

Society News and Club Affairs

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

Alpha Phi Alpha Mothers Club Hostess

Plans were made for an attractive tea to be given April 11 at the home of Mrs. George Alden. Tuesday at the Alpha Phi Alpha Mothers club meeting at the sorority home. Special guests for the tea will be sorority members, Mrs. Minerva Holcomb and Mrs. C. F. Brethaupt will be assisting hostesses.

A distinctive feature of the Tuesday meeting was the potluck dinner served at 5:30 o'clock in the sorority home with the alumnae of the sorority, pledges and sorority members as special guests.

Spring flowers were used about the guest rooms and for the dinner tables. Following the dinner hour college songs were sung and Miss Bernice Rickman sang a group of solo numbers. Miss Lulu Allan also gave a reading.

Mothers present Tuesday included Mrs. George Alden, Mrs. Carl G. Doney, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. J. M. Rickman, Mrs. James Taylor, Mrs. John Ulrich, Mrs. C. F. Brethaupt, Mrs. Lloyd Drorbaugh, Mrs. S. Del Smith, Mrs. J. D. Foley, Mrs. H. B. Glasier, Mrs. R. H. Varley and Mrs. Mason Bishop.

Sunday Benefit Plans Made

One of the anticipated events of the week will be the Sunday benefit performance of the Salem Philharmonic symphony orchestra under the direction of Jacques Gerahkovitch.

This performance will be given in the armory and will begin at 3 o'clock. Money derived from this will be used at the beginning of a sinking fund for a civic auditorium for Salem.

A short talk will be made by Mayor Douglas McKay and efforts are being made to secure Mrs. B. T. Shaw of Portland, mother of the civic auditorium there, to come to Salem and tell something of the plan used by Portland in securing the present beautiful auditorium of which that city boasts.

Mrs. Lelf Bergavik will entertain for members of her club today at her home. A one o'clock luncheon will precede several hours of cards. Guests will include Mrs. Stanley Burgess, Mrs. T. L. Kuhns, Mrs. R. D. Woodrow, Mrs. J. P. Delaney, Mrs. Clifford Dune, Mrs. Lars Bergavik, and Mrs. H. L. Staver.

Mrs. Earl Race will entertain women of the Calvary Baptist church at her home Friday at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. D. R. Peterson will lead a discussion of "Light on Indian Trails". All those who have Indian relics or Indian blankets of outstanding merit are asked to bring them for exhibit. Mrs. W. A. Barkus will lead devotions.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Every little girl who is the least bit "fashionwise" about her frocks will want this one... to be made of the gayest cotton print ever. The youthful collar might be of white pique and two perky buttons add a smart note to the cunning yoke treatment. Notice the fetching slashed sleeves and pert bows, too. Another cute way to wear this frock is shown in small sketch.

Pattern 2281 may be ordered only in sizes 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 8 requires 2 1/2 yards 36-inch fabric and 3/4 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with this pattern.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for this pattern. Write plainly your name, address and city on separate sheet. Enclose a recent photograph of your face for every spring need. This beautiful book shows how to be chic at every hour of the day. Every style is practical, and easy to make. There are models for the larger figure, and pages of style numbers. Be sure to state size wanted. Send for the new spring fashion book. Containing 32 pages of delightful junior and kiddie styles. Price of catalog, 15 cents. Catalog and pattern together 25 cents. Address all mail orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th street, New York city.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Thursday, March 16

All-day rally of Ladies Aid of Methodist church, begin at 10:30 o'clock, First Methodist church. Potluck luncheon at noon.

Joint meeting of mothers of Girl Reserves and Girl Reserve committee at Y. W. C. A. from 2 to 3 o'clock. Cooperative project to be discussed.

Hayesville Women's club, with Mrs. Ida Denny; Mrs. W. F. Fargo and Mrs. Clifton Mudd, speakers on program.

Chapter G of P. E. O. Sisterhood, with Mrs. D. X. Beechler, one o'clock luncheon; program and business meeting to follow.

Faculty Women's club, with Mrs. E. C. Richards, 966 Center street, 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Lydia Covatt, hostess to Maccabees Thimble club, 422 South 23rd street.

Women's Benefit association, 8 o'clock, Women's clubhouse; social evening.

Artisans to have business meeting followed by dance; plans for potluck supper discontinued.

Friday, March 17

Young People's Forum, First Methodist church, home of Miss Willis and Miss Barbara Ames, 1143 Marion street; social evening.

St. Patrick's tea by members of East Division of First Presbyterian church, home of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Clements, 360 North 14th street; 2 to 5 o'clock; program planned; all friends invited to call.

Degree of Honor Protective association, Women's clubhouse.

Women of Calvary Baptist church, 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. Earl Race, 1771 Market street.

St. Patrick's day tea, for all patriotic organizations, Hal Hibbard auxiliary, hostesses in armory from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Sewing club of Business and Professional Women's club, potluck supper, at home of Miss Lois Ohmart, with Mrs. Lillian Cadwell as assisting hostess. Each bring own table service.

Woman's Alliance of Unitarian church, one o'clock luncheon, Irish program in Emerson room of church.

Y. M. C. A. annual Irish program, in lobby of Y. M. C. A. building, 8 o'clock; open to public.

Saturday, March 18

A. A. U. W., one o'clock luncheon, Masonic temple; George W. Hug to speak on "Crisis in Education"; art exhibit; special music.

Women's Relief corps, Miller's hall, one o'clock potluck luncheon.

The J. Y. P. L. members and guests enjoyed a gay St. Patrick party Tuesday evening in the parlour of the Hayesville Japanese church. The special guests were the Hayesville-Nazarene basketball players.

The place was attractively decorated with green and white streamers, and the Irish motif was carried throughout in games, contests and refreshments.

Various prizes were won by Bert Childs, Jun Watanabe, Tats Yada, Tommy Ogura and Shig Watanabe.

During the refreshment hour, fortunes, which were tied on all the tea cups, were read.

Those attending this affair included the Misses Martha Okuda, Symio Mio, Mary Kaneko, Kiyo Mio, Emi Yada, Hoshie Watanabe, Grace Childs, Betty Nakashima, Messrs Tommy Ogura, Taul Watanabe, Hishie Kaneko, Jun Watanabe, Tats Yada, Shig Watanabe, Bert Childs, Frank Litwiler, Julian Edwards and the Rev. Noji.

Mrs. A. B. Evans entertained at her home Tuesday afternoon with covers placed for 42 guests. Assisting hostesses included Mrs. B. B. Blatchford, Mrs. N. S. Savage, Mrs. B. E. Carrier, Mrs. H. M. Durkheimer, Mrs. A. Washburn, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Grace Lehman, and Mrs. U. G. Boyer. Guests were a group of women from the Home Missionary of the First Methodist church. Talks concerning China were made by Mrs. J.

Mrs. Harry Crain entertained for members of her club Tuesday afternoon. A one o'clock luncheon was followed by cards. Mrs. Willis Roughton was a special guest.

Mrs. Roy Wassam Entertains Group

Mrs. Roy Wassam was hostess to the Salem Credit Women's Breakfast club at a St. Patrick's party at her home on North Capitol street Tuesday night.

Bertram Thomson, a citizen of Ireland who has made his home in Salem for several years, told interestingly of her former home.

Mrs. Emil Carlson gave several whistling solos and Nellie Schwab sang an Irish song. A humorous bridge reading was given by Mrs. John Weisner. Little Jean Bates, a student of Miss Barbara Barnes, gave a clever Irish dance, in a shamrock green dancing costume.

Bridge and "500" were in play at seven tables and at midnight a dainty lunch was served. The appointments were St. Patrick, as were the favors and appropriate prizes.

Carolyn Jensen and Juanita Hald assisted Mrs. Wassam. Guests included Laura Cheney, Ruth Dougherty, Velma Gilliam, Nellie Schwab, Mrs. John Weisner, Lucile Osterander, Carolyn Jensen, Mrs. Bertram Thomson, Genevieve Morgan, Katherine Carthow, Edna Townsend, Ann Juranak, Alice Mathey, Edna Luker, May Seely, Etta Sutter, Viola Haak, Clara Soos, Juanita Hald, Ruth Wirt, Hope Bassett, Bessie Smith, Mrs. Emil Carlson, Lucile Jaskoski, Mrs. Robin Day, Mrs. Sara Chamberlain, Erma Wilcox, Olga Larsen, Cordie Wiper, Leah Sulis.

Miss Gertrude Eakin Addresses Club

The regular bi-monthly dinner meeting held by the Knottville club at the Y. W. O. A. dining room Tuesday evening proved to be one of the most interesting meetings held this year. Miss Gertrude Eakin of Chemawa outlined in interesting pictures Indian history up to the present time.

Miss Eakin, who is a graduate of Willamette university '26. She is a member of Delta Phi sorority. After graduation from Willamette Miss Eakin spent two years teaching in Portland, Maine. For the past months she has been in the office of Dr. Burton Myers.

Mrs. Jennie Ferguson Compliments Club

The J. U. G. club met with Mrs. Jennie Ferguson at her home in West Salem Monday night. The evening was spent informally after which the guests were served with a delightful luncheon.

Members present were Mrs. Nora Bussey, Mrs. Bertha Ray, Miss Pearl Richmond, Miss Lillian Kayser, Miss Mary Maley, Miss Dorothy Walker and Mrs. Halie Lynch.

Special guests for the evening were Mrs. Mina Olmstead, Mrs. Jennie Shelton, Mrs. Cora Smith, Mrs. Alice Adams and Mrs. Lenore Dennison.

Hostesses were Mrs. Jennie Ferguson, Mrs. Moll and Miss Claudine Ferguson.

The Jason Lee Standard Bearer girls met at the home of Helen Marcy Monday night. After a short business session Clara Belle Burnside led the devotions, and Mrs. F. P. Phipps conducted the lesson. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

Present were the advisor, Mrs. A. F. Waller, Mrs. F. P. Phipps, Helen Marcy, Wanda Gamble, Mary Lois Driggs, Clara Belle Burnside, Margaret Laphien, Marguerite Clark, Gatha Bressler, and Blanche Baumgartner.

A delightful afternoon was enjoyed by members of the Past President's club of the Women's Relief corps at the home of Mrs. Rose Voris with Mrs. Voris and Mrs. Jennie B. F. Jones as joint hostesses Tuesday afternoon.

A short business meeting was followed by an informal afternoon during which time quilting and conversation occupied the attention of the guests. At a late hour Mrs. Voris and Mrs. Jones assisted by Mrs. Cordella LaBare served a splendidly appointed luncheon. Mrs. LaBare, Mrs. Lillian Cadwell, John Shipp and George Martin were special tea guests. Mrs. George Martin will entertain the club March 11.

Mrs. Deryl Myers, Mrs. Homer Lyons, and Mrs. Walter Cline were special guests of Mrs. Robert Brennan Tuesday afternoon when she entertained for members of her club with an attractive luncheon and an afternoon of cards.

Mrs. Harry Crain entertained for members of her club Tuesday afternoon. A one o'clock luncheon was followed by cards. Mrs. Willis Roughton was a special guest.

Miss Ruth Wechter Sails For South

Miss Ruth Wechter left Salem on Wednesday night bound for Los Angeles on the first lap of a journey which will take her to Lima, Peru.

In Los Angeles she will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Iloff, former residents of Salem. Mr. Iloff was at one time director of the Chemawa Indian school.

From Los Angeles, Miss Wechter will sail on the S. S. Santa Lucia, one of the newest of the large vessels of the Pacific which is making its maiden voyage east bound with this trip.

Upon arrival in Peru it is reported Miss Wechter will become the bride of Walter Iloff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Iloff, and a graduate of Willamette university in the class of 1927. Mr. Iloff has been with the National Paper and Type company as a South American representative for the past four years.

Miss Wechter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wechter of Salem and a graduate of Willamette university '26. She is a member of Delta Phi sorority.

After graduation from Willamette Miss Wechter spent two years teaching in Portland, Maine. For the past months she has been in the office of Dr. Burton Myers.

While the newly-convened Congress was passing the Emergency Bank Bill, which conferred autocratic powers on the President in dealing with the financial crisis, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, "First Lady" of the land, sat in the Presidential box in the House, calmly knitting. With Mrs. Roosevelt above are Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, Jr., wife of the Federal Farm Board head, and Nancy Cook. In rear is James Roosevelt, son of the President.

Spinsters Compliment Bride-Elect

A gay club meeting honoring two of the season's most popular brides-elect was that which was held as a dinner function Tuesday night by the Spinster's club in the Silver Grille room of the Gray Belle.

Guests of honor were Miss Dorothy White, who will marry George Emigh, Jr., of Burns March 19, and for Miss Maxine Myers, who will marry Charles Claggett March 24.

Guests for the clever party included the honor guests and Miss Margaret Burdette, Miss Margaret Corey, Miss Zora Farnsworth, Miss Virginia Newland, Miss Ruthita Hoffnell, Miss Margaret Wilson, Miss Ruby Laughlin, Miss Cleo Rittner, Miss Henriette White, Miss Kate Corey, Miss Myra Belt and Miss Margaret Drager.

At the short business meeting following the dinner Mrs. Beesie Tucker and Mrs. Mildred Judson gave reports on the northwestern conference held at Seattle March 4-5, of which Mrs. Tucker was elected president. Final plans were made for the nation-wide banquet to be held at the Marion hotel March 28 in place of the regular dinner meeting.

A gala affair of Wednesday night was the surprise party arranged by Mrs. Lelf Bergavik in compliment to the birthday of her husband. A colorful and informal buffet supper was served and following this cards were in play.

Guests bidden by Mrs. Bergavik included Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Kuhns, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Woodrow, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Delaney, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Sears, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dune.

The Coterie club was entertained by Miss Marie Westhoff on Thursday evening. High scores went to Edith Starrett and Helen Fletcher. St. Patrick motif was carried out in prizes and refreshments. The guest of the evening was Mrs. Loretta Varley. Members present were Isabel Bartlett, Frances Graham, Mabel Dotson, Helen Fletcher, Edith Starrett, Mildred Samuelson and the hostesses.

About 50 women attended the Foreign Missionary society of Leslie Memorial church Wednesday afternoon. At this time Mrs. R. A. Feenstra, district corresponding secretary from Sheridan, was the speaker of the afternoon.

KNITS AS CONGRESS ACTS

While the newly-convened Congress was passing the Emergency Bank Bill, which conferred autocratic powers on the President in dealing with the financial crisis, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, "First Lady" of the land, sat in the Presidential box in the House, calmly knitting. With Mrs. Roosevelt above are Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, Jr., wife of the Federal Farm Board head, and Nancy Cook. In rear is James Roosevelt, son of the President.

Spinsters Compliment Bride-Elect

A gay club meeting honoring two of the season's most popular brides-elect was that which was held as a dinner function Tuesday night by the Spinster's club in the Silver Grille room of the Gray Belle.

Guests of honor were Miss Dorothy White, who will marry George Emigh, Jr., of Burns March 19, and for Miss Maxine Myers, who will marry Charles Claggett March 24.

Guests for the clever party included the honor guests and Miss Margaret Burdette, Miss Margaret Corey, Miss Zora Farnsworth, Miss Virginia Newland, Miss Ruthita Hoffnell, Miss Margaret Wilson, Miss Ruby Laughlin, Miss Cleo Rittner, Miss Henriette White, Miss Kate Corey, Miss Myra Belt and Miss Margaret Drager.

At the short business meeting following the dinner Mrs. Beesie Tucker and Mrs. Mildred Judson gave reports on the northwestern conference held at Seattle March 4-5, of which Mrs. Tucker was elected president. Final plans were made for the nation-wide banquet to be held at the Marion hotel March 28 in place of the regular dinner meeting.

A gala affair of Wednesday night was the surprise party arranged by Mrs. Lelf Bergavik in compliment to the birthday of her husband. A colorful and informal buffet supper was served and following this cards were in play.

Guests bidden by Mrs. Bergavik included Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Kuhns, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Woodrow, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Delaney, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Sears, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dune.

The Coterie club was entertained by Miss Marie Westhoff on Thursday evening. High scores went to Edith Starrett and Helen Fletcher. St. Patrick motif was carried out in prizes and refreshments. The guest of the evening was Mrs. Loretta Varley. Members present were Isabel Bartlett, Frances Graham, Mabel Dotson, Helen Fletcher, Edith Starrett, Mildred Samuelson and the hostesses.

About 50 women attended the Foreign Missionary society of Leslie Memorial church Wednesday afternoon. At this time Mrs. R. A. Feenstra, district corresponding secretary from Sheridan, was the speaker of the afternoon.

Unitarian Alliance Arrange Irish Program

An interesting Irish program preceded by a 1 o'clock luncheon, will be the program for the Women's Alliance of the Unitarian church Friday afternoon in the Emerson room of the church.

Mrs. G. H. Littlefield, Mrs. Zero Pelaire and Mrs. Mary Denton make up the committee in charge and reservations are to be made with them or with Mrs. Fred A. Weil.

Mrs. C. A. Kells will give a descriptive talk on the beauty spots of Ireland; Marjorie Wunder will play "Londonderry Air" as a violin solo; Mrs. Blanche Jones will discuss Irish poets, and Mary Elizabeth Kells will sing a group of Irish songs.

Y. M. C. A. to Hear Annual Irish Program

The annual Irish program sponsored at the Y. M. C. A. will be an event of Friday night under the direction of William McGilchrist, Sr.

The program has become quite a favorite with Salem public and the lovely Irish songs and quaint Irish dances will meet with a large reception it is expected.

Those appearing on the program include Robert Hutcheons, Mr. and Mrs. William Blackley, Mr. and Mrs. James Barclay, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, Mr. and Mrs. James McGilchrist, T. S. McKennie, Mrs. W. J. Linfoot, Lyman McDonald, Mrs. Ted Gordon and Mrs. C. L. Bowes.

Mrs. Vernon Osterander entertained for a group of friends at her home on Oak street Tuesday afternoon. Sewing for welfare needs occupied the afternoon hours and at a late hour Mrs. Osterander served an attractive tea. Present were Mrs. John Woodward, Mrs. Fred Geesey, Mrs. Jacob Lappin, Mrs. Adam Herst, Miss C. Meehan, Mrs. James Richards, Mrs. Vivian Cox, Mrs. Maude Stewart, Mrs. Fred Toose and Mrs. Vera Cochran.

Friday afternoon in the armory between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock the women of Hal Hibbard auxiliary will entertain with a St. Patrick's tea for all members of Salem patriotic organizations.

The public is being invited to attend the circle being held by the Spiritualist church Friday night at the home of George Stoddard, 1426 North 4th street.

Mrs. Gus Hixson entertained for her club Tuesday at her home. A one o'clock luncheon preceded the afternoon of cards.

Something to Look Forward to....

Styles that will blossom forth for Spring showing in this new department at Shipley's -- it's a great and new deal for women, for every pair is new -- they represent the cream numbers, "outstanding models," style and quality. This new stock for the Greater Shipley Store was bought and constructed under the Arbuckle King policy --

Quality Merchandise
..... Style Models
and with our reliable service to you prompt always with

Seasonable Styles

Saturday Opening

The opening display features the newest 1933 spring models rushed to us from the eastern factories -- convincing will be the new values, truly 1933 to contribute to making this institution

A Greater Shipley Store

Shoe Styles by Arbuckle, King & Co.

HERE!

Just Received 1000 Pairs of Those
Superb Quality

"BERWY" HOSE

SHEER CHIFFONS — SERVICE WEIGHTS

50¢

pair

NEW SPRING COLORS

Light Gunmetal Neutral Beige Deep Brown
Dark Gunmetal Sun Beige Grey Taupe

EVERY PAIR GUARANTEED PERFECT!

You'll not only find these perfectly clear and sheer, but you will also find them perfect in texture! Extra fine dull cast which gives them a very fashionable appearance.

Please do not confuse these with cloudy, short fibre stockings selling at a similar price. Buy "BERWY" and get the most for your money!

Main floor today!

