crop damage from abnormal weather led to late downturns of grain values today. Enlarged shipments of wheat from Argentina and Australia had a contributing bearish effect. The two countries have put 11,591,000 bushels afloat this week, compared with 8,631,000 fast week. and 9,743,000 a year ago. Wheat closed easy, 1-4 to 1-2 under yesterday's finish, corn unchanged to 1-8 down, oats un-

King Paradox who is now stalking the country has a healthy offspring in the Salem egg market. While eggs are carrying only two prices to chicken raisers, and the top at only 12 cents, a serious scarcity is reported. In a normal time, such a scarcity would serve to boost the price of eggs, but not so now, for all week long the price has held at 10 and 12 cents to the producer. A local produce buyer is said to have made a trip into Polk county yesterday to buy eggs, but the entire effort netted only a half case of eggs.

PORTLAND, Feb. 10-(AP)-Stormy weather even in California he placed an entirely new front on the butter trade. Due to mamyutative influences the recent declines in Portland prices while there was a shortage of supplies, created unusual interest. Dairymen are dissatisfied at the lower prices and those that created them because they felt that an advance instead of a decline was That independent interests do
