

Champion Fishermen to Play Salem High Here Tonight

ASTORIA QUINT FAST AS EVER

Warren has Four Veterans To Huntington's one; Game at 8 p. m.

Basketball teams of Salem high and Astoria high, each built around the remnants of the great quintets which battled in the state tournament finals here last March, will clash on the Salem high floor tonight at 8 o'clock.

Astoria has more players left from the 1932 state champion team than Salem has from the runner-up quintet, but both are in the running for the state title again, and there is apparently little to choose between them, Astoria having won their first game this season by two points on its home floor.

Averill, lanky center, seems to be the spark plug of this year's Fishermen; Orwick and Mackey are other veterans who are figuring in the starting lineup regularly. Strangely enough Canessa, the boy who was a great "pinch hitter" for John Warren's Fishermen last year, is filling the same role again this year. In a recent game with Corvallis, Canessa didn't start, but scored nine points when he went in.

Averill has been starting at forward in some of the games with Orwick at center. Foster is the other regular forward, Mackey and Wright the starting guards.

Coach Hollis Huntington of Salem High is expected to revert to his arrangement used prior to the Chemawa game, with Morley or Thomas at center, as the shift which placed Engle at center and Perrine at guard did not work particularly well in that game. The preliminary game tonight, at 7 o'clock, will be between the high school B team and Cadwell's Wranglers.

CURT COMMENTS

"Letter earned in 1000 awarded," says sport page headline in C. J. That old boy, aged at least 850 years, must have been an interesting figure up there on the platform getting his track "S" at Stanford.

And then the Medford Mail-Tribune, its front page full of items, news and otherwise, about L. A. Banks, publisher of the rival paper, has one last little headline down at the bottom, "Banks will honor Washington birth." We presumed Banks didn't honor anybody but Banks and Satan.

After the tumult and the shouting die, there's something depressing about a championship. It reminds us of that classic remark attributed to Commodore Peary at the time his party reached the North Pole.

"Where do we go from here?" asked Peary's chief aide.

"South," Peary replied.

After all probably the big thrill about a championship, be it in basketball, boxing or jigsaw assembling is in the struggle to attain it. After that a struggle just to retain it is sort of anti-climax.

Athenians Beat Kay Mills Five; Hoot Scores 32

Led by Lawrence "Hoot" Gibson, flashy forward who rolled up a total of 32 points for the evening, the Athenians, newly organized basketball team, composed of former and present Willamette university students, ran wild over the team from Kay Woolen mills to the tune of 73 to 31 in a basketball game at the Y. PARRISH TAKES TITLE CONTEST

Defeats McMinnville 34-22 In First of Series for State J. H. Title

Parrish was one up on McMinnville for the junior high school basketball championship of Oregon, following an exciting game in the Parrish gym Thursday night. Parrish won 34 to 22, but there were a number of moments when the score was much closer than that and the outcome decidedly problematical. A second game will be played at McMinnville next week.

The McMinnville boys, noticeably sturdier than the home squad, and with a couple of sharpshooters in Blenkinsop and Mabee, made it a close race in the first half but were behind 13 to 10 at its close.

Salstrom and Queseth began potting corner shots in rapid fashion early in the second half and they raised the margin to 22-14 in the third period. McMinnville got going in the last quarter and cut the difference down to six points before Parrish started its final rally.

They will meet Friday night at 8 o'clock. Dallas is undefeated and Falls City has lost one game; if Falls City wins another game will be necessary.

Falls City qualified for a second chance at Dallas by defeating Bethel, 18 to 10 tonight, largely through better stamina as both teams had played in the afternoon. Bethel's play slumped noticeably, the players being guilty of "traveling" many times. Falls City led 11 to 6 at half time.

In the first afternoon game Dallas defeated Bethel 30 to 26, staving off a last period rally. Dallas had led 11 to 5 after the first period and 17 to 9 at half time. Christenson of Bethel led in the scoring with 13 points.

SILVERTON, Feb. 23.—Considerable interest is being manifested here in the forthcoming game with Astoria Saturday night. Fans are expecting that if Astoria wins at all Saturday night it will not be an easy victory.

MONMOUTH SCOUTS BEAT M'MINNVILLE

MONMOUTH, Feb. 23.—Monmouth boy scouts' basketball team defeated the Boy Scout squad from McMinnville here Wednesday night, score 23 to 26.

Monmouth lads started off like all-stars, running up a score of 21 to 8 at half time. Through numerous substitutions which broke up the team play, McMinnville took the game in hand to put the home boys on the defensive by getting to within one point of the victors, but a final field goal by Moreland switched the score to Monmouth in the last minute of play. Moreland was high point man, and Dodson of McMinnville.
