chairman of the ways and means in that session he went so far as to fight his own bills on the floor." The Multnomah county senator charged that Burke had left the governor's camp because a state highway was not run past his house.

Senator Staples said he did not vote for Governor Meler but was proud of his work in the executive department and he similarly praised Budget Director Hanzen.

Seator Spaulding said he was not ready to vote on the appropriation measures until such time as he was advised of the reductions made by the joint ways and means committee and the amount of money that would be available to apply on the deficit.

"Here we are going round and round about nothing." Upton declared. "It should have been evident to every ember of this senate that the Hanzen budget could not be reduced." One Road District

Measure Approved Considerable debate preceded the passage of a bill introduced by the committee on assessment and taxation providing that all territory within a county, outside of incorporated cities and towns. shall be embraced in one road district.

Unanimous approval was given a measure introduced by Representative Huntington prohibiting false or decelving advertising by dentists.

The senate also approved Sen-ator Upton's resolution directing the state utilities commissioner to institute proceedings to compel the Union Pacific sytsem to contruct a railroad from Burns to Prineville, and later consider the advisability of extending the line with a railroad already under construction or to be constructed up the Santiam pass.

MARYLAND HOLIDAY WILL ASSIST BANKS

BALTIMORE, Feb. 24.—(AP) -A proclamation declaring tomorrow a legal holiday, and a statement that daily proclamations would be given to make Monday and Tuesday legal holdays, were issued late tonight by Governor Albert C. Ritchie to close every bank and financial institution in Maryland until Wednesday morning.

Heavy withdrawals, principally on Baltimore banks this week, were given as the reason for the governor's action in declaring the holidays. Withdrawals at the Baltimore city banks amounted to deposits, bankers said.

Financial officials were unable to state the exact number of banks and concerns affected but said there were 205 banks, state the newsreel hounds ground and national; savings institutions and building and loan associations operating in the state December $1, with total resources of $889,-

RAPIER OF '76 WAR EXHIBITED TO CLUB

JEFFERSON, Feb. 28. - The birthday of George Washington was observed at the regular meeting of the Jefferson Woman's club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. M. Smith, with the "heirloom silver tea," and an appropriate program.

There was quite a large display of heirlooms, perhaps the oldest exhibit was a pewter bowl which is over 300 years old, and belongs to Mrs. Eugene Finlay. Another relie was a rapier, used during the revolutionary war, and belongs to Miss Esther Roland.

Mrs. Karl Steiwer and Mrs. M. D. Looney poured, and Jean Smith and Marjorie Fontaine and Mrs. . V. Sattock served.

About 50 women attended. The proceeds of this tea will be used as a library benefit.

The program included a style show and other numbers by Shir-ley and Shields Roland, Mrs. V. D. Looney and Mrs. J. O. Van
