Large Attendance At Breakfast Club

An especially interesting meeting of the Salem Credit Women's breakfast club was held Tuesday morning at the Marion hotel at 7 o'clock. Miss Alene Phillips was guest speaker and gave a very interesting talk. A second interesting talk was given by Leah Suing concerning her work. Miss Carol Jensen presided.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Emil Carlsson, Miss Alene Phillips, Carol Jensen, Agnes Meyer, Mrs. Hilda Liedstrom, May R. Seely, Dr. Ruth Daugherty, Nellie Schawab, Ruth Wirt, Hope Bassett, Sarah Chamberlain, Alice Mathey, Irma Wilcox, Elsie Holman, Ethel Hepner, Bessie Smith, Leah Suing, Hazel McHugh, Gladys Bartholomew, Margie Hartwig, and Margaret McAlpine.

Rainbow Benefit Afternoon Affair

One of the largest social affairs of the week will be the Rainbow benefit card afternoon for which extensive plans are being made by a bevy of young maids of the city.

Coming on Saturday afternoon as it does, it offers ample opportunity for entertainment of week end guests, and also gives maids away at school an opportunity to come home and attend the function.

The funds are being used for an excellent piece of charity work. The setting for the party will be the large social room of the Masonic temple. Miss Ruth Fick is general chairman.

Reservations are being made with Miss Margaret Savage, 4462; Miss Esther Gibbard, 8624; Miss Ruth Johnson, 4079.

Miss Margaret Mulkey spent the weekend in Salem as the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Scott A. Riggs, and of her mother, Mrs. Fannie Mulkey. Miss Mulkey has been making her home in California for the past six years, but has recently gone to Tacoma, Wash., where she is manager of the millinery department of one of the large stores in that city.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of Jason Lee church will observe "Founders' day" Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. L. Dark. Mrs. M. A. Marcy will lead the devotion and Mrs. J. Vinton Scott will speak concerning personal experiences in China. Tea will be served. All women of the community are invited to attend.

Miss Dorothy Fitzpatrick was hostess for a delightful bridge evening at her home Saturday evening, including as her guests a group of the younger set. Miss Anna Fitzpatrick, sister of the hostess, assisted at the late supper hour.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Such flattering lines for the matronly figure are found only on the most carefully designed frocks. This one closes in coat fashion, boasts one large rever especially chic of contrast—a fitted waistline, extremely slender seaming and smart new sleeve. Buttons, too, form an essential trim. "Ground Hog" Club Will Meet; Anniversary Parties Much Enjoyed

Silverton Hills People Enjoy Parties Complimenting Birthday Anniversary

Macley—One of the most interesting affairs in some time was given at the J. F. C. Tekenberg home honoring Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hartley, nee Belle Mosier, of Silverton and Mr. and Mrs. Tekenberg, nee Ida Hartley on their 44th and 26th wedding anniversaries; and also Mrs. Otto Scheibler, nee Miss Staton of Salem on her birthday.

To the strains of a wedding march played by Roswell Wright, the bride party descended the stairs and entered the living room where they were met by H. E. Martin who acted as clergyman for the second ceremony.

The brides were given away by Gilbert Mosier, nephew of Mrs. Hartley, who with Mrs. Tekenberg and Edgar Hartley were the only ones present who attended the Hartley wedding 44 years ago. Mrs. Hartley wore a cream colored ankle length gown with long sleeves and Mrs. Tekenberg wore a flesh colored sleeveless dress and a long white veil and an orange blossom wreath.

The tables were centered with pink rosebuds and pink sweet peas in crystal vases and pink candles in crystal holders. The wedding cake was decorated with a miniature bride and groom.

Afternoon program numbers were given by Roswell Wright, Rex Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. Tekenberg, Mrs. M. M. Magee, Gilbert Mosier, Charles Hartman, H. E. Martin and Mrs. J. M. Martin.

Present beside the honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. E. Knighten, (Maggie Hartley), Mr. and Mrs. Rex Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pate, Mr. and Mrs. Borden Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Mosier, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Magee, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Humphreys, Mr. and Mrs. August Fuestman, Myrtle Cannon, Maxine Hartley, Irene Palmer, Edith Patterson, Lorraine Patterson, Margaret McAlpine, Mrs. Edith Wilson, Jack Lincoln, Ralph Patterson, James Pate, Roswell Wright.

Silverton Hills—Mrs. Lewis Hall entertained at two parties Sunday in honor of Mr. Hall's birthday. Dinner guests at the birthday dinner served at noon were Mrs. N. A. Hall, Elizabeth Hall, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hagen, Lester and Gladys Hagen, Mr. and Mrs. Even Beals Jr., and Carl Beals.

Sunday night Mrs. Hall had planned a surprise for Mr. Hall. Bridge was the diversion of the evening with high score going to Mrs. Carl Hagen and low score prize to Mrs. Martin Hattberg of Silverton.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Hagen, Mr. and Mrs. Hattberg, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Hagen, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gottenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sater, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Enevoldsen and Mr. and Mrs. Hall.

West Salem—Mrs. Frank P. Wells will be hostess to the members of the "Ground Hog" club next Thursday afternoon. The matrons will quilt. Members of the club include Mesdames Jess Mathis, Vernon Rings, whose birthday will also be celebrated, Harley Smalley, Winchell, Bondell, and the hostess, Mrs. Frank P. Wells.

Past Presidents Sew For Charity

The Past President's club of the American Legion Auxiliary is not very large in numbers but it is accomplishing some very excellent work in sewing for charity needs.

This past Friday the club met informally with Mrs. F. N. Waters for an afternoon of sewing. The work begun was not completed so the same group met again Monday with Mrs. William Zosel and Tuesday they spent the day with Mrs. H. R. White and completed four quilts which will be given for charitable purpose.

Present for the Tuesday meeting were Mrs. F. N. Waters, Mrs. William Watkins, Mrs. King Bartlett, Mrs. Albert Granz, Mrs. J. T. Delaney, and Mrs. White.

Miss Eva Goff Is Hostess

Miss Eva Goff entertained the members of the J. U. G. club Monday evening at the McNeil residence on Fir street.

Methodist Women Plan Party

An interesting party is being planned for tonight at the First Methodist church at which time members of the Women's Missionary society under the direction of Mrs. Ronald Glover will entertain with an "Indian Art" evening.

This is being called a "husbands and friends" night because these people are being invited as special guests. Guest rooms will be arranged with Indian trophies and the program will carry out the idea of the work accomplished by the society among the Indians.

Miss Gertrude Eakin will speak on Indian art and several musical numbers will be given by students from Chemawa Indian school. Mrs. Herbert Rahe will present a tableau featuring the "Indian Prayer to the Great Spirit."

Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Large Card Party Planned March 13

The Women's Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars made plans Monday night at the Women's clubhouses for a large card party to be given as a benefit affair March 13. It has been planned so that bridge, "500" and pinocle will be in play and the guests may have their choice.

A second card party for members only is being planned for the last of March at the home of Mrs. John Gram. This will be an afternoon party.

Following the regular business meeting Monday night Marion post entertained the Auxiliary and eligible members to both groups with cards and concluded the evening with refreshments.

Mrs. Frances Denison was a recent hostess for a dinner party complimenting members of the alumnae to Delta Zeta sorority. Covers were placed for Miss Virginia Wilson and Miss Catherine Adick of Woodburn, special guests, and for Mrs. Helen Moore Bartley, Mrs. Dorothy Campbell, Mrs. Jeannette Wald, Miss Helen Louise Crosby, Miss Clara Mielke and for Mrs. Denton.

The Women's Alliance of the Unitarian church will be the guests of Mrs. W. E. Feldman at her new residence, 260 South 23rd street, Friday afternoon. This will be the regular business and program meeting for the Alliance and following these Mrs. Feldman will serve tea.

The Royal Neighbors Sewing club has changed its meeting date from Wednesday to Thursday for an all day meeting with Mrs. Edna Shepard, 350 Columbia street. A potluck luncheon will be served at noon and guests are asked to bring their own table service.

Members of the Salem Women's Press club enjoyed an afternoon of bridge at the home of Mrs. E. C. Curtis Tuesday afternoon. Winning scores were held by Mrs. C. A. Sprague and Mrs. W. C. Connor. At the tea hour Mrs. Curtis was assisted by her small daughters, Miss Jean and Miss Caroline Curtis.

MILADY'S SPRING MILLINERY

Just as sure a harbinger of Spring as the first robin is Milady's unusual interest in new millinery at this time of the year. Here are four of the chapeaux, shown at the recent fashion show in New York, which promise to be popular this coming season. At upper left is Dorothy Smith in a creation of printed crepe in red and white; lower left is Madeleine Masla in a black straw, with a Rhumba band; upper right, Julia O'Sullivan displays a soft black straw for dinner wear, and lower right, Lucille Upton shows a red felt with a patent leather band.

The young son born to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Craven Monday has been named David Elden. The young man is said to be in "excellent" voice according to his father, well known vocalist of the city. Mrs. Craven, nee Grace Littlefield, and young David Elden are resting happily at Salem General hospital.

The G. K. P. club was entertained for its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Thomas Roen Monday evening. Mrs. W. C. Picken assisted in serving at the late supper hour. Mrs. B. E. Sisson will be the March hostess.

Sedgwick unit of the Women's Relief Corps will meet at 2 o'clock at Miller's hall.

Mrs. Richard Slater entertained members of her card club with luncheon and an afternoon of bridge at her home, Tuesday afternoon. Tulips and freesias were used for an effective centerpiece for the luncheon table.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Yarnes will have as their dinner guests Thursday evening, Dr. and Mrs. M. T. Wire of Klamath Falls who are guests in Salem just now.

Mrs. O. C. Locke was hostess to members of her contract club with a prettily appointed luncheon Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley left Saturday for California where they will spend a short time.
