Y. Boxers and Wrestlers Oppose M. Club Men Tonight

George Beechler's Showing Is Watched; in Line for Oregon State Title

-Even the most exacting of sport fans should find plenty of attraction in the boxing and wrestling meet to be staged at the local Y. M. C. A. tonight between the Salem Y team and Multnomah Athletic club of Portland, with every indication that it will be "the best amateur fight card ever held in Salem." Bob Boardman, Y physical director, stated that he felt safe in making the above predic-

Most of the boxers and matmen representing Salem are local products and well known here, with at least two of the wrestlers holding northwest amateur championships at their weight. All of the Salem boys have been working hard for the event, and word from Portland last night indicated that the athletic club boys would be here

On the main event of the boxing show will be featured George Beechler of Salem against Koenig of Maltnomah. Beechler is the son of Dr. D. X. Beechler and is attending Oregon State college. As an indication of his prowess it is reported that he is to fight at Corvallis Friday night for the heavyweight title of the college. Another of the local lads from whom much is expected is "Tuffy" Hastings, who will box at the 155pound weight. He is reputed to be good and getting better and capable of taking all the punches thrown his way and always coming back for more.

In the wrestling department spectators will get a chance to see two northwest champions show how it should be done: Clarence Grieg, 125-pound champion and Don Hendrie, 135. Hendrie has held the northwest title for four years. Max Bigby, 145, runner-up for the title at that weight last year, will also represent Salem.

Gloves will begin to fly at 7:45 in the Y gymnasium and the advice is to come early as a good erowd is anticipated. Clyle Grewell, Salem boxing instructor, will referee the matches and Louis Johnson and Shannon Hogue will act as judges.

KARASICK DEFEATS GOB; REFEREE HURT

Fans who expected fireworks when Al Karasick and Sailor Frants got on the mat together, were not disappointed. Karasick won and did considerable "taming" just as was promised, and in one mixup Verne Harrington, popular referee, also "accepted" one that put him out of commission for the rest of the evening.

Karasick won the first fall with a flying mare in 30 minutes. In the second round while Harrington was kneeling down to watch the proceedings, Karasick tossed Frantz over his back a la leapfrog, and the sailor came down on Harrington's knee, hurting him so he was unable to continue.

Abe Kaplan was called in; Karasick, recalling some unpleasantness in which Kaplan figured at some past date, at first refused to go on, but the matter was adfusted. Frantz won the second fall in 9:50 with a body press.

At one time in the third round Karasick thought he had Frantz pinned, and when Kaplan fa' 'd to agree, there was more trouble. Karasick finally won with a Boston crab in 8:30, and Kaplan 'ad to pull the Russian off to keep him from breaking Frantz'

Chet Wiles, substituting for Tom Ray of Seattle, wrestled a draw with Herman Olson of Portland, each getting a fall.

About this time a year ago we advised the fans to keep Astoria in mind, and that holds good once · more—nothing radical in that advice, as the Fishermen are champions until they are dethroned. It might be well to take note that Astoria invaded Corvallis last Saturday night and rather slaughtered Mush Torson's outfit, 48 to 26. Torson's Spartans however may not have been at their best. They had just handed a game to University high, by leaving the second team on the floor too long, and that may have sort of upset their

CORVALLIS, Feb. 14—(AP)— valiant band of Vandal basket tossers from the University of Idaho accomplished the task of forcing the Oregon State varsity squad from the lead in the northern division when they ended a two-game series by winning from the Oregonians 30 to 26 here to-

Chemawa had things its own way in the third period, scoring 18 points to Dallas' 4. The Polk county boys were handicapped to some extent by the illness of Le-Fors, star forward, who was kept out most of the game.

Paddock's enthusiasm is shared by such experts as Dean Cromwell and Dink Templeton. Fitch, who is enrolled at the University of Southern California, was recently clocked at 9.6 seconds for the 100 yards.

Willamette has Slump due To Hard Series, Toss It off Near end

After Coach "Spec" Keene had experimented with various combinations of players in hopes of finding one not dominated by the hard series with Whitman last week, a group largely composed of reserves finally broke loose and ran up a lead which Linfield could not overcome, and the Willamette Bearcats defeated the Wildcats here Tuesday night 36 to 33, to regain their place at the top of the Northwest conference.

Throughout the early part of the game the Bearcats missed shot after shot; the Wildcats were not doing much better from the field but they capitalized on the unusual number of fouls committed by Willamette and led most of the way in the first half, but it was 15-all at half time.

Linfield went into a slight lead with the opening of the second half and then Griffith, Paul, Ricke, Connors and Northrup tossed off the doldrums and pushed Willamette into a 30 to 21 lead. Linfield rallied on the strength of long tosses by Nealy and Eckman, and came back to within two points of a tie, but the final gun sounded just after a foul and a conversion by Willamette interrupted the drive.
