

Another Flurry of Snow Visits Area Of Valseltz Hills

VALSETZ, Feb. 15 — Ice skating has once more been the enjoyment of many of the Valseltz people. The 65 acres of mill pond froze over again this week. The snow remains some two feet deep, and where it has drifted is much deeper.

The machine shop at camp six caved in due to heavy snow. Tuesday afternoon another heavy snow storm visited Valseltz. Snow has been on the ground here five weeks.

CLASS IS ENTERTAINED
GERVAIS, Feb. 15 — The Philatelic class of the Presbyterian Sunday school entertained the adult bible class at a Valentine party in the church basement Tuesday night. Mr. Minaker as the village school teacher gave an old-time school entertainment in which almost everyone present took part.

COLLECTORS ORGANIZE
MILL CITY, Feb. 15 — To assist in the organization of a new philatelic club Mr. and Mrs. Al VanDahl and Roy Chance motored to Albany Friday night. Mr. VanDahl, who is editor of the Western Stamp Collector and also the Mill City Logue, is quite an authority on the work of stamp collecting, a hobby of which he has been a devotee since his early youth.

Revival Campaign Opens Tonight For Pentecostal Group

SILVERTON, Feb. 15 — Evangelist Anna Olson of California will conduct a group of meetings, beginning February 17, at the Calvary Pentecostal church, 623 North Water street. Evangelist Olson will use illustrations with her talks. The Rev. J. W. Brown and Mrs. Brown, in charge of the local congregation, are assisting in the arrangements for the Evangelistic meetings.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Congregational church will give a social at the church Saturday night which is open to all young people of Silverton who are interested in attending. Miss Ina Hayes is president and Miss Gladys Fletcher and Mrs. Lida Usher will assist in arrangements.
