

Society News and Club Affairs

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

Miss Ruthita Hoffnell Honors Miss White

Bowls of spring flowers, mostly carnations and freesias, made a delightful background for the guests invited by Miss Ruthita Hoffnell Wednesday night to compliment Miss Dorothy White, popular bride-elect of March 19.

Cards were in play and just before the hour a miscellaneous brought many lovely gifts to the bride-elect.

Miss Hoffnell was assisted in serving by Miss Margaret Drager and Miss Virginia Holt.

Guests bidden to honor Miss White included Miss Henriette White, Miss Virginia Holt, Miss Margaret Drager, Miss Zora Farnsworth, Miss Margaret Corey, Miss Jean Wilson, Miss Margaret Wilson, Miss Maxine Myers, Miss Myra Belt, Miss Virginia Newland, Miss Kathryn Corey, Miss Josephine Cornoyer, Miss Peggy Goodfellow, Mrs. Vernon Perry, Mrs. Frank Shafar, Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., Mrs. Gordon Bennett and Mrs. Marvin Headrick.

Mrs. Gordon Bennett will compliment Miss White with a luncheon at the Bennett home in Albany today.

Members of the Spinster club compliment Miss White and Miss Maxine Myers, also a March bride-elect, with a dinner party the first of this next week.

Dime Club Enjoys Pretty Party

Mrs. A. A. Gardner and Mrs. Lee Galloway entertained with an attractive party at the Spa Tuesday night in compliment to members of the Dime club. Winning scores for cards were held by Miss Frances Sande and Miss Bula Bailey. Following cards a late supper was served.

Present were Mrs. Sepsus Starr, Mrs. Ray Busick, Mrs. Ralph Kinser, Mrs. Herbert Olin, Mrs. Vernon Gilmors, Mrs. Jos Lane, Mrs. Robin Day, Miss Marmion Connors, Miss Bula Bailey, Miss Gladys Miller, Miss Frances Sande, Miss Ruth Skinner, Miss Margaret Sims, Miss Margaret Corey, Miss Eva Sande, Miss Gretchen Rhinehart and the hostesses.

Members of the Women's Missionary society of the First Baptist church will meet at the church Friday for an all-day meeting. The morning session will start at 10:30 o'clock and will be devoted entirely to prayer. A basket lunch will be served at noon. At 1:30 o'clock there will be a short business session and election of officers. Mrs. Britton Ross has planned an interesting program, part of which will include music by a quartet from the Eteri class and special numbers by Mrs. Schirman and Mrs. Henry Turner.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Thursday, March 9

B. & P. W. club public relations banquet, 6:45 o'clock at Hotel Marlon. Brush College Helpers with Mrs. M. Buell. Willing Workers class of First Christian church, 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. Dorothy McDowell, 1065 North Fifth street.

Women's Benefit association, with Mrs. Avis Perrine, 775 North Cottage street. Ladies Aid of W. R. C. at state fairgrounds for all-day meeting; potluck dinner at noon; quilting to occupy meeting hours. Lenten Fellowship dinner, 6:30 o'clock at First Congregational church; Rev. Clay Palmer of Eugene, speaker.

Friday, March 10

Executive committee meeting of Marion county W. C. T. U.; general officers meet 10 o'clock; executive officers 10:30 to 4 o'clock. Salem members serve luncheon at noon.

B. and P. W. club card party, 8 o'clock in Masonic temple. Daughters of Veterans, 8 o'clock, Women's club-house.

"Mother and Daughter" banquet of First Presbyterian church, 6:15 o'clock; Women's Missionary society hostess.

Prof. Cameron Marshall will present Y lobby program; numbers from Willamette university school of music.

Mrs. J. B. Ulrich hostess to Queen Esther's circle of Leslie Memorial church, 7:30 o'clock at her home, 1475 Legline street.

Missionary society of First Baptist church, all-day meeting at church; opens 10:30 o'clock.

Women's Missionary society, United Brethren church, business meeting followed by tea to which all interested women invited at home of Mrs. Harry Rowe, 769 South Commercial street. Women of Dakota club meet with Mrs. George Gibson at 779 North Cottage street, 2 o'clock.

Saturday, March 11

B. & P. W. club reception at Lausanne hall, 8 to 10 o'clock; friends invited to call. Guests will be received at the George H. Stoddard home for a "tea cup" party.

Y. W. C. A. Benefit Friday Evening

An invitation is extended to both men and women to attend the Y. W. C. A. benefit party which is being sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club for Friday night at 8 o'clock in the Masonic temple. Both contract and auction bridge will be played and for those who do not play there will be other amusements such as jigsaw games. A delightful program has been planned for the refreshment hour.

The committee which will be hostess for this party includes the chairman, Mrs. Winifred R. Herrick, Miss Ruth Moore, Miss Mona Yoder, Miss Meri Dimick, Miss Irene Brethaupt, Miss Laura Hale, Mrs. Ethel Gibbons, Miss Esther Hagedorn, Miss Grace Taylor, Mrs. Della Hayden, Mrs. Emma A. Hing, Mrs. Carrie Roland, Mrs. Myrtle Anderson, Mrs. Mary Burns and Mrs. Blanche King.

This benefit is being sponsored as a part of the service activities of the national observation of the Business and Professional Women's club "week."

Card Evening At Rossman Home

Judge and Mrs. George Rossman entertained at their home Tuesday night with an informal bridge party and at a late hour Mrs. Rossman served an informal supper.

Guests included Judge and Mrs. Harry Belt, Mr. and Mrs. William Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. William Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. William Levens, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Barrett and Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Smith.

St. Patrick's day with all its pipes, green flags and shamrocks will be the incentive for table decorations for the annual public relations banquet for which the Business and Professional Women will be hosts at the Marlon hotel Thursday night. Mayor Douglas McKay will respond to the toast of Miss Ruth Moore, president of the club. C. A. Howard, state school superintendent, is speaker for the evening.

Special guests will include Mayor and Mrs. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Howard, and members of service clubs of the city and special guests invited by club members.

A program of music has been arranged and Miss Julia Webster will read the club collect accompanied by Mrs. Billy Herberter. Table hostesses include Miss Laura Hale, Mrs. Elizabeth Waters, Miss Grace E. Smith, Miss Alene Phillips, Miss Irene Brethaupt, Mrs. Susan Varty, Mrs. Winifred Herrick and Miss Josephine Shade.

The 6A and 4A of Grant school are entertaining their mothers and friends with a "musical tea" Friday. A program of songs, plays, and piano solos has been planned by Miss Mabel Dotson and Miss Helen Fletcher. At the close of the program tea will be served to the guests. The tea table will be centered with a prettily arranged bowl of yellow daffodils and lighted tapers accentuating the spring-time colors.

Hedric in Insurance — J. H. "Junior" Hedric, formerly connected with Carl Hulstonsberg, the distributor, has joined the Oregon Mutual Life Insurance company, according to announcement of Perry H. Walbridge, local branch manager. Mr. Hedric will serve as special representative out of the Salem office.

Aumsville — The student body play "Professor Pep" will be presented Friday night in the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock. The cast is made up of members of the different classes and promises to be a success. The cast includes Charles Pomeroy, Adeline Reisterer, Eleanor Doerfler, Roderick Hendry, Cleo Barry, John Masser, Mozart Tappan, Bernice Highberger, Helen Ruetters, Doris Nicolson, Thoresa Masser, Cletus Lebold, Alfred Amos, Northrup Bates, and Edward Hankel.

CAN DO HER WORK WITHOUT LYING DOWN

Thanks Her Neighbor for Recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"One of my neighbors used your Vegetable Compound and had her testimony in the papers. She advised me to take it because I had severe pains in my side all the time. I cannot thank her enough because the pains have all left me. I have a wonderful appetite, good color and can do my work now without lying down."—Mrs. Helen Palmer, 611 Milford Road, Berlin, New Jersey.

Ask your neighbors about this medicine. Better still, get a bottle from your druggist today. Give it a chance to help you, too.

Women of Army Circle Entertained

Women of the army circle of Salem and a number from out of town were entertained with a charmingly arranged luncheon party at the home of General George A. White with Mrs. White and Miss Dorothy and Miss Henrietta White as hostesses. Following the luncheon hour bridge was in play with winning scores at the end of playing awarded to Mrs. E. V. Wooten and Mrs. T. E. Riley.

The guest list included Mrs. Karl Glos, Mrs. P. W. Kelley, Mrs. Edwin Jack, Mrs. Gordon Stricker and Mrs. Lee Merrill, all of Portland; Mrs. T. E. Riley, Mrs. J. V. Schur, Mrs. E. V. Wooten, Mrs. B. F. Pound, Mrs. Armin Berger, Mrs. L. D. Farnsworth, Mrs. George Bates, Mrs. Willis B. Vincent, Mrs. Curtis Johnson, Mrs. Alexander McGee, Mrs. Richard McNulty, Miss Nell Thelsson and Miss Zora Farnsworth.

Mrs. Frank Jordan Complimented

Mrs. Frank Jordan, popular guest from Seattle who is the house guest of Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, was complimented with a smart luncheon party Wednesday with Mrs. Milton Meyers as hostess. Luncheon was served at Mrs. Godfrey's and cards were in play in the Milton Meyers home on Court street.

Guests bidden in compliment to Mrs. Jordan included Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. John R. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. David W. Eyre, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. Edwin Baker, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. R. P. Boise, Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. Clarence Keene of Silverton and the hostess, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers.

Announcement of a county executive board meeting including officers and directors of county work was made at the Tuesday meeting of the W. C. T. U. for Friday. This will be an all-day meeting. A county institute is also being planned as an all-day meeting in Salem March 21. Reports from the state union was brought by Mrs. Fred Toose in which a membership campaign was outlined; Mrs. Lena Leslie gave a report of county activities and announced the formation of six new unions. Mrs. Necla Buck turned work for national aid through local unions. Vocal solos were presented by Miss Josephine Albert and Miss Elizabeth Clement at the devotional hour which was in charge of Mrs. J. Vinton Scott and was given as an interesting talk on China. Miss Margaret Stevenson, accompanied by Miss Blanche Reese, also presented a vocal solo.

Great furor arose in Salem because of the newspaper announcement that Miss Louise Brown was visiting here from Minneapolis. Erroneous information caused the statement, which in turn caused much intarseted speculation and many congratulations for a bewildered young attorney of the city. A regrettable mistake! Miss Brown of Minneapolis is still in that city.

DIRECTOR

Jacques Gershkovitch, director of the symphony orchestra of the Salem Philharmonic association, who will lead the orchestra in its spring program at the armory tonight.

Mrs. J. F. Humphreys is chairman of the first of a series of Lenten fellowship meetings which will be held at the First Congregational church. The meeting this week will be this evening. A potluck supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock. An old-fashioned "sing" will be enjoyed following the supper hour. Rev. Clay Palmer of Eugene will be the speaker for the evening. At 8:30 o'clock Rev. Palmer will talk at a special meeting of the W. C. K. chapter of the Comrades of the Way.

Mrs. Doryce Ross will be guest organist March 12 at the Swedish temple in Portland. She will play as a part of the cantata "Olivet to Calvary." The Portland Bible institute choir of 60 voices will sing the cantata. The program will begin at 3 o'clock. Miss Ross is a student of Prof. T. S. Roberts.

Miss Alice Hysler, daughter of Mrs. Perley Hysler of Salem, became the bride of Oscar Phillips of West Salem in a quiet ceremony in Vancouver, Wash., March 1. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips will spend the summer at Troutdale, Oregon.

Announcement

The establishments subscribing to this advertisement after a discussion of the status of their profession decided that an immediate adjustment of prices were absolutely necessary. Anxiety due to depression has caused a competition that has reacted so adversely that many shops are operating at a loss and to save these reputable establishments from collapse the following schedule of prices were worked out. The public will be benefited by the arrangement in that it will result in an improved general condition of the work by these fine operators. The only exceptions to this schedule is for the work of apprentices and students.

We, the undersigned, agree to charge the following prices:

PERMANENT WAVE	$3 & Up	MANICURE	50c
MARCEL AT	75c	BLEACH AT	$2.50 & Up
PRINT AT	50c	HENNA PACK	$1.50
FINGER WAVE	50c	For 15 minutes, and 50c extra for longer
SHAMPOO AT	50c & 75c	RINSES	25c
HOT OIL	$1 & Up	TREATMENT	$1 & Up
FACIAL AT	$1.25 & Up	ARCH AT	50c
HAIR DYE	$3.75	BROW DYE	50c
And up, Including Dye		LASH DYE	50c

YOUR SUPPORT IN THIS ENDEAVOR TO IMPROVE THE STATUS OF OUR BUSINESS WILL BE GREATLY APPRECIATED BY THE UNDERSIGNED:

- Adele's Beauty Shop
- The Beauty Box
- Beauty Maid Shop
- Bonnie Dee Beauty Shop
- Capital Beauty Shoppe
- Lila's Beauty Shop
- Marinello Beauty Shop
- Mildred's Beauty Shop
- Miller's Beauty Parlor
- Mitzi Gray Beauty Shoppe
- Model Beauty Parlor
- Nifty Bob Shop
- Oregon Beauty Shop
- Oregon School of Beauty Culture
- Salem Beauty Shop
- Senator Hotel Beauty Shop

Your Daily Paper.... Indispensable!

In peace or in war, in good times and bad your daily paper is indispensable. At no time is the daily paper so necessary as in times of crisis. Then rumor swift and uncertain flies about. But the daily paper comes with its reliable information, with its official and semi-official statements and proclamations, giving the people authentic, reliable information with amazing swiftness and completeness of detail.

Times are changing. You need to keep up with these changes. Know what is happening locally, nationally, and in the world. Your vital interests are affected by what transpires in Salem, in Portland, in Washington, in New York and Chicago.

The Statesman prints daily, bringing each morning the complete digest of local, national and world news fresh to your door. The price is but trivial compared with the importance of the service.

Your daily paper is indispensable. And in Salem it's The Statesman which is indispensable

Order a "START" Today Dial 9101 and Ask for Circulation Department

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS It's very bright and refreshing to look at—and wear. And what splendid opportunity to combine a captivating new print with a solid tone. The contrasting yoke with animated drop shoulders, tops the frock and adds a perky bow... just to be different. It's really one unusually simple, charming model that will fill in any "loophole" of a small woman's wardrobe.

Pattern 2568 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 16 requires 2 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric and 7-8 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with this pattern.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for this item. Write plainly: your name, address, color of pages of lovely Paris-inspired models for every spring need. This beautiful book shows how to be chic at every hour of the day. Every style is practical, and easy to make. There are models for the larger figure, and sizes and style number. Be sure to state size wanted. Send for the new spring fashion book. Containing 82 of delightful junior and kiddie styles. Price of volume 15 cents. Catalog and pattern together 35 cents. Address all mail orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 245 West 17th Street, New York City.

RATES with both from $12

to choose from 40 different home and office appliances and conveniences to the shopping districts

PORTLAND OREGON

Hotel Congress