

Legislature Inspires Society

THE past week has been a delightful one socially for visiting matrons and for the women of Salem. The tea for which Mrs. Julius Meier was hostess on Wednesday afternoon was delightfully smart and was attended by wives of legislators and women members of the legislature. Many women who are not here during the session came to Salem just for this afternoon.

This was also true of the tea for which Mrs. Fred Kiddle and Mrs. Earl Snell entertained Friday afternoon at the Marion in compliment to about 200 women of the legislative group.

Informal luncheons, teas and dinner parties have marked the days of the week with unusual activity and the next week will also be a busy one. No large affairs are announced for the week but many small and informal events are already planned.

A large affair of the week end will be the formal Sunday night tea to be given tonight at the home of Major General and Mrs. George A. White with members of the Spinners club as hostess to visiting matrons and maids and to a number of Salem guests.

Guests from out of town include Miss Ernestine Havel, Piedmont, Cal., Mrs. Allan Bynon, Miss Charlotte Zieher, Miss Caroline Corbett, Miss Helen Stratton, Miss Margaret Lewis, Miss Hildegarde Ross, Miss Anne DeWitt, Miss Ellen Hemenway, Miss Helen Endrulin, Miss Karen Maki, Miss Dorothy Chapman, Miss Dorothy Bauerschmidt, Miss Lena Miller and Miss Barbara Hendrick, all of Portland; Miss Eleanor Norblad of Astoria, Miss Gertrude Hanger of Walla Walla, Miss Mary Catherine Johnson of Corvallis, Miss Bula Westlake and Miss Gladys Weddle of Stayton, Miss Eleanor Lewis of Marshfield, Miss Marie Nelson of Pendleton, Miss Virginia Jones of Oregon City.

Miss Rosalee Scherrer of The Dalles, Mrs. Christina Smith of Lebanon, Miss Frances Lettenweber of Astoria, Miss Hazel Wheeler of Goshen, Miss Norma Chinnock of Grants Pass, Miss Elizabeth Aupperle of Jefferson, Mrs. E. C. Kelly of Medford, Mrs. Charles Huntington of Eugene, Mrs. Tenuis Wyers of Hood River, Mrs. Mary Goldberg of Corvallis, Miss Myrtle Cradick, Miss Marian Wood, Mrs. Mary Blott of Burns, Mrs. Gordon Bennett of Albany, Mrs. Walter Fisher of Roseburg, Miss Gleda Ashby, Miss Margaret Bailey, Miss Margaret Weatherford of Albany, Mrs. William Briggs of Ashland and Miss Beryl Gramms of Astoria.

Large numbers of the legislative guests were special guests for the smart Valentine dance for which the subscription club was host Saturday night at the Masonic temple. A large number of no-host dinner parties were enjoyed preceding the dance.

The Wisteria club also had a number of legislative guests for its unique "depression" dance which it gave as its regular monthly dance at Castilian hall Friday night.

Keizer.—The Ladies' Aid was entertained at the home of Mrs. J. A. Reynolds all day Thursday. A pot-luck luncheon was served at noon, Mrs. Marjorie Johnson of Salem, a daughter of the hostess, and Rae Kinkaid assisting in serving. A letter was read from Mrs. J. W. Beckley, secretary of the sub-district Ladies' Aid societies, calling attention to the Methodist district rallies at Springfield February 15 and Salem First church February 16. The next sub-district rally will be held at Salem First church March 3.

Dr. Carl Gregg Doney will address members of the American Association of University Women Saturday at the regular meeting of the local chapter on the subject of "Problems of Modern Education." Mrs. Gordon McGillchrist will sing a group of numbers. The luncheon and program meeting will be held in the Masonic temple.

Mrs. Ellis Lauderback was hostess to members of her quilting club Friday at her home near Independence. Present were Mrs. Henry Watson, Mrs. Jean Gritton, Mrs. Leo Reiman, Mrs. Leslie Springer, Mrs. Albert Blankenship and Mrs. Lauderback. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Watson at her home in Salem.

Miss Irma Bolander complimented a group of her friends Friday night at her home. Bridge was in play for several hours and an attractive late supper with Valentine day suggestions used as the decorative motif, was served at the conclusion of playing. Miss Dorothy Bell assisting in serving.

A fruit shower will be the feature of the Alpha Phi Alpha Mothers' club meeting to be held Tuesday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock in the sorority home on North Winter street. Mrs. James Taylor and Mrs. John Clivick will be hostesses for the afternoon.

Mrs. Rufus Holman, Mrs. E. C. Richards and Mrs. John H. Scott were special guests for the Thursday club meeting with Mrs. George Pearce, Mrs. B. C. Miles and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney were assisting hostesses.

Cloverdale.—Mrs. J. Hadley entertained Mr. Jensen and her own class of the M. E. Sunday school with a Valentine party at her home recently.

Mrs. W. R. Speck will be assisted by Mrs. A. N. Chapman in entertaining for members of the Delta Phi Mothers club at the Speck home Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Earl Snell and young son Billy, who have been popular guests in Salem during the legislative session. Master Billy is an accomplished young man who finds great fun in Salem. This is his second session.

Sororities Open Rush Week Monday; Social Events Crowd Calendar

WHILE the city is busy with legislature the university has been busy completing the past semester and social affairs have been negligible, but the new semester is opened and with it comes the day week of mid-year rushing which opens this Monday.

Monday, Friday and Saturday are personal rushing days and will be filled to the brim with informal social affairs. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday will be for the formal rushing events which will be a tea and dinner for each sorority.

Alpha Phi Alpha will entertain with a tea Tuesday afternoon between the hours of 4:15 and 5:15 o'clock in their new home on North Summer street. A "studio" idea will be worked out for this tea and a program will be arranged to carry out the same idea. Miss Margaret Morris will greet the guests at the door. Thursday night the sorority will have its formal dinner which will strike a patriotic note for its color scheme and decorations.

Beta Chi sorority will entertain with a formal tea Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday night will have its formal dinner.

Delta Phi sorority will have its formal dinner Tuesday night and will carry out a Valentine motif for its decorative note. Thursday afternoon this sorority will entertain with a tea between the hours of 4:30 and 5:30 o'clock. Pledging will take place Sunday morning following the opening of bids Saturday night by Dean Olive M. Dahl.

Hollywood.—The Merry Mingle club met at the home of Miss Orle Mitchell to sew for the Red Cross. Those present were Mrs. E. J. Woodburn, Mrs. F. P. Phillips, Mrs. V. M. Ladue, with the following: Mrs. O. A. Ackerman, Mrs. L. B. Malm, Mrs. Geo. Thorpe, Mrs. Josie Lantz as a special guest, and the hostess Miss Mitchell.

The Hollywood Ladies' Social club gathered at the home of Mrs. V. M. Ladue, with the following present: Mrs. O. A. Ackerman, Mrs. D. Jaeger, Mrs. C. S. Thomas, Mrs. C. L. Allison, Mrs. W. F. Starr, Mrs. Lester Starr, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Holler, Miss Florence Kleeman and the hostess Mrs. V. M. Ladue.

Arts League Will Hear Lecture

THE Salem Arts league is planning a program of unusual interest for the February general meeting of the league on Tuesday evening, February 14, in the auditorium of the city library.

This is certain to prove one of the most popular meetings which the Arts league is sponsoring this season as it is presenting as lecturer next Tuesday evening, Dean Roy R. Hewitt, a speaker much in popular demand. Dean Hewitt is to talk on the subject which is most discussed and most speculated about in the world today, present economic conditions. He has chosen for his talk the thought-provoking title, "The Way Out."

Many persons will wish to hear what Mr. Hewitt has to say on the subject, and the Arts league cordially invites anyone who is interested to attend the lecture. The hour is 8 o'clock, and the meeting is open to the public.

Women's Club Hears Interesting Lecture

One of the most interesting meetings of the year that was enjoyed by the Salem Women's club Saturday at the clubhouse. A business meeting preceded the program. At the business meeting an interesting report was given by Helen Louise Crosby, chairwoman of the legislative committee of the club concerning the "gin" marriage law, and concerning the Wednesday program of state welfare bills in the legislature.

Dr. Thomas Hardie of McMinnville who for the past 15 years has been interested in aiding foreign-born students in their preparation for Americanization papers, told of his experiences in an hour's talk which was listened to with avid attention on the part of the club women. Many incongruities and unfairness develop in securing Americanization papers according to the data which has been compiled by Dr. Hardie.

Musical numbers presented by a trio of high school boys added to the program. With fifty-four present, members of the Three Link club had a most delightful afternoon Friday, at the home of Mrs. Myra Robertson on Court street. The Valentine motif was carried out appropriately, and a large number of the club members were present to the 16 members who have birthdays in February. They were also remembered by Alma Henderson with a carnation after they had given a short biography of their lives up to the time of coming to Salem. Every one had a Valentine which was read aloud. Delicious refreshments were served at a late hour by Grace Robertson, Louise King, Edith McElroy, Daisy McIntyre and Avis Perrine.

Jefferson.—The Dever Rural Recreation club met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Groshong at her home five miles west of Jefferson, for an all day quilting. Mrs. Carl Harnisch gave a reading as part of the entertainment of the afternoon. Those enjoying the day were Mrs. R. A. Marsh and daughter Vera, Mrs. Carl Harnisch, Mrs. Fred Hofer and daughter Helen, Mrs. N. L. Grate, Mrs. Earl Cunningham, Mrs. Albert Harnisch, Mrs. Minnie Davis and daughter Doris, Mrs. Robert Hill, Mrs. Roy Armstrong and son Dean, Mrs. Harold Grate and son Jimmie, and the hostess, Mrs. Groshong and family.

Jefferson.—Mrs. William Skelton entertained a group of women at her home near Jefferson, Thursday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Merwin McKinney, Mrs. Claude Page, in a clever way, made the presentation of gifts. Mrs. Elmer Redmond also gave a reading.

Present included Mrs. Mayme Dorman, Mrs. B. K. B. and two children, Mrs. Martha Ettner, Mrs. Lena Ettner and daughter, Mrs. Bessie Ryan and daughter Barbara, Mrs. Faye Brown, Mrs. A. L. Page, and son Wayne, Mrs. Mae Page, Mrs. Frank Schultz, Mrs. Eldon Dorman of Salem; Mrs. Homer Davis, and daughter; Mrs. Ed Chehak, Mrs. Merwin McKinney, Mrs. Elmer Redmond, and the hostess, Mrs. Skelton.

Hubbard.—Arion lodge No. 57, K. P. of Hubbard had as their honored guests Thursday night, Warren Bars, grand chancellor, of Portland; Doc Patterson, a member of the grand tribunal, also of Portland; Mr. Greenwood, grand honor guard of Salem; Ray Taylor, district deputy of district No. 15, comprised of Marion and Polk counties, also of Salem.

The lodge is planning to entertain members from all the lodges in district No. 15 at their next regular meeting February 16. Rosevale.—The Missionary society met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. A. D. Needham, about 27 women were present, in honor of the president, Mrs. Roy J. Hadley, who is soon leaving. Dainty refreshments were served and Mrs. Haldy was presented with a comforter.

Members of the Y. W. C. A. executive board will meet Tuesday for a regular meeting and to this the campaign workers will come and reports will be given concerning the recent work. Mrs. Grover C. Birtchet will have charge of devotions. Following the business meeting luncheon will be served for the board and workers.

West Salem.—Mrs. Lester Brannon entertained at her home the members of the Kingwood Tea and Talk club. Mrs. Jed L. Austin took charge of the jolly informal social afternoon. At the tea hour the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Forrester, Mrs. Bertha Englehorn will be the next hostess in March.

The Jolly Time Quilting club met at the home of Mrs. Robert Ketterman with Mrs. Rex Swelger assistant hostess for another pleasant all-day gathering for sociability and stitching. Mrs. Homer Harrison was elected treasurer for the organization.

Karl Steiwers Hosts To Women's Club

Jefferson.—Mr. and Mrs. Karl Steiwer entertained members of the Jefferson Women's club and their husbands at a party Wednesday evening.

Bridge and "500", were in play during the evening. Mrs. John Terhune and A. B. Hinz won high score in bridge, and Mrs. Robert Terhune and Eugene Finlay were high scorers in "500". Roswell Wright and Rex Harty entertained with several musical selections. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Robert Terhune, Mrs. R. C. Thomas and Mrs. Herbert Looney.

At the next meeting February 22, the club will sponsor a silver tea at the home of Mrs. C. M. Smith on south main street. The proceeds to be used as a library benefit.

Miss Charlotte Hill was complimented by her mother Mrs. David Bennett Hill with a charming buffet supper Friday night at the Hill residence. Mrs. W. H. Lytle and Mrs. Anna Lord of Seattle, house guest of Mrs. Hill, assisted. Bidden to compliment the popular young maid were Barbara Pierce, Edith Moorehead, Emily Griggs, Virginia Cross, Anita Wagner, Flavia Downs, Jeannette Brown, Ruth Jean Garnjost, Edna Mathis, Claybourne Dyer, Max Hauser, Earl Wiper, Dick Niles, Dick Terpening, Tom Wiper, Billy Lord of Seattle, Wilbur Curry, Bob Brady and Bill Mathis.

A brilliant luncheon of Friday was that for which the South Division of the First Presbyterian church was hostess at the church. Covers were placed at 12 tables, each table representing in decorative note a month of the year. Colorful and unique were the many decorative ideas worked out in clever detail. Following the luncheon hour a program was presented by Mrs. Gordon McGillchrist, Mrs. Ted Gordon, and students of the school for the deaf under the direction of J. Lyman Steed. Mrs. John Harbison is president of the South Division.

Brush College.—Mrs. John Schindler entertained fellow members of the Brush College Helpers with an enjoyable afternoon at her pleasant rural home Thursday.

Special guests were Mrs. Eliza Calder, Mrs. Frank Olsen, Mrs. John Kipper, Mrs. Mike Kipper, Mrs. Maxine Olsen and Juanita Johnson, Mrs. Oliver Whitney, president of the organization, conducted the business meeting. Mrs. A. R. Ewing was in charge of the patriotic program for which numbers were contributed by Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, Theodore Bernard and Mrs. A. E. Utley. Mrs. Utley told of the flower exchange to be held at the next meeting of the Federation at Dallas, February 15.

West Salem.—Mrs. Lester Brannon entertained at her home the members of the Kingwood Tea and Talk club. Mrs. Jed L. Austin took charge of the jolly informal social afternoon. At the tea hour the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Forrester, Mrs. Bertha Englehorn will be the next hostess in March.
