

2 MILLS OPERATING NOW IN PEDEE AREA

PEDEE, Feb. 28—The Van Den Bash mill started work Saturday after about a six weeks shut down due to snow and the general bad weather. Several new men started work. The W. T. Brown mill has also started work and has been running now about two weeks. This mill has been shut down the past winter. These mills are giving employment to many local men.

A son, Thomas David, was born to Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Burbank last week. This is the fourth child and the second son. The community was entertained with a party at the school house Saturday night. About 80 persons attended. The program consisted of music by the Ritner Creek band, a play "Birthdays of Madame February" by the elementary grades. Playlets on Lincoln and Washington were presented by the primary room.

Ten men gathered at the school house Friday evening to practice songs which they will present at the parent and teachers meeting Friday night.

Students from the Portland Bible school will hold a conference at the school house this week end. The services will start Saturday at 7:30 p. m. The Sunday services will follow at the school and a basket lunch will be enjoyed at noon. The afternoon will be conducted as a platform service.

F. D. R. WITH JOYFUL AIDE

A big smile showing her relief at the "Big Chiefs" safe arrival home, after his alarming experience as the target of a would-be assassin in Miami, Miss Margaret LeHand, personal secretary to President-elect Roosevelt, is shown with her beloved boss, as they drove by automobile along the closely-guarded route from Jersey City to the Roosevelt home in New York. Mr. Roosevelt's winning smile was still in evidence despite his miraculous escape from death.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Feb. 28—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilson and son, Roscoe and daughter, Elsie of Portland were weekend house guests at the E. Lloyd Miller home. They are parents, brothers and sister of Mrs. Miller. At the Lawrence Filisinger home for the same days were Albert Brown and Osie Webb, college youths from Corvallis.

The regular monthly business meeting for the Ladies' Aid society of the Ford Memorial church will be held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. H. Gilliland.

An epidemic of mild cases of measles is prevalent among little children of the lower grades of the school. In Mrs. Catherine Dyer's first grade room only nine pupils of the 35 reported for school Monday.

Miss Helen Butler of Dallas is substituting in the third grade room this week in the absence of her sister, Miss Ruth, who is ill.

The Union Service Station which has been idle and unoperated for the past several months, opened for business the first of this week with the owner, H. Maizels of Salem in charge. He plans to handle only complete service station work.

Mrs. Frank Waldie of Tacoma, Wn., who has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank P. Wells here and with her mother in Salem, left for her home the first of this week. Mrs. Waldie arrived a fortnight ago to attend the forty-ninth wedding celebration of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Gosser.

William "Bill" McAdams, who has been ill and required a substitute in conducting his work at post office and statehouse, is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dueltgen of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. James Monso and son, Jimmy of Pepee, were recent guests at their parental home with Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Dueltgen. The two families have come to make the acquaintance of wee baby Normal Frederick Stellman, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Stellman, who are making their home with the Fred Dueltgens for the present.

Swegle Teachers Rehired; Program Slated on March 3

SWEGLE, Feb. 28—Both teachers have been rehired for next year—Mrs. Margaret Grewell, upper room, and Miss Clara Siebens lower room.

The Swegle community club will hold its regular meeting March 3. The Salem chamber of commerce will furnish the entertainment.

ENROLLMENT SENIOR HIGH SETS RECORD

SILVERTON, Feb. 28—The enrollment for the senior high school for the second semester now totals $80 according to the report prepared by Herman Kramer, principal. This is the largest enrollment which the high school has had so far.

Junior high school student body officers for the second semester are Arland Schwab, president; Doris Richard, vice president; Fairfax Marx, secretary and Mary Jane Nofker, treasurer. The student council is composed of Billie Tomlinson, Max Wittrein, Verna Ghilstrom, Olive Green, Marjorie Inman, Jack McKenzie, Irene Shields and Helen Call.

The second semester staff of the Junior High Bulletin, a mimeographed sheet distributed among the junior high school students, has been organized with Alice Miles as editor and with the following reporters: June Bowman, Oretta Chibberg, Esther Lockren, Helen Seeley, Beryl Fletcher, Ethel Simmons and Miriam Mulkey. Hazel Olsen is the assistant editor.

Boosters Realize $35 Profit; Play Is Well Attended

BRUSH CREEK, Feb. 28—The Brush Creek Booster club realized $35 in the clear on its play "George in a Jam" which it gave Friday and Saturday night of last week. Furnishing music between acts were Mrs. Ottaway, violinist, with Mrs. Fern Davenport at the piano and John Overlund, in a vocal solo, with Mrs. Glenn Howe at the piano Friday night.

Saturday interval music was furnished by the Brush Creek Croakers, a vocal solo by Miss Mildred Wharton with Charlotte Goplerud at the piano; vocal solo by Harry Sanrud with Peggy Goplerud at the piano and a piano duet by Charlotte and Walter Goplerud.

GET MEASLES AT SCHOOL HUBBARD, Feb. 28—Several families in Hubbard have contracted the measles because their children attend the Woodburn high school where an epidemic of measles is raging.

CHILD TO BACHELORS SILVERTON, Feb. 28—A daughter was born Thursday night to Mr. and Mrs. I. Bachlor at the family home.

Flowers Out Foretelling Spring Days

SILVERTON, Feb. 28—Silverton gardeners are reporting that they actually believe spring has arrived. Crocuses and snow drops were in bloom on Silverton lawns Saturday.

Gardeners also report considerable damage to shrubs and garden through the December frost. Many report the loss of their roses. Garden authorities issued instructions early in February to cut the roses back as far as possible if they appeared to have been frozen.

Many gardeners are reporting that they have done this but they are of the opinion that the grafted part of the rose is completely gone. English laurel and barbery also suffered considerable it is said.

PETITE PRUNES ARE CUT FROM ORCHARD

SUNNYSIDE, Feb. 28—Agriculture in this neighborhood is in a poor straits. Some of the farmers are wanting to reseed their fields but the ground is still too wet with no drying weather for weeks. The loganberries are reported killed and strawberries in doubtful condition. The Pemberton company prune orchard has pulled out all petite trees from among the walnuts and all wood and brush cut and burned.

Mr. and Mrs. N. V. King returned to their home at Walla Walla, Wash., after a short visit with Mrs. King's brother, G. T. Hecker, and family of Sunnyside. Mr. King is employed on the O. W. R. N. at Walla Walla.

The Sunnyside community club enjoyed a Washington program put on by the pupils of the school. The young people are preparing a drama for the county community contest, the cast of the players being kept secret, as also the title.

CARD BENEFIT TONIGHT BROOKS, Feb. 28—The Brooks baseball boys at the other benefit card party at the Community club house in Brooks Wednesday night to which the public is invited. Five Hundred will be the diversion and refreshments will be served.

H. E. CLUB DANCE SLATED MARCH 8

SILVERTON HILLS, Feb. 28—The all-day February meeting of the Silverton Hills Home Economics club was held at the home of Mrs. Milton Knauf with an exceptionally good turn-out.

At the business meeting the members of the group decided to hold a program and dance at the club hall March 8. At this time fancywork and baskets made by the women will be for sale.

At the club meeting the women spent the afternoon in making baskets. Two of these, each three feet in height, the club members are donating to the grange to be used for decorative purposes at the hall.

Mrs. Sarah Maunding is president of the club; Mrs. L. O. Hadley, vice president; Dessie Tachants, secretary-treasurer. The women in charge of the sewing and basket making are Mrs. Knauf, Hulda Peterson, Minnie Hartley and Rosa Parrish. Mrs. Anna Hadley is chairman of the program committee.

Community Guild To Present Play At Hubbard Hall

HUBBARD, Feb. 28—The play, "Aaron Slick from Pumpkin Crick", sponsored by the Community Guild of the Federated churches is to be presented Friday night, March 3, at the city hall.

The cast includes Orva Barrett, Frances Lettler, Tom Higginbotham, Marie de Lespinasse, Beatrice Claypool, Ed Erickson and Ben Miller. Mrs. Marie Claypool is director.

Mrs. L. A. Braden has been called to Myrtle Point by the sudden illness of her father, Mr. De-ment.

Salem Drum Corps Numbers Feature For Rural Group

WACONDA, Feb. 28—About 150 persons enjoyed the entertainment presented Saturday night at Fairfield grange hall through the courtesy of the chamber of commerce when the Waconda Community club sponsored a program for their families and friends.

Two numbers by the Salem drum corps were enjoyed followed

SEWING CLUB PLANS SALE AND PROGRAM

MARION, Feb. 28—The Union women's sewing club met Thursday with Mrs. Lynold Colgan to quilt and complete plans for the Farmer's Union sale and entertainment to be held Friday night, March 3 at the W. O. W. hall to which the public is invited.

The school entertainment Friday night was a great success and great credit is due the teachers, Miss Grace Pehrsson, Miss Rose Hutton and Mrs. Leota Sloan. The receipts totaled $7 which is to go to the school baseball team.

The W. C. T. U. will hold an all day meeting Friday, March 3 at the Presbyterian church with lunch served at noon. Mrs. Buck and a group of her co-workers will be present.

Rev. Mead, an evangelist will begin meetings Friday night that will continue for one week at the Presbyterian church.

Grangers Forget Cares For Tussle With Playful Ace

NORTH HOWELL, Feb. 28—The card party and dance at the grange hall Friday night proved an enjoyable affair. High scores went to Evelyn Hengum and Joe Schindler and low to Caroline Asplund and Wayne Wiesner.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reznick and Louis Mayte returned from southern California Friday where they have been for the past two weeks on a business and pleasure trip.

An all day meeting of the H. E. C. will be held Thursday at the North Howell grange hall and quilting continued on the Dresden china quilt recently pieced by this club.

McGarvey to Deliver Farewells March 19

SILVERTON, Feb. 28—The Rev. G. E. McGarvey will deliver his farewell sermon at Silverton March 19. Rev. Mr. McGarvey has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance here to accept the pastorate of the Hood River congregation. As yet no pastor has been called to fill Mr. McGarvey's vacancy here.

By WALT DISNEY

Revival Campaign For Middle Grove Area is Scheduled

MIDDLE GROVE, Feb. 28—Wednesday night, March 1, at the Middle Grove Evangelical church, will begin a series of religious meetings in charge of Dr. Walter Duff, Irish evangelist. Assisting him are Miss Naomi Van Cleve, pianist, who has been attending Wheaton college, Illinois, and Miss Phyllis Koenig, who will have charge of religious instruction among the children.

A telephone meeting was held recently at the home of C. J. Bartruff, L. E. Dudley and J. Lang were re-elected president and secretary, respectively. It was decided by those present to attempt to secure a $6 switch-board rate instead of the present rate of $9.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON

In the matter of No. B17942

Bankrupt.

To the creditors of Ivan H. Corner, of Salem, in the County of Marion and District aforesaid, a bankrupt.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on the 24th day of February, 1933, the said Ivan H. Corner was duly adjudicated bankrupt and that the first meeting of his creditors will be held at room 301 in the United States National Bank Building in the City of Salem, Oregon, on the 13th day of March, 1933, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the bankrupt and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

WILLARD L. MARKS, Referee in Bankruptcy, M-1.

Cross-Word Puzzle By EUGENE SHEFFER

A crossword puzzle grid with numbers 1 through 51 indicating starting positions for words. The grid is partially filled with letters.

- HORIZONTAL
- 1—mongrel
 - 4—V-shaped rampart
 - 9—Spanish national hero
 - 12—alcoholic beverage
 - 13—adjust
 - 14—garden tool
 - 15—small bag
 - 17—river in Germany
 - 19—thought
 - 20—circular
 - 21—high male voice
 - 22—spool
 - 26—king of Israel
 - 27—mingle
 - 28—symbol for aluminum
 - 29—consumed
 - 30—tall bird
 - 31—mineral spring
 - 32—concerning
 - 33—writers of verse
 - 34—corrode
 - 35—violent ejections of air through nose
 - 37—wigwag
- VERTICAL
- 1—look at
 - 2—vehicle
 - 3—elastic gum
 - 8—train of attendants
 - 4—runner
 - 5—girl's name
 - 6—period
 - 7—indefinite article
 - 8—quieting to the nerves
 - 9—yongster
 - 10—electrical particle
 - 11—Scotch river
 - 12—image
 - 18—the manna
 - 20—gives access
 - 21—former Russian ruler
 - 22—devoured
 - 23—narrow boards
 - 24—become void
 - 25—fill with exaltation
 - 27—a brood
 - 28—most snug
 - 31—assume as true
 - 33—Persian fairy
 - 34—harvest
 - 36—betimes
 - 37—birds of gull family
 - 38—having a color
 - 40—quick
 - 41—organ of hearing
 - 42—coop
 - 43—Chinese bean plant
 - 44—sheep
 - 47—masculine pronoun
- Herewith is the solution to yesterday's Puzzle.
- BOLIVIA SINIEN
EVERDUB ROBE
RIMEORE KNOB
GNJALIANIENS
HEROD TITATI
HERO TITATI
FLAT MOO BOER
RENEW TIRE
EM RIAG BRASS
MUM NAWAB REN
ORAL GIN SARI
NILLE ESS ARIN
TALON HARDING
- Copyright, 1933, Elze Feltner Products, Inc.

MICKEY MOUSE

A series of comic panels featuring Mickey Mouse and a man in a uniform. Mickey asks for an air-mail pilot's application, and the man explains the requirements, including being married and having flying experience. Mickey then goes to an airplane school.

THIMBLE THEATRE—Starring Popeye

A series of comic panels featuring Popeye. He is talking to a man about a large sum of money (6400,000) and how it was calculated. Popeye is shown with a large stack of money.

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

A series of comic panels featuring Annie Rooney. She is talking to a man about a dog show and how to get a dog. Annie is shown with a dog.

TOOTS AND CASPER

A series of comic panels featuring Toots and Casper. Toots is talking to Casper about a school play and how to get a part. Toots is shown with a sign that says "I ACCEPTED!".