Tangent threatened strongly in and might have had a chance except for the exceptional long range shooting the Albany boys achieved, reputedly for the first time this season.

Silverton's smooth attack was entirely too much for Gates, but the south end boys put on a couple of rallies, late in the first and third periods, when they momentarily outshone the favorites. Ball, fast moving and accurate shooting lad, was mainly responsible for these rallies, along with Cline, the fastest man on the floor who however did not figure in the actual scoring. ### MID-WILLAMETTE LEAGUE TO MEET

The first organization meeting of the Mid-Willamette Valley Baseball association for this year will be held next Tuesday night at Anderson's sport goods store, it is announced by Frank Bashor, who was secretary of the association last year.

There were three leagues in the association last year, and at least four are certain this year, with a six-team Linn county circuit added. There will be north and south Marion county leagues, and one for Polk and Yamhill, or possibly each of those counties will have a

Mickey Barker, sensational youngster from Portland, also took the eyes of the fans as he hammered out a decision over Bobby Ambrose of Salem.

Inat the people who do not know plant life, are going out and telling the farmers that the plants are all right on the strength of a few green leaves, thus keeping them from plowing their fields and putting in other crops until it is too late.

NCE upon a time—well, it was in 1928—the Phillies planked down $7,500 and got a ball player from the Fort Wayne Central League club. That wasn't much money in 1928. None could tell at that time who got the better part of the barter, but the answer is a lot easier today. The ball player was Chuck Klein.

None other than Gerald Nugent, president of the Phillies, recently let it be known that he thinks Klein is a young man—twenty is a greatest player in baseball. The reasons: because Klein can do coverything the other stars can do; he's a wonderful hitter; a superboutfielder; he can throw with the best run the bases and so on and the best, run the bases and so on and the best run the bases and so on and the best run the bases and so on and the best run the bases and so on and the best run the bases and so on and the was born in Indianapolis and is a left-handed batter.
