OLD-FASHION BARN DANCE DRAWS MANY

Young People to Present Play for Community Club Friday Night

WEST STAYTON, March 1. of the season was held Saturday night when an old-fashioned barn dance was held at the new barn on the Vernon Tyler place. A Music was furnished by Ray-Irish and Fred Denham.

All the young people who are taking part in the community club program Friday night are practices. Also the cast for the three-act comedy, "When a Man's Single," is working hard on parts so the play can be given as soon as possible.

The Benjamin Chamberlin home was the scene of a gay party Saturday night. The evening was spent in visiting and dancing. Music was furnished by the L. P. Spies family.
