Spectacular Upturns Unrivalled in Many Months Past

CHICAGO, March 3 .- (AP)-In spectacular price upturas unrivaled in many months, wheat soared almost 3 cents a bushel

Big purchase orders attributed to eastern sources started the wheat market skyward. Successive waves of general buying followed fast, and were attributed 'argely to widespread expectance that President-elect Roosevelt's inaugural address tomorrow would prove constructive, and that the new administration at Washington would take the government out of the grain business. Despite late setbacks because of increased selling to realize profits, wheat closed buoyant, 1%-3 cents above yesterday's finish, corn

1 1/6 - % up, oats 1/4 - % advanced. Today's closing quotations: Wheat - May, 43%-%; July, 18%-%; September, 49%-50. Corn - May, 24 %-%: July, 26 %; September, 27 %-28. Oats - May, 16-16 %; Julye 16%-%; September, 17.

PORTLAND, March 3-(AP)-

Trade in turkeys continued to reflect a somewhat better demand than supply within the Pacific northwest territory. Offerings of dressed birds remain very limited and far below actual daily requests for supplies. Sales of hens were mostly 15c although here and there something really top quality sold 1c better, but few of the latter were available. Trading in the butter market continues to reflect at least steadiness with strength in spots in the

CONSER'S ALFALFA

JEFFERSON, March 3. -Conser of the Millersburg neighborhood, reports that alfalfa, as a Willamette valley river bottom hay product, has been very profitable for him. From 45 acres he baled 108 tons of hay. As there is no spring grass, Conser finds that his alfalfa is in demand among those farmers who have fed all their hay and he has been busy distributing hay to farmers for their stock. Mr. Conser seeded his 45 acres three years ago, and harvested three crops of hay last year. Besides baling 108 tons, Conser fed the loose hay to his stosk and filled his dairy barn with hay to feed his stock over winter. first and second battalions, with The alfalfa was not killed by Lieutenant Lee Alfred in charge the freeze of the past winter. of the former and Lieutenant and Conser expects better yield
