Oregon State Finally Gets Going: Lewis Resumes High Scoring Role

EUGENE, Ore., Feb. 18-(AP) -Oregon State college defeated the University of Oregon, 29 to 18, here tonight to retain its lead in the Pacific coast conference northern division basketball race.

The game opened with both teams playing cautiously and guarding closely, and for 15 minutes the scoring, 3 to 1 for Oregon State, was all on free throws, neither team being able to connect for a basket.

Then Taylor for the Orangemen cut loose with a basket, Roberts of Oregon hooped an answering shot, and Lewis and O'Connell followed in quick succession. Lewis, captain of the Orangemen, had three baskets by the end of the half, which ended 15 to 7 for Oregon State.

The Orangemen increased their lead in the second half, then Oregon rallied to cut the lead down to eight points, 19 to 11. But Oregon State replied with four baskets in a row to pile up a safe

PULLMAN, Wash., Feb. 18-(AP)-Smarting under their defeat last night, the University of Washington Huskies turned on Washington State's Cougars, defeating them 35 to 28 in their Pacific coast conference basketball game here tonight.

Washington kept to the fore in its race for the championship, winning the struggle after a rough and tough onslaught that saw 27 personal fouls called on both teams.

A different team from the slow footed, slow thinking crew that fell before Washington State's onslaught last night, the Huskies went into action at the start, with Hal Lee, guard, looping the first field goal. Ken Wills, Washington State guard, followed with another field goal, but the Huskies again took the lead and held it until half way in the period. Here Wills tied the count at 9, but Washington forged ahead again, and was out in front, 18 to

A Cougar rally early in the second half brought Washington State to within three points of the university, but Heaman, Lee, Galer and Hanover went on a rampage that enhanced the lead by ten points.

SPORTDOM PAYS HONOR TO A WORTHY CAREER

Vernon Gilmore, track coach at Salem high school, is taking on a double task this spring; he will also coach the Willamette university track and field men. Both squads will work out on the Willamette field, so practically the only difference in Gilmore's work will be keeping track of more men.

This plan ought to work out well in various ways. Track and field sports, while staging a comeback here, have not yet attained the importance they merit; the young fellows who do have sufficient interest to devote their energies in this direction are in a In the last quarter no field goals way crusaders working against were made, for each team checked the handicap of more or less pubclosely. The only scoring was two lic apathy; and they will be enfoul shots by Sweet Home, which couraged by working all together.

> Track facilities on Sweetland field are not yet ideal, but they are much better than on Olinger field, where there is practically nothing; the high school boys will get the advantage of the Willamette facilities and the Bearcat athletes the benefit of Gilmore's direction. Gilmore was a notable performer on the track for O. S. C., and thoroughly qualified to instruct in both the running and field

For his Salem high squad, Gilmore finds six lettermen on hand; Dave Sheppard, distance runner; Joe Baker and Norman Burgoyne high jump; Os Morley, javelin; George Corey, pole vault; Melvin Engle, discus. Kenneth Filsinger, Glenn Moody and Chester Barnes are others, among an extensive list of aspirants who will turn out this week, who are expected to prove valuable. Those named form a good nucleus but there will be room on the team for many lads who have not yet revealed their Willamette's showing last year was better than it had been for many seasons, but nothing to cause apoplexy among the rooters. This year with only two men missing from last year's team, the outlook is better. Loss of Faber, dependable sprinter, is the most severe blow.

Captain Dumas, Lange, Mealy, Adlard and Cook assure Willamette of its usual strength in the distance runs; Kaiser, McCullough, Barnett, Ney and Armstrong are available for the middle distances, with the addition of Waltz, who made a great showing for Salem high last year; Lloyd, Cannady and James form the nucleus for a sprint squad. James, low hurdler, is the only experienced timber-topper.

The outlook in the field events is not quite so good. Fantz, Connors, Lloyd, McKerrow and Olson may be able to spread their talents over all of the events with the exception of the javelin, high jump and pole vault. Rieke and Kloostra, the basketball centers, may turn their talents to high jumping. as many men out as possible for both the Willamette and the high school teams, so as to be building for the future as well for the present.

Just one more game, against Pacific university Tuesday night at Forest Grove, stands between the Willamette Bearcats and the unofficial championship of the Northwest conference, as Coach "Spec" Keene's men return today from Tacoma where they surprised their friends by the decisiveness of their second victory over College of Puget Sound.

In view of the fact that the Loggers were reported to have their best team in history, and in view of the close games those Loggers put up against Whitman on Whitman's floor, it was considerable of a surprise that Willamette managed to beat the Loggers even once. Fans here suspect they played better ball than at any previous time this season.

Nevertheless Pacific looms as formidable obstacle in the Bearcats title march; more menacing than ever since the Ba!gers' victory over Linfield Friday night, 56 to 40. Linfield held Willamette to much closer scores twice this season. On the other hand Linfield had taken itfirst game from Pacific. The Badgers lost to Willamette 40 to 28 here a month ago, after putting up a close battle untinear the end.

Douglas, Corrigan and Killite ran wild in the Linfield game Friday night, Douglas getting 14 points and the other two 15 each McKeel, a fourth veteran, scored nine. Olsvick, a new man paired with Douglas at forward, made no points.

Past records fail to shed much light on what the outcome Tuesday night may be. Pacific has had an irritating habit of spoiling Willamette's chances for championships in other sports. by defeating the Bearcats when Pacific had no chance for a title. On the other hand. Pacific has not beaten Willamette at basketball since the present or-
