WOMEN'S EVENT IS FINE SUCCESS

WOODBURN, Feb. 23.—The Martha Washington silver tea held at the Woodburn library was well attended, the proceeds of the afternoon being about $25. Mesdames W. D. Simmons, Hiram Overton, Katherine Powell and Ida Parr presided at the tea urns. Refreshments were served by the kitchen committee, assisted by Mrs. Helen Guis, economics teacher of the high school, and the Misses Marie Striker, Mary Shaw, Floris Nelson, Marjorie Faulkner and Barbara Epy. A splendid program was given

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Feb. 23.—At the recent meeting of the school board of the West Salem district, selection of the following teachers for the next year was made: First grade, Mrs. Ethel McCoy of Salem; second grade, Miss Flora Polley of Salem; third grade, Miss Ruth Butler of Dallas; fifth grade, Mrs. Roberta Peterson of Independence; sixth grade, Miss Trula Grant of West Salem; seventh grade, Miss Hazel Emmett of Kingwood; and eighth grade, Lyle Thomas of West Salem.

Special attention is requested from citizens from here to the meeting to be held in the chamber of commerce rooms in Salem next Tuesday evening, Feb. 28, in the interest of the boy scout movement here and in the entire Cascade area. It is feared that unless considerable more interest among the adult population is shown in this work among the boys, that the movement for this region will have to be abandoned.

Cases on the docket for the West Salem justice court recently include that of W. Bancroft and Clarence McCoy of Falls City charged with hunting deer in the closed season for deer. They were found guilty and fined $100 each. J. W. Mann charged with driving a motor vehicle without lights was fined $2.50. Floyd Countryman, arrested on the charge of driving an auto with more than three adults in the front seat was fined $2.50 which he served out in jail.

ADAMS INSTALLED LEADER OF G. A. R.

Remindful of the fact that the ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic are thinning rapidly, is the announcement that a third commander of Sedgwick post has been installed this year, the new leader being Daniel S. Adams, who was elected junior vice-commander. Mr. Mills of Turner, set for vice-commander, passed away first and then last month, Commander Clabahan.

Mr. Adams was installed at the last meeting, the ceremony being in charge of Florence Shipp, department president of the W.R.C. Commander Adams is 90 years of age, having been born March 11, 1842, at Falmouth, Me. He enlisted in Company A, 124th Regular U. S. Volunteers, August 1, 1862, and was discharged August 16, 1865, at the end of the war. He has been an active worker in the G. A. R. from its beginning.

Freshmen Present Patriotic Program For Entire School

WOODBURN, Feb. 23.—A Washington birthday program was given in the high school auditorium Tuesday morning, the freshman class being in charge. The program opened by the Woodburn Post No. 46, American Legion presenting the flag carried by Hartley Le Febvre and escorted by Richard Yates and Stanley Adams, after which the following program was given: reading by Dale Ashland, a two-act play written by Helen Yoder, a freshman, by the sixth period English class coached by Miss Stephens, a reading by Barbara Epy, and an interesting talk on George Washington by Father Rubis of St. Luke's church.

Snowbound Folks to Get Food at Last

MEHAMA, Feb. 23.—Snow has no respect for people's appetites or at least it seemed that way to the people living at the mines at the end of the Elk-Horn road. They became so hungry and it seemed the snow just kept falling so they had a big snow plow come to Mehama for provisions. It took the crew 12 days to come one way with snow as deep as 9 feet to plow through. The plow reached here about 7 o'clock Monday night and started back as soon as it was loaded. They expected it would take several days for the return trip as snow was falling fast when they left the mines and in the 12 days required to make the trip no doubt there would be considerable snow to fight on the return trip.

A truck attempted to go in with the provisions but got only as far as Elk Horn where the snow was three feet deep.

Sickness Strikes Several Blows at Mt. Angel Homes

MT. ANGEL, Feb. 23.—A sudden siege of severe illness seems to have struck Mt. Angel Tuesday. John Buhr suffered a stroke of apoplexy and is in a very critical condition. Miss Anna Resch is dangerously ill at the home of her mother.

Junior Operetta Is Event Tonight At Eugene Field

SILVERTON, Feb. 23.—The annual junior operetta to be given Friday night at the Eugene Field auditorium promises to be exceptionally fine this year. Miss Catharine Cuddy is in charge of general arrangements, with Miss E. Moore Neave supervising the posters and programs.

The operetta to be given is "A Trip to Europe" and the scenes on the ship are depicted. Special character parts are taken by Elma Hutton, Betty Thomas, Billy King, Edgar Lovett, Dean Stamey, Robert Nell, Jack Lincoln, Dorsey Tweedie, Frances Mehl, Phyllis Adams, Annabelle Jensen, Anita Cluff and Cleo Canoy.

The opening chorus will be sung by 120 children and there will be choruses of sailors and tourists. Anita Cluff will read the prologue.

STAYTON, Feb. 22.—A. K. Lulay has purchased from the state the place north of the Baptist church known as the Clyde Downing property. He plans to make a number of improvements on the property. Mr. Lulay is employed at the Stayton Mail office.

Auburn Program Honors Lincoln And Washington

AUBURN, Feb. 23.—A number of parents attended the Washington and Lincoln program given by the children at the school house Wednesday.

The children's singing without the piano was especially fine, showing careful training by the teacher.

C. A. Newbill is returning with his daughter to Idaho. The Claude Armstrong family will move into Mr. Newbill's home. Mr. Armstrong is employed by the Lloyd Lee Hatchery and he will be nearer his work.

Kenneth, Donald and Doris Boley are new pupils in school this week, the family having moved into the Alvina Sherman Williams house on Auburn Lane.
