

PASTORS TO CONFER HERE ON MARCH 13

An interdenominational regional pastor's conference will be held at the First Presbyterian church here Monday, March 13, announces Rev. Grover C. Birchett, host pastor.

The program will open at 9:15 a. m. with Dr. E. C. Farnham, executive secretary of the Portland council of churches, leading devotions. Dr. M. A. Marcy, superintendent of the Salem district Methodist churches, will present a factual review, "The Present Interdenominational Situation in Oregon."

A symposium on church problems, work and accomplishments in the present stress will be presented by leaders from Portland as follows: Dr. C. P. Gates, presiding elder of the Evangelical church; Rev. C. H. Harrison, Methodist pastor; Rev. T. D. Yarnes, Methodist district superintendent with headquarters in Salem; and Dr. D. A. Thompson and Rev. W. L. Van Nuys, both of the Presbyterian church. Rev. Van Nuys is Oregon secretary of the board of Christian education for his church.

Methodist Group To Give Concert On Sunday Night

SILVERTON, March 2 — The Methodist orchestra, directed by Fred Baker, will give a concert at the Christian church Sunday night.

Special services are being planned for the evening of March 12 at the Methodist church when the Knights of Pythias will have their annual church night.

RICKEY — Willis Horner was the inspiration of a delightful affair Tuesday night when a group of young friends surprised him, the occasion being his 12th birthday.

Caldwell Speaker For P. T. A. Meet, Training School

INDEPENDENCE, March 2 — The Parent Teachers association held its monthly meeting at the Independence Training school Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Caldwell of the Oregon Normal School was speaker. Other numbers were given by Mrs. Keeney's room, and Mrs. Loren Mort and Mrs. Alice Payne.

Mrs. Lella Oberon, Mrs. Elmer Barnhart and Mrs. Hugh Hanna were hostesses.

Gas Ignites in Tire Shop; Blaze Quoted

WOODBURN, March 2 — A fire that might have proved serious was started in the Duncan Tire shop when a can of gasoline, with which Mr. Duncan was cleaning parts of a car became ignited from a blow torch in the hands of his son Willis who was using it some distance away. Mr. Duncan was slightly burned on the back of both hands. The fire department was called and no serious damage resulted.

Doctors' Squabble Theme For Snappy Farce at Labish

LABISH CENTER, March 2 — The snappy one-act farce, "When Doctors Disagree," will be the dramatic vehicle by which the men of the community will try to surpass the women's program last month. It will be given Friday night at the schoolhouse. In the cast are Vernon Dow, Gus Harris, Harvey Aker, Nathan Kurth, W. R. Gwin, Jim Sewell, W. R. Daugherty and Arthur Miller.

Harry Bennett and H. S. Boehm have worked out the program and refreshments are in charge of Harry Looze and J. W. Burr. Mrs. Mary Harris and daughter Emma returned Monday via the south from a visit with relatives in Illinois.

"Got a nickel?"

Roll those nickels
TO PAY'N TAKIT AND MAKE THEM BRING HOME THE BACON

A jitney, a nickel, or just plain five cents will do a big job of buying at Pay'n Takit any time, but especially, this week-end. Dig up those loose nickels. Make them "bring home the bacon."
