

MEN WANTED HERE ARRESTED, TACOMA

Howard Schuyler, 26, wanted here for larceny of jewelry and an old coin collection from a Mr. Lewis, was arrested in Tacoma, Wash., and is being held for Mar- ion county officials, Sheriff A. C.

Burk was advised yesterday. Sheriff Burk and Deputy Leo Zlotnicki left yesterday afternoon for Tacoma to return Schuyler, who had waived extradition, according to the telegram from Sheriff F. Campbell Jr. of Tacoma. They expect to return here today.

The prisoner is alleged to have taken a diamond ring valued at $50; a gold set ring worth $10; a special made collar button and cuff buttons worth $7.50 each; and old coins.

R. Stapleton to Be Buried Here This Afternoon

Roy Stapleton, 45, dropped dead at his home in Albany Wednesday morning, presumably from heart failure.

He was born of a pioneer family in Salem, his parents being Mr. and Mrs. H. Stapleton, both of whom preceded him in death. He was the last of a family of four.

Stapleton was for many years in the grocery retail business in Albany.

Funeral services will be held at Albany Friday, March 2, at 2 o'clock, with Albany funeral directors in charge.

CHAMBERS MEETS TONIGHT
STATION, March 2 — The regular meeting of the chamber of commerce will be held on March 2, at the office of the Murphy Gardner Lumber company, at 8 p.m. his meeting follows the volunteer firemen's meeting.

SCARLET FEVER APPEARS
AMITY, March 2 — Miss Martha Groves, a high school student, is ill at her home here with scarlet fever. The two Cooper children east of Amity are also ill with scarlet fever.
