

SPRING VALLEY HAS COMMUNITY CONFAB

SPRING VALLEY, Feb. 14 — An interesting program was provided for the Spring Valley Community club meeting Friday night. The program was opened by Frank and Hilda Crawford playing their steel guitars, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Bork.

The main part featured a mock broadcasting station with Hobart Smith as announcer, who introduced the "Hedevillians," a group of entertainers sponsored by Doolittle's Service station of Salem. Those taking part were Mr. and Mrs. Nile Pearce and Hobart Smith, who gave trio numbers on steel guitars, vocal solos and jokes. Mr. and Mrs. Angus Stevenson who gave readings and harmonica solo. Bob Moline, who gave a number of Scotch, Swedish and Spanish dialect readings, which were very well received. C. L. Slater gave several delightful numbers on the saw, accompanied by Mrs. Nile Pearce on the guitar. Neal Fischer gave vocal numbers accompanying himself on the ukulele. Miss Hilda Crawford gave two banjo solos at the close of the program.

The committee for the March 10 meeting is Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Donnell Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Worth Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ebbert and family who plan to leave in the near future for Beaverton were the inspiration for a surprise potluck dinner served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Craig with residents of the Oak Knoll Road as hosts.

Stortz Home Scene Of Party; Former Neighbors Guests

BRUSH CREEK, Feb. 14 — A group of Brush Creek young people were guests of Misses Edna and Le'a Stortz at a party at their Salem home Saturday night. The Stortzes were former Brush Creek residents.

Miss Stella Dybevik won high score at bridge for the girls and Ludwig Meyer won high for the boys. Present were Miss Dybevik, Miss Margaret Gizik, Miss Luella Forland, Miss Inga Goplerud, Miss Althea Meyer, Miss Edna, Miss Le'a and Miss Wilma Stortz, Mr. Meyer, John Goplerud, Elmer Grace, Irl Grace, Audrey Tokstad, Raymond Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Warner.

Delbert Bibby is In Army Training; C. E. Party Friday

LABISH CENTER, Feb. 14. — Delbert Bibby, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bibby, left Monday for Vancouver Barracks where he will be in army training for the next three months. He formerly enlisted in the navy.

The Christian Endeavor society will hold a party Friday night at the Harvey Aker home. Eva Dow, Erma Hornschuch, Elmer McClaughry and William Aker were recently elected delegates from the local society to the state convention in Eugene, April 27-30.

TUNING UP FOR FLIGHT OVER SOUTH POLE

A picture of roaring power, the giant monoplane, especially designed for the Ellsworth Antarctic expedition, is shown as it sped over the Teterboro, N. J., Airport during its first test flight. Lower photo shows the three men who plan to fly over the South Pole in the craft. They are, left to right, Lincoln Ellsworth, leader of the expedition, Sir Hubert Wilkins and Bert Balchen, all famous for their exploits at the top and bottom of the earth. They expect to start on the first leg of their trip within the next few weeks.

Salem Groups to Give Program For Brush Creek Club

BRUSH CREEK, Feb. 14 — Dan Hillman, president of the Booster club reports that Miss Helen Fockey of the Salem Zonta club, cooperating with the Salem chamber of commerce, has arranged the following program for Friday night:

Address by Don Upjohn; vocal numbers by American Legion Auxiliary trio; introductions by Miss Dorothy Pierce, Zontan and president of the Salem music teachers.

Pedee Will Have Sessions Grange Of Kings Valley

KINGS VALLEY, Feb. 14. — Kings Valley grange, of Benton county, at its next regular meeting will begin its sessions at Pedee in Polk county. Mr. Hosmer having offered the grange the use of that hall rent free.

The February meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bump, Arthur Brown, state deputy, installing officers for the ensuing year.

Howitzer Company Of 186th Infantry Will be Inspected

WOODBURN, Feb. 14 — Annual federal inspection of Howitzer Co. 186th Infantry, will take place at the armory Friday night with Major Pillsbury as inspecting officer. He was formerly an officer in 162nd Infantry and is well

CONTEST PROGRAMS END FRIDAY NIGHT

HAYESVILLE, Feb. 14 — The women of the community are busy preparing the program to be given Friday night at the meeting of the Community club. From whispered comments, it will be well worth seeing, and one may judge which deserves the honor, the men's program last meeting, or the women's this time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Six and children, a son, and a daughter, of Eugene, have rented the Parr residence on the Claxton road.

Mrs. L. Maitord, who recently underwent a major operation in Portland, had recovered sufficiently to be moved to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Auman entertained the San Souel club Saturday night at their country home on the Silverton road. The evening was spent in playing "500" with Mrs. L. M. Case receiving first ladies' prize, and Mrs. E. A. Pruitt receiving second. E. A. Pruitt received first prize for men, and M. Dennis, second.

Independence and Salem Debaters to Vie Thursday Night

INDEPENDENCE, Feb. 14 — The Independence debate teams will meet the Salem high debate teams February 21. The Independence affirmative will meet the Salem negative team at Salem, with Willamette judges officiating. The Salem affirmative team will meet the Independence negative team at Independence with Oregon Normal judges. This will be the last debate for both.

Dallas high school, with eight points, is through. Independence defeated Dallas once thereby having two points. Salem lost to Dallas twice but garnered two points from the decisions, so either of the teams debating Thursday has a chance for first place if it wins both debates by 3 to 0 decisions.

WOODBURN, Feb. 14 — Members of Mrs. Stanley Adams' Sunday school class were entertained at her home Sunday afternoon with a Valentine party. Those present were Phyllis Yoder, Viola Mills, June Joslyn, Lois Jean Lee, Florence McCullough, Ellen and Faye Waldorf, Marjorie Wright, Nora Broyles, Patty Sims and Alice May Adams.

POPE PROCLAIMS HOLY YEAR

Surrounded by high church dignitaries, Pope Pius XI is shown in the Throne Room of the Vatican on the occasion when he issued the Papal Bull proclaiming the year from April 2, 1933, to April 2, 1934, a Holy Year of Prayer to commemorate the nineteenth hundredth anniversary of the crucifixion. The Pope announced that he wished the proclaimed year to be considered "greater than the greatest holy years of the past."

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Feb. 14 — A. McClain of 1575 Skinner street, suffered a serious and painful accident at his home the last of last week, when the engine of his car fell on him breaking several ribs and seriously injuring and bruising him.

Ex-Mayor and Mrs. C. E. Greene, now of Twin Falls, Idaho, are receiving felicitations over the arrival Feb. 4, of a baby son, Joseph Frank. Mrs. Greene is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Pfeiffert, of the Richfield garage here.

A silver tea will be held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ted Burns with hostesses including Mesdames Phil Hathaway, John A. Yantiss, Bertha K. Englehorn, Ted Burns and J. G. Minton.

While her husband is on a cruise on his ship, the U. S. S. Richmond, to Boston, Mrs. C. H. Chalkont and little son, Johnny of Long Beach, Calif., will visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Nannie Griffin in West Salem. At the Griffin home the last of last week was Mrs. Ida McCongar of Grants Pass who with her husband visited the legislature on business. W. L. LaDuc, water superintendent for West Salem, has a crew of six men excavating for sewer pipe laying for the block on Rosemont between Third St. and Plaza. The sewer will be only a short one connecting the manholes of the one block, a distance of 275 feet, and will give a short cut to the river on Rosemont, but it is believed that it will give better drainage to basements in one part of town by relieving the other drains.

Upper Classes Name Officers For Year

INDEPENDENCE, Feb. 14 — The election of officers in the two classes was held Monday: Seniors: President, Jim McEl-downey; vice president, Joe McEl-downey; secretary, Maxine Foster; treasurer, Maurice Hunnicutt; councilmen, Olga Snerson and Maurice Hunnicutt. Juniors: President, Joe Komoto; vice president, Marian Ruef; secretary, Eileen Hunnicutt; treasurer, Pauline Seaper.

Eight-Table Card Party is Enjoyed At Woods' Home

HAZEL GREEN, Feb. 14 — A group of friends honored Mr. and Mrs. Max Woods in a week-end party at their home here. Eight tables of cards were in play, with high scores going to Mrs. Frances Gairner, Carl and Irene and Louis Zielinski. Special feature was a piano solo by Charles Olson.

Those present were the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zielinski, sons Lawrence and Clarence; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zielinski Jr., children Charlotte, Arlene and Ernest; Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Zielinski, children Louis, Quinton and Helen; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Zielinski, Mrs. Frances Gairner, Raymond Gairner and Robert Deim of Quincy; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Olson and son Keith, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Stupfel, children Daphne, George, Carmen, Carol and Irene and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andresen, all of Hayesville; Mrs. Jack Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schneider, son James; and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Effler.

Two Aged Women Suffering Result Of Falls at Home

SILVERTON, Feb. 14 — Sophie Specht, 81, fell on the bathroom floor at the home of her daughter, Miss Rose Specht, and fractured her hip. Because of her advanced age, her condition is considered serious.

SHELBURN, Feb. 14 — Angeline Fleming who celebrated her 91st birthday last summer fell at her home Sunday morning and injured her hip. Mrs. Morris is having fence rows cleaned on her Shelburn ranch preparatory to putting in new fences.

Methodist Women's Quilt Show Success

INDEPENDENCE, Feb. 14 — The quilt and relic show which was sponsored by the Methodist church Boosters club was quite a success. A large number of quilts were displayed, both old and new. Prizes on the quilted ones went to: First, Ernestine Smiley; second, Mrs. Stannard; third, Mrs. Loren Mort. Quilt tops: First, Dorothy Winegar; second, Mrs. Thomas Brunk; third, Mrs. Tom Smith.

Robins Can't Tell It's Still Winter About These Parts

RICKKEY, Feb. 14 — Despite the cold and frost and snow, the snow drops are in bloom, the robins are out in flocks and the frogs have started their spring chorus. All are hoping that spring is just around the corner.

known by members of the old regiment. A high rating is expected for the company, as those in charge have been working hard for the coming event.

Final Rites Held For Ila Nichols, Aumville Maiden

AUMSVILLE, Feb. 14. — Funeral services for Ila Minnie Nichols, 16, were held Monday at the Christian church with interment in the Aumville cemetery. Ila was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nichols, and sister of Orville, Floyd, Franklin and Elliott. She had not been in good health for some time, having undergone four major operations in the past 18 months.

Rev. Graham of Newberg officiated. Pallbearers were Wayne Ransom, John Sacre, Bert Bradley, Eugene Richards, Leonard Snyder and Harvey Snyder.

ROSEDALE, Feb. 14 — The boys' Sunday school class held class party at the home of their teacher Monday night, in honor of Edward Heldy who is soon leaving with his parents for their new home at Entiat, Wash.

REBEKAH HEAD VISITS WOODBURN, Feb. 14 — The Rebekahs held a special meeting Monday night in honor of Mrs. Maude Rogers, president of the Rebekah assembly for Oregon, who is making official visits throughout the state.

MICKY MOUSE

THIMBLE THEATRE—Starring Popeye

Now Showing—"The Queen's Horses"

By SEGAR

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

"Life is Sweet"

By DARRELL McCLURE

TOOTS AND CASPER

"Just a Matter of the Amount"

By JIMMY MURPHY

Cross-Word Puzzle

By EUGENE SHEFFER

Grid for a crossword puzzle with numbers 1 through 50.

- Horizontal clues: 1—tool with a cutting edge, 7—the of the Siouan tribes, 12—revolve, 14—ascended, 15—Biblical pronoun, 16—duty, 17—chess piece, 18—exclamation, 19—play on words, 20—under surface of the foot (pl.), 22—sullen, 24—son of Jacob, 25—pipe, 28—very warm, 29—rotating piece on a wheel, 30—cavity in a bone of the skull, 31—pertaining to, 32—pertaining to heat, 34—exists, 35—strict, 37—large tub, 38—wing, 39—novice, 40—period of time, 41—meat, 42—saw, 44—undeveloped shoot or stem, 45—birthplace of Abraham, 47—electricity particle, 48—engine of war, 49—lava, 51—nymphs who urged mariners on to ruin, 53—expiates, 55—come out, 56—read through carefully, 2—garden implement, 3—indefinite pronoun, 4—Roman military cloak, 5—famous English public school, 6—guided mariners on to ruin, 7—Pythias inland sea in Russia, 8—pertaining to motion, 10—bone, 11—beverage, 12—some, 13—place, 20—metal urn for heating water, 21—luminous heavenly body, 22—spirit, 23—rising high, 24—split pulse, 26—direct, 27—attempt, 29—receptacle, 30—pose for a portrait, 32—pastoral staff of a bishop, 33—beam, 36—period of time, 38—abet, 39—compact, 41—abnormal mass of tissue, 42—Chinese secret society, 44—beat the wings with impudence, 45—utilize, 46—edge, 48—smart blow, 49—bronze in, 50—Roman antiquity, 51—Peer Gynt's mother, 52—note of the musical scale, 54—Greek letter.