Dinner and Dancing Party Planned

A smart formal affair is being planned by a group of debutantes of Salem for Saturday night in the Silver Grill of the Gray Belle. Covers will be placed for about 25 for a formal banquet. Following the banquet hour escorts will join the young maids and dancing will be enjoyed. The dancing party will include about 50 people.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS You'll walk as sprightly as the fair lady sketched when you wear this stunning frock. It boasts such charming simplicity... the soft cowl neckline, drop shoulders to which are joined very tricky new sleeves, and slimming skirt seaming. We'd love it of crepe silk—plain or a dainty spring print. So very easy to make. There are models for the larger figure, and pages and style number. Be sure to state size wanted. Send for the new sewing fashion book. Containing 32 of delightful junior and kiddie attire. Price of catalog 15 cents. Catalog and pattern together 35 cents. Address all mail orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 245 West 17th street, New York city.

Ione C. Bertram St. Valentine Bride

Stayton.—Don D. Gode, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gode of Stayton and Ione C. Bertram, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bertram of Mill City were united in marriage on Valentine's day at 4 p. m. at the home of the bride. The beautiful ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Lyman, in the presence of immediate relatives. All during the ceremony Mrs. Nina Wadsworth Kahler played a soft accompaniment on the piano. The bride was charming in a gown of peach chiffon, and her lovely arm bouquet was of calla lilies. Her attendant, Miss Mary Bertram of Corvallis, a cousin, wore ivory net and carried pink and white carnations. The groom was attended by Henry Miller of Stayton. Bouquets of red carnations were used about the home in keeping with Valentine's day, and a buffet lunch was served by Mrs. Watcher of Mill City, a long-time friend.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bertram and Mr. and Mrs. Gode, parents of the couple, Miss Betty Gode, Mrs. W. Swift, D. M. Dryden of Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. William Bertram of Corvallis, Miss Beniah and Norval Edwards of Stayton, and the wedding party. Following the ceremony the newlyweds left for a short honeymoon trip. They will reside here.

Stayton.—One of the most charming parties of the season was the Valentine party given Tuesday night by the Misses Jean Ficklin and Birdean Yoeman at the banquet room of the Gem cafe. Five tables of bridge were in play, high scores going to Leonard Darby and consorting to Herman Darby. Later the young people danced to radio music. Guests included Misses Ada Keyes, Germain and Gertrude Smith, Hazel Murphy, Betty Pendleton and Jean Ingels, and Wilbur Wesley, Maurice and Darrel Shelton, Eddie Berg, Harold Pendleton, Fernando Smith, Herman Darby, Milton Bell, Leonard Berg and Allan Ingels.

The Ecclesia club enjoyed a Valentine party Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Flora Turnbull with Miss Ann Heisler, Miss Ruth Cole, Miss Edna McElhaney and Miss Turnbull, joint hostesses. After a pleasantly informal social evening refreshments were served and a feature of this hour was the birthday cake which was served in compliment to Miss McElhaney. Mrs. Holdgaard Ross of Portland and Mrs. Ola Hughes were special guests.

A dancing party and St. Valentine's "kiddie" party will be the jolly entertainment set aside for the Junior Artisans tonight at fraternal temple. All juniors over 12 years of age and friends over the same age are attending and each is asked to dress as a small child. The amusement of the costumes will add much fun to the evening's program. Refreshments will be served at a late hour. The party will begin at 8 o'clock.

Thursday evening the Young Ladies' Sodality of the St. Vincent de Paul parish will entertain with a novel Valentine dance in the parish hall.

In charge of the affair are: Miss Agnes Moisan, chairman, assisted by Miss Angela Meyer, Miss Helen Weber and Miss Florence Moisan. Patrons and patronesses honoring the committee will be Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Swing and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Varley.

The second meeting of the Rotary women's group organization was effected in January at the home of Mrs. William McGlitchrist, Jr. will be an event of February 20 at the Marion hotel. This will be a luncheon meeting and at that time officers will be elected and plans will be made for the coming year's activities.

Mrs. F. G. Taft of Portland will be the weekend guest of Mrs. F. W. Packwood. Mrs. Taft is Mrs. Packwood's mother.

Surprise Party Honors Visiting Matrons

A delightful affair of Wednesday afternoon was the surprise party for which a group of popular matrons were hostesses at the home of Mrs. E. T. Pierce, complimenting her house guests, her mother, Mrs. Becke, and her aunt, Mrs. Lou Erbsland, both of Astoria.

Mothers accompanied the young matrons and the arrival of the guests was a complete surprise to the honor guests. The afternoon was spent informally.

Calling were Mrs. Don Young and her mother, Mrs. Van Deland; Mrs. Ronald Jones and Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Paul Hendricks and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. T. A. Roberts and Mrs. E. V. McMechan with their mother, Mrs. W. E. DeLong; Mrs. D. B. Hill and Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Karl Becke, Mrs. H. G. Mason, Mrs. W. F. Poorman, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. R. L. Edwards, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. William Mott and Mrs. E. T. Pierce.

Miss Barbara Pierce and Miss Charlotte Hill assisted in serving at the tea hour.

Mrs. J. R. Pemberton Entertains Club

Mrs. J. Ray Pemberton entertained at her home Wednesday evening for members of the Golden Hour club and their husbands. A "jig saw" puzzle contest furnished the amusement for the evening and proved an intriguing affair. Mrs. W. H. Brots, Mrs. A. A. Siewert and Mrs. B. E. Sisson assisted Mrs. Pemberton.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bretz, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Sisson, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Siewert, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. John Carkin, Mr. and Mrs. William Schultz, Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Spring and Dr. and Mrs. Pemberton.

Miss Cecelia Mielke entertained in delightful manner members of the Enclitic club Tuesday night when the group met for its regular dinner session. Miss Mielke told of her European travels with special reference to Sweden and Germany. Plans were discussed for attending the coming Seattle convention. Miss Dorothy Travis, and Miss Frances Nelson of Silverton were special guests.

Among the younger generation to observe the festivities of St. Valentine was John and Laura May Hoss who with their mother, Mrs. Hal Hoss, were hosts to about 18 of their small friends at the Hoss home Saturday afternoon. Games were enjoyed and after an amusing contest Ann Husted was the winner for accuracy in pinning the tail to the donkey. Mrs. Ella Lantz, grandmother of the small hosts, assisted at the refreshment hour.

The Coterie club met with Helen Fletcher on Thursday evening. Prizes were won by Edith Starrett and Mildred Samuelson. Eva Beatty was guest of the evening. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening. A Valentine motif was used for the decorative motif and the same idea was carried out in the late supper menu. Present were Mrs. Robert Aiken, Mrs. B. E. Parker, Mrs. Frank Power, Mrs. R. Savage, Mrs. R. Craigs, Mrs. Arthur Upton, Mrs. I. Welsam, Mrs. Cecelia, Mrs. Margie, Mrs. O. Emmons, Mrs. W. A. Marshall, Mrs. George Elliot, Mrs. Norine Pick, Mrs. Arthur Gihbard and the hostesses.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney entertained at dinner Wednesday night in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Yarns, Prof. and Mrs. Charles Sherman and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Aiken.

Among those observed having dinner together at the Marion hotel Tuesday night were Representative and Mrs. F. W. Packwood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles "Sh" Huntington of Eugene, and D. P. Taft.

Thimble club of Neighbors of Woodcraft will be hostess for a card benefit Friday afternoon at Fraternal temple. Cards will be in play at 2 o'clock.

Miss Ruth Dake entertained for members of the J. U. G. club at her home Monday evening. Miss Eva Goff assisted. St. Valentine set the decorative note.

Mrs. J. T. Whittig was hostess to members of the Round Up club this past week. Luncheon was enjoyed at Mrs. Godfrey's and following this the group returned to the home of Mrs. Whittig and played bridge. Mrs. Max Buren held high score for the afternoon. Mrs. R. P. Boise was a special guest.

Mrs. Florence Shipp entertained with a pretty St. Valentine party at her home Tuesday afternoon complimenting members of the Past Presidents club. Mrs. Dossie Eberhard and Mrs. Cordelia LeBar were special guests for the afternoon. Mrs. Sarah Peterson assisted Mrs. Shipp at the tea hour.

Rep. and Mrs. F. W. Packwood are occupying the home of George Rodgers during the legislative session. Mrs. Rodgers is spending most of her time in Portland during the session.

Miss White Sets March 19 for Wedding

Miss Dorothy White has set the date for her wedding to George Elmer Emigh, Jr., for March 19. The announcement of Miss White's engagement was made recently by her parents, Major General and Mrs. George A. White.

Many social affairs are being arranged for the popular maid. Among these are included the afternoon for which Miss Margaret Drager and Miss Henriette Whites were hostesses Tuesday afternoon at the Drager home.

Miss Josephine Cornoyer will entertain with a dessert luncheon at the Cornoyer home Saturday afternoon and this will be followed by bridge at seven tables in compliment to Miss White.

Mrs. Wallace Carson will entertain in the near future and Mrs. Frank Shafer and Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., will entertain with a candlelight tea and shower for Miss White soon.

Dancing Party St. Valentine Affair

A gay St. Valentine party was that for which students of Miss Alta Eastham Travis entertained at the Travis studio of the dance Tuesday night.

About 30 guests were entertained. Dancing was enjoyed in gayly decorated guest rooms. Refreshments were served at a late hour under the direction of Mrs. Lynn Cronemiller and Mrs. King Bartlett who acted as hostesses for the evening.

Miss Barbara Pierce and Miss Charlotte Hill assisted in serving at the tea hour.

Mrs. John Lewis Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. John Lewis entertained at the Spa Tuesday afternoon in compliment to a group of visiting matrons.

Covers were placed at a prettily appointed St. Valentine luncheon table for Mrs. W. O. Feenaughty, Mrs. Arthur Crookham, Mrs. Luther T. Nelson, Mrs. H. C. Jordan, Mrs. James F. Ginnane, Mrs. F. H. Brundage, Mrs. John R. Stegall, Mrs. Vern Elliott and for Mrs. Lewis.

The State Art Museum committee will meet with women of the legislative group in a 4:30 o'clock session in the lounge room of the new state building Thursday afternoon. At this time plans will be discussed for the welfare and development of Oregon's art.

Mrs. Homer Smith entertained the Town and Country club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock and cards followed. At the tea hour a pretty gift was presented to Miss Dorothy White, bride elect whose marriage will be an important event of March 19.

An attractive glass shower was given for Mrs. Albert E. Bayne, nee Nina Maggini at the home of Miss Hazel D. Phillip Tuesday evening. Bridge was in play for several hours and a host of attractive presents were given Mrs. Bayne preceding the late supper hour.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Phillips entertained at dinner preceding the Monday Night Dancing club dance for Dr. and Mrs. Grover C. Belinger, Senator and Mrs. L. F. Allan, and Dr. and Mrs. Phil Neweyer.

Members of the Salem Zonta club will be special guests of Miss Helen Yoeky Thursday evening. Mrs. LaVerne Winkler will be assisting hostess.

Artisans will entertain with a potluck supper at the Fraternal temple at 6:30 o'clock tonight. O. A. Hatton will be speaker for the after dinner meeting.

Miss Florence Coffin of Portland will be the weekend guest of Mrs. J. Ray Pemberton. She will arrive today.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB PLAY IS THURSDAY

GRAND ISLAND, Feb. 15.—The Improvement club will present its annual play at the schoolhouse Saturday night February 18. The play, "All a Mistake" is a three-act mystery comedy full of many laughable complications.

The cast includes Harold Tomkins, Alvin Rockhill, Douglas Anderson, Dick Rockhill, Lucille Fisher, Belle Rockhill, Agnes Tomkins and Mildred Smith.

As soon as the freezing weather subsides sufficiently to permit the laying of a concrete foundation, work will be started in the construction of a new 20-40 foot green house on the Worth Wiley farm. It is expected to have the greenhouse in readiness for spring use. Charles Sergeant, contractor, of the Hopewell district, will have charge.

The Duff evangelistic party who have been holding a series of meetings for the past two and one-half weeks at the Unionvale Evangelistic church drew their meetings to a close Sunday night.

Allen Home Scene Of Farewell Party For Gladwyn Hamre

SILVERTON, Feb. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Gladwyn P. Hamre were honored at a party given Monday night at the Dewey Allen home at North Water street. Members of the American Legion auxiliary were the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamre, together with Mrs. Hamre's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Conrad are leaving shortly for the south where they are going in an endeavor to improve Mr. Hamre's health. They will be gone for several months.

During their absence Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Johnson will occupy the Hamre home.

Rye Not Damaged By Freeze; Berry Loss Said Heavy

MEHAMA, Feb. 15.—The farmers in this locality have started reseeded and have to reseed everything but rye. The real cold night last week damaged the berries in this locality to a greater extent than the December freeze. There will be a loss in raspberries for replanting but the strawberry plants will be very scarce.

The Willing Workers have two more orders from California for quilts. Last week they finished a quilt that brought $10. Besides these rush orders they have 15 quilts on hand to be quilted.

Deadline Nears For Dog Owners

Income on dog licenses in Marion county is gradually creeping up, which it must do if dog owners don't want to be caught short when the deadline on penalty-free licenses comes next month. Receipts Tuesday totaled $70, a five dollar increase over Saturday. To date, 534 licenses have been issued by the county clerk.
