Hubbard School is Burglarized Third

HUBBARD, March 3-Newell Williams from the sheriff's office was in Hubbard Thursday investigating the burglary of the school house Wednesday night. Thieves broke the lock of the basement door and ransacked all the desks in all the rooms taking everything of value including pencils, fountain pens, sweaters, baseball mits.

They also broke the lock of Mr Silke's office and, among other things, stole the prizes for the basket ball boys. As they left several clues it is expected they will soon be apprehended. This is the third time this year the school house has been burglarized.
