

FINAL RITES HELD FOR E. G. EMMETT

WOODBURN, Feb. 13 — The funeral of Edward G. Emmett, a former resident and merchant of Woodburn, was held Monday at the Portland Crematorium under the supervision of the Woodburn Masonic lodge. Mr. Emmett died Thursday in Pendleton from an attack of heart trouble following pneumonia. He was well known in Woodburn, was a past master of the Masonic lodge.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Florence G. Emmett, his mother, Mrs. Alice Emmett, a sister, Mrs. Bertha Garrow, both of Portland, and a brother, Arthur Emmett of Salem. Pall bearers from Woodburn lodge were Frank Seltzer, Elmer E. Seltzer, E. J. Stansard and Dr. Thomas Sims. A large delegation of Masons attended, including the officers, who are: Everett J. Hughes, worshipful master; Ray Shaner, senior warden; Jesse Tikan, junior warden; L. R. Gilbert, senior deacon, and Earl Gibbons, junior deacon.

Surprise Grangers Hear Legislative Problems Talked

TURNER, Feb. 13 — Surprise grange met in all day session Saturday, W. Jones, district deputy, and Mrs. Jones of Macleay, also Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Lambert of Stayton, were guests. Mr. Jones gave a talk on proposed legislative measures, with a general discussion following. The attendance for the day was larger than usual. The Junior grange officers were installed by Mrs. M. E. Townsend. The children expect to soon be able to have a meeting hall of their own. Miss Eloise Melis was pianist for the day.

Mrs. J. F. Thomason Falls; Injures Hip

TURNER, Feb. 13 — Mrs. J. F. Thomason slipped and fell at her home injuring her hip which injury is serious as Mrs. Thomason is 80 years old. Mrs. Zimmerman, a daughter, of Albany, arrived to be with her mother, also a son, George Thomason of Salem and his wife.

FOXX BULL-DOGGING A CALF

"How you gonna keep him down on the farm when baseball starts off" is the thought that occurs on viewing this picture of Jimmy Foxx, slugger of the Philadelphia Athletics putting on a bull-dogging act with a calf. The photo was made on the farm of "Goose" Goslin, of the Washington Senators, near Salem, N. J., where Jimmy vacationed before going South for Spring training.

Motion Picture is Subject of Debate Of Endeavor Group

TURNER, Feb. 13 — Sunday evening 30 Christian Endeavorers gathered in a "Friend Circle" at the Christian church and were led in an enthusiastic service by Mrs. Gilstrap. One of the main features was a poem "The House by the Side of the Road". Following the regular Endeavor hour the young people put on a debate "Resolved That the Motion Picture is a Benefit to America." The affirmative speakers were Kenneth Fowler, Margaret Gilstrap and Edra Johnson. The negative speakers were Anna Johnson, Ruth Gilstrap and Emma Parr. Mrs. Maud Brown acted as moderator and the three judges selected were Mrs. O. P. Given, Sandy Brown and O. F. Fowler. The negative side won in a close contest.

Farmer Union Group In Session, Marion

MARION, Feb. 13 — The women of the Farmers' Union held their regular meeting Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Colgan, the entire day being spent in quilting for Mrs. Lynn Colgan. Those present were Mrs. J. L. Callivan, Mrs. Anna Lee, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Brown,

METHODIST GROUP SELECTS OFFICERS

WOODBURN, Feb. 13 — The new officers for the M. E. Sunday school were elected at the last meeting of the workers conference as follows: superintendent, Donald Gillanders; assistant superintendent, Mrs. E. O. Brown; secretary, Robert Barton; treasurer, Mrs. Marion Allen; librarian, Wayne Livesay; Sunday school board secretary, Nettie Simmons; home department, Jeanette Zimmerman; cradle roll superintendent, Laura Livesay.

The East Side Homes club met for their third time at the home of Mrs. C. A. Parr. The chairman, J. D. Woodfin opened the evening's entertainment with two songs by the audience. There were readings by Charlotte Mae Livesay, Frances Woodfin, Mrs. Shambach, Mrs. Garrison, Mrs. Woodfin, Ray Voorhees, Mr. Shambach, Mrs. Bronnan, Mr. Parr and Kathleen Garrison. Donald Gillanders played two violin solos, accompanied by Joyce Woodfin on a melodian that Rev. Gillanders carried with him during his ministry during the early frontier days. Wayne Livesay played two accordion numbers. Rev. Gillanders gave an interesting talk on his favorite president, emphasizing the characters of Lincoln, Teddy Roosevelt, Wilson and Hoover. J. D. Woodfin gave a reading. The next meeting will be March 3 at the home of Mrs. Carrie Young.

Turkey Dinner at Salem Heights is Highly Successful

SALEM HEIGHTS, Feb. 13 — The turkey dinner given by the Salem Heights Woman's club at the hall Friday night was a great success. Mrs. Darrell Washburn, president of the club, was in charge. Her committee were: Kitchen: Mrs. Lantz, Mrs. William Trudgen, Mrs. King S. Bartlett, Mrs. Francis Wilson, Myra Sawyer, Stella Caldwell; dishes: Mrs. Fred Burger, Mrs. Rothwell, Mrs. May Bodent; dining room: Mrs. C. W. Bartlett, Mrs. K. W. Dalton, Mrs. E. LaDuke, Mrs. A. Taylor, Mrs. L. B. Senter, Mrs. M. N. VanEaton. Those taking part in the program were: Wesley, McWain, accordion solo, Willis Caldwell and Joe Vogt, tumbling act, Scotch quart, Robert Hutcheon of Salem. A duet by Susie Jones and Hazel Pruitt. Vocal solo by Everett Wheelodon. Guitar and harmonica

New Chamber Has Part in Banquet Of Father, Sons

STAYTON, Feb. 13 — The newly organized chamber of commerce is making many constructive plans for the future of the organization. Forty-one new members have been added. The chamber will sponsor the Father and Son banquet February 16. The chamber is planning to assist also in the annual homecoming day festivities.

DANCING IS FEATURE

FAIRFIELD, Feb. 13 — Dancing, with music by the Middle Grove Midnight Revelers, will follow the comedy, "Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard", to be given at 8 p. m. Feb. 15 at the grange hall as a benefit for the building fund.

MICKY MOUSE

IN TRAGEDY

Julia Waring Park, 20-year-old American music student, who was killed in Paris in a fall from a fifth story window. French police say she committed suicide following an unhappy love affair. Miss Park was a daughter of Joseph Field Park, of Rye, N. Y. She was educated at Farmington, Conn., and introduced to society in 1931.

Revival Campaign For Hazel Green Started by Duff

HAZEL GREEN, Feb. 13 — A trio, composed of Misses Naomi VanCleave, Phyllis Koenig, and Rev. Walter Duff, Sr., will conduct revival services at Hazel Green church each night at 7:30 this week and Sunday. Miss Koenig is a soloist and peppy song leader while Miss VanCleave plays the piano. Miss VanCleave is late of Weston College, Illinois. Rev. Walter Duff is a witty Scotch-Irish evangelist. Meeting will be held for the school children at 3:30 p. m. every afternoon.

Piano Recital For Pupils is Tomorrow

JEFFERSON, Feb. 13 — Mrs. J. O. VanWinkle will present her pupils in a piano recital Wednesday evening, at the Methodist church. The following program will be given: piano duet, Donna June Powell and Jaunita Holt; selection, Richard VanWinkle; piano solo, Donna June Powell; piano solo, Jaunita Holt; reading, Miss Rosalie Pullen; piano solo, Billie Knight; piano duet, Donna June Powell and Jaunita Holt.

CLUB MEETS 17TH CENTRAL HOWELL, Feb. 13

The Community club meeting slated for Friday night was postponed until February 17, because of the cold weather.

THREE INCHES SNOW FRESH, FALLS CITY

FALLS CITY, Feb. 13 — Three more inches of snow fell Saturday night but melted fast on the low lands. The surrounding hills are still covered with from six inches to a foot. The local berry growers were very thankful for the covering of snow through the extreme cold snap of the past few days.

Miss Averill Morris was hostess to a group of her friends with a delightful party at her home Friday night in celebration of her birthday anniversary. Present were Edna Barnhart, Leta Baker, Louise Murphy, Dorothy Ames, Ruth Froer, Leslie Hudson, Billie Bowman, Billie Ferguson and Johnnie Henderson.

The Willing Workers class of the Methodist Sunday school were the guests of their teacher, Mrs. N. C. Ferguson at a Valentine party in the church social room Friday afternoon. Refreshments were served to Shirley Mack, Hilda Ross, Beattie Ames, Hazel Ames, Marna Graham, Jess Silvers, Inez Breeden, Leta Breeden, Ed Gardner, Robert Gardner, Merrill Collins, Jack Rhulan, Wesley Rhodes and Milton Ferguson.

Stayton Area Signs For 70 Acres Peas

STAYTON, Feb. 13 — About 70 acres in this section have been signed up by growers, who will raise peas for eastern markets. The peas will be shipped

Funeral Services Held at Monmouth For Mrs. Powell

MONMOUTH, Feb. 13 — Funeral services were held Sunday at the Christian church for Mrs. I. C. Powell who died early Saturday at her home. She is survived by Mr. Powell and four sisters: Mrs. Mary Bowen, Baker; Mrs. Edith Zambro, Seattle; Mrs. Edna Wakefield, British Columbia; and Miss Sarah Jackson, Saskatchewan, Canada; also three stepsons: C. C. Powell and Mrs. D. Powell of Monmouth, and Lieut. Herbert Powell, Salt Lake. Rev. W. A. Elkins officiated. Burial was in the Knights of Pythias cemetery here, directed by W. L. Smith Funeral chapel.

Farewell Event is Held at Rosedale For Haldy Family

ROSEDALE, Feb. 13 — Members of the church and Sunday school held a farewell social for the Haldy family at the Cammack home Thursday night. The first part of the evening was spent in the usual prayer meeting. Social time followed. Members of the Christian Endeavor held a social at the home of Esther Cammack Friday night. Miss Mary Lon Chapman, the president, left Saturday for a semester's work in the Portland Bible Institute. Paul Cammack, the vice president, returned from Portland today.

Duncan Appointed as Stayton's Treasurer

STAYTON, Feb. 13 — George R. Duncan, local attorney has been appointed by the council to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. G. F. Korinek, treasurer who resigned. The matter of drainage was brought out at the meeting, and the committee, M. C. Denny and Dr. G. F. Korinek were continued to make further investigations as to cost.

H. E. CLUB WEDNESDAY MACLEAY, Feb. 13

The February meeting of the Home Economics club will be held at the grange hall Wednesday afternoon. Members are requested to bring needles, thread and scissors.

BUY CHEAP GASOLINE

DAYTON, Feb. 13 — Several farmers with trucks drove to near Portland gasoline stations to purchase gas at a reduced price Saturday. Each farmer purchased several hundred gallons to be in readiness for farming as soon as weather conditions change.

WILLIAMS' TRIAL IS SLATED TUESDAY

WOODBURN, Feb. 13 — The trials of O. E. and George Williams who were arrested last Sunday near Woodburn have been set for February 14 when they are to appear in Judge Overton's office after pleading not guilty. They with W. H. Berens were booked with charges of being drunk in a public place. Berens entered a plea of guilty and was fined $10 and costs.

The Lettermen's club of Woodburn high school elected officers Friday as follows: President, Leo Halter, vice president, George Koch; treasurer, Peter Larson, secretary, John East and sergeant-at-arms, Robert Boyle.

The girls' interclass basketball games were played Thursday with the scores: Seniors won from the freshmen 12-8 and juniors defeating the freshmen 10-6. This leaves the standing of the team: juniors in the lead, seniors, 2nd, sophomores, 3rd, and freshmen fourth.

Los Angeles Man Buys Amity Farm For Dairy Ranch

AMITY, Feb. 13 — G. M. Barnard of Los Angeles, has bought the former George Thomas place just north of town, and expects to maintain a modern dairy farm. Julius Jasper of Salem has rented the place and Mr. and Mrs. Vilstrup, who have been on the farm, will move into the former Soren Sorenson home on North Trade street.

The Women's Civic Improvement club will hold its February meeting at the home of Mrs. Alvin Riersson, Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock. Assisting hostesses are Mrs. Clara Broadwell, Mrs. W. H. Tovey, Mrs. E. L. Strout, and Mrs. J. W. Bredwell. Mrs. Lott of McMinnville, will give a travogue of her European journeys. The Christian Endeavor of the Church of Christ enjoyed a Valentine party Friday evening at the church. Games were played and refreshments served.

By WALT DISNEY

"Too Much Competition"

By SEGAR

By DARRELL McCLURE

By JIMMY MURPHY

Cross-Word Puzzle

By EUGENE SHEFFER

A crossword puzzle grid with numbers 1 through 48 indicating starting positions for words.

- HORIZONTAL
1-What king of Israel wrote the...
2-What is the first name of the celebrated English novelist...
3-Messure...
4-Large sea-duck...
5-Greek god of war...
6-Bismishes...
7-Indian pole...
8-Smooth and dress with the...
9-Sea eagle...
10-Of what state is Augusta the...
11-Roman numeral six...
12-Pair...
13-Carousal...
14-Spruce loosely...
15-smallest state in the Union...
16-Puzzling question...
17-Who was the author of "Utopia"?
18-Entrances...
19-Balloon...
20-Depend...
21-Female of the horse...
22-Swerves suddenly...
23-What polygamous patriarch is said to have been very wise?
24-Who colonized what is now called "The Keystone State"?
25-South American mountain range...
26-Dental...
27-Beverage...
28-Result of any action...
29-Vehicle...
30-Note of the scale...
31-Komelms street wanderers...
32-Leaf of paper...
33-Charm...
34-Plant used in dressing cloth...
35-Tropical lizard of Caribbean origin...
36-Come in...
37-Consisting of willow twigs...
38-Sensible...
39-Suggestion...
40-Near...
41-Regard with veneration...
42-Messure...
43-Large sea-duck...
44-Greek god of war...
45-Bismishes...
46-Indian pole...
47-Smooth and dress with the...
48-Sea eagle...
VERTICAL
1-Who wrote the "Origin of Species"?
2-What caricaturist wrote "Hulabaloo"?
3-Compete with...
4-What heavy-weight boxing champion defeated Willard?