Record Crowd of Year Sees Missionaries Win, 34 to 33

Bearcats Stage Great Rally To Overcome Lead, Lose In Last 20 Seconds

WEST DECIDES

By RALPH CURTIS "Doc" West, in the last 20 seconds of his last basketball game for Whitman college after a brilliant career, looped a field goal from the middle of the floor and close to the sideline-the ball circled the hoop three times before it dropped through - to give Whitman a 34 to 33 victory over Willamette university here Saturday night.

Whitman's victory tied up the Northwest conference race once more, and made it necessary for Willamette to win all of its remaining four games if it is to attain the unoffical conference title.

From the standpoint of the Salem crowd-a record turnout for the season - West's timely shot put an anti-climax on a great uphill fight waged by the Bearcats. in which Erven Kloostra, tall center, played a leading role. It was a magnificent comeback, and the crowd's disappointment centered principally about the fact that this brilliant fight went for naught, rather than over loss of the game itself.

With all five of the Missionary regulars potting long shots consistently, Whitman led all the way except in the first minute and the last; 16 to 14 at half time, 27 to 18 early in the second half, 31 to 22 just before that rally began. Northrup and Kaiser also had a share in boosting Willamette's score up to within striking distance of the lead.

teams were even in field goals scored. Both were rather erratic in scoring gift shots, but Whitman the Y. M. C. A. is slated for next nosed out one shead. Willamette will play its last lem Y boxing and wrestling ath-the necessary "forcing" and there is little likelihood that Frants will refrain from doing the same. Although Karasick has wrestled n Salem twice, Tuesday night will be his first appearance here in a match with a man of his own weight classification, light heavyweight. Both he and Frantz will weigh somewhere around 170. Karasick is best remembered for the near-murder he committed against game little Wildcat Mc-
