

Painful Injury Due To Needle in Wall

JEFFERSON, Feb. 23 — A needle in the wall of the living room of the Viri Case home five miles southwest of Jefferson Sunday, caused much pain for Rita Ann Case, 8 year old daughter.

ter of Mr. and Mrs. Viri Case. She and her sister, Constance, were playing. and Constance pushed Rita Ann against the wall, on to the needle, embedding it in her flesh just below the hip. The needle disappeared and has not yet been removed.

Christian Church Center For Much Dallas Activity

DALLAS, Feb. 23 — The new Christian church building of Dallas is the scene of much activity. Last week seventeen separate and distinct groups used the building from Sunday morning to Friday night. Just about 900 individuals were served in the 17 meetings. The groups using the building ranged from committee of five members to church services of about 300.

The majority of the groups using the building are church groups. Last week the Federated Women's clubs of the county held an all day meeting in the social hall of the building. This week fourteen separate groups are using the building for various kinds of meetings such as Bible school church services, class meetings, committee meetings and social times.

Winter Here? Well Hjorth Talks About "Spring" on Return

BRUSH CREEK, Feb. 23 — Henry Hjorth has received word from his brother, Will, who spent January here, that he is again at his home at Green Bay, Wisconsin, and that while he heard a lot of complaint of the winter weather in Oregon, Oregonians really didn't know what winter is. Since his arrival at home on February 8, a continuous cold spell had been "enjoyed." The thermometer had dropped to 32 below and one day it had never gone above 20 below.

Instructors Study Outline Work at Mt. Angel Meeting

MT. ANGEL, Feb. 23 — The T. A. Study club met at the home of Florence Walker Tuesday night, when discussion on history and civic outlines was continued. At the next meeting on March 14 at the home of Grace
