KARASICK WILL OPPOSE SAILOR

Russian Lion Expected to Make Good boy out of Obstreperous gob

Al Karasick, the Lion from Russia who heads the advice of a Salem professor that the Willamette valley is the only safe place in the United States for blondes and makes his home in Portland, will pay Salem his third formal visit tonight, coming for a mat contest with Sailor Frantz.

Matchmaker Harry Plant has let it be known that his principal thought in signing Karasick at this time, was to see if somebody, short of the referee and the boxing and wrestling commission, could make the sailor behave and wrestle somewhere close to the limits the Police Gazette rules prescribe. Frantz was stopped last week but the bout had to stop at the same time as he was disqualified on a foul.

Plant thinks Karasick will be able to make a good sailor out of a bad one. Meanwhile, the fans will be given their first opportunity to see what Karasick can do against a man of his own weight, as his two previous appearances were against lighter men, Wildcat McCann and Arthur, whom he fought fairly easy to handle.

Karasick is a bull-necked, ferocious-looking individual who puts lots of color into his work, and his recent bouts in Portland have belied his announcement on returning from the south seas, that he would be gentle as a lamb from now on.

The one-hour bout will feature a reappearance of Herman Olson, who has grappled here previously, against Tom Ray of Seattle. Though not able to furnish much detailed information about these men, Plant guarantees some lively developments.

Strong Linfield Five Will Oppose Bearcats Tonight; May Spoil Title Chances

N. W. CONFERENCE

The Linfield college hoopers, regarded by Coach "Spec" Keene of Willamette as stronger than Whitman which divided a two-game series with the Bearcats last weekend, will invade the Willamette court tonight in the hope of gaining revenge for the unexpected defeat the Wildcats suffered at Willamette's hands at Linfield several weeks ago.

Since dropping that game to Keene's squad 24-21, the result of a surplus showing of "fight" rather than science on Willamette's part, Henry Lever's Wildcats have given indication of rapid improvement, the most striking being a victory, 50 to 33, over Columbia university on Columbia's floor. Columbia had previously beaten Linfield and split a pair of close games with Willamette. Linfield also won from Pacific, 44 to 38, a week ago,

TILLAMOOK TO SEND HOOPERS

State Title Contender to Oppose Salem High on Court Here Tonight

At least three high school basketball teams which have distinct state championship possibilities have appeared against Salem high here already this season and two more are to come; Tillamook high, perhaps the strongest of the entire group, will be entertained tonight. The game will start about 8 o'clock, with the Salem B team and the Presbyterian Church league leaders, engaging in a preliminary at 7 p. m.

The Tillamook Cheesemakers, always a colorful outfit in their numerous trips to the tourney, have in the past included perhaps one or two notable performers, all-state men or candidates for the honor, and have always been well coached. But as a rule the teams have not been well balanced, the rest of the quintet not measuring up to the speed and ability of the one or two stars.

This year all that appears to be changed; Coach Russ Rarey, a notable football and basketball player at Willamette university in the days of Bob Mathews, for once has plenty of material. That Tillamook high is well equipped with athletes this season, was evidenced when Rarey's football team last fall went undefeated and was considered by competent critics to be the strongest in the state with the possible exception of Jefferson of Portland.

Held to Two-Point Victory at Coast

Nevertheless Salem's prospects for a victory tonight are not overly gloomy, for Hollis Huntington's squad held Tillamook's two-point victory on Tillamook's own floor recently, and the home floor advantage should amount to a little more than that many points.

Baumgartner, a deceptive floor worker who finds the hoop from any distance or angle, is regarded as Tillamook's strongest threat though he did not score heavily against Salem in the game at the coast. Kinnaman doing the major part of the tallying in that contest.

The Salem high team, which has looked especially impressive in its last two games against weaker opponents, will have to count on having more speed and better marksmanship, for it will be out-sized considerably by the visitors, especially at center.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Feb. 13.—(AP)—Oregon State college's basketball crew moved a step nearer to the 1932 Northern division hoop title by downing the University of Idaho quintet 46 to 26 in a rough and ragged contest here tonight.

U. N. S. ENGAGES MULTNOMAH AGAIN

MONMOUTH, Feb. 13.—The Oregon Normal school's basketball quintet will take on Multnomah club of Portland in the Monmouth high school gym Tuesday night. This is a return conflict with the Portland squad. In their game at Multnomah club house last Wednesday the Wolves had a lead of 32 to 10 at half time but began to loaf in the final half, which turned victory into defeat.

Rea Smith of the club team proved the sensation of the evening when in the last quarter he began slugging them through the rim from almost mid-floor. With only 18 seconds to go he looped a field goal that won the game for the club by a single point in a final score of 32-31. Smith will be seen in action here Tuesday night.

Bethel Strategy Beats Perrydale

BETHEL, Feb. 13.—Bethel high school's basketball team played a brand new system of attack to counter Perrydale's type of defense in their game here Friday night, and these new plays clicked perfectly long enough for Bethel to pile up a 16 to 1 lead early in the game, and then coast to a 24 to 13 victory.

Key, for Perrydale, made 14 of his team's points. Christensen and Freeman tied for Bethel's scoring honors with 11 each.
