VETERAN OF MANY WARS IS HONORED

T. A. Marshall, 88, has Served in Main Conflicts Since 1863

DAYTON, March 16 — T. A. Marshall of North Bend, who is a house guest at the Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Faring home was honored Tuesday on the occasion of his 88th birthday. Mr. Marshall enlisted February 10, 1863 in the 3rd Wisconsin cavalry and served under General Sherman on the Tennessee and was honorably discharged February 10, 1866 after three years' service in the civil war.

His life has been closely identified with war service, he subsequently served in the Indian War, the Spanish American war and the world war.

His special guests at a 1 o'clock luncheon were two Civil war veterans, W. J. Carpenter of the Webfoot neighborhood, who was 85 March 13 and Charles Hadley of Dayton who will be 88 in June. At 3:30 in his honor his favorite tune "Marching Through Georgia" was broadcast from KOIN in Portland.

Local Spanish American and World War veterans called during the afternoon.

Lodge Club Meets
Twelve members and two guests, Mrs. Flora Willert and Mrs. Belle Shepard were present at the regular monthly meeting of the Past Noble Grand club of Naomi Rebekah lodge of Dayton Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lavina Baxter, whose daughter, Mrs. Nina Stevens was joint hostess. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Loret.

The Webfoot social service club program and quilt sale was a success and greatly enjoyed by the packed house that attended. About $17 was received for the quilt. The grange had a candy booth that netted $1.90 that will be used for kitchen equipment.

Animated cartoons are the most popular movie short films in Colombia.

COMMUNITY CLUB PRESENTS PROGRAM

SCIO, March 16 — The "7 WHI" Community club held its regular meeting at the Arnold School house Tuesday night with a large crowd attending. The following program was given:

Group singing led by Walter Miller; selections by the orchestra; recitation, Frances Lyons; recitation by Bobby Long; accordion and banjo duet by the Slinks brothers; reading by Delores Zielinski, skit, "The Country Boarder" by Vera Arnold and Donald Merritt; playlet, "The Maid's Tea Party" by members of the 3rd and 4th grades of the Gap school; recitation, Reid Merritt; piano solo, Bill Dobrowsky Jr.; skit by Reid Merritt and Loretta Arnold; vocal duet by Joyce and Phyllis Westenhous; vocal solo by Lowell Myers, who accompanied himself on the guitar; reading "The White Owl" by Helen Kihis; recitation by Marjorie Zielinski; orchestra; play, "The Tuesday Club Entertainers."

The Scio 500 club met at the home of Mrs. Charles White Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Gilbert McDonald was joint hostess. Mrs. Jess Rodgers scored high and Mrs. James Chromy received the consolation.

St. Patrick Event By Hubbard's Band Is Slated Tonight

HUBBARD, March 16 — The band will give its annual St. Patrick concert Friday night at the city hall.

There will be a varied program: Band selections by the band and modern music by an orchestra. A special feature will be numbers by a quartet composed of Marie de Lespinasse, Louise Grimps, Don Covey and Franklin de Lespinasse. Louise Grimps and Marie de Lespinasse will have charge of the fish pond.

In the near future the band will give the concert before the boys' training school.

George J. Darkins Funeral Services Are Slated Today

INDEPENDENCE, March 16 — George J. Darkins, 59, died at a Salem hospital Tuesday and funeral services will be held here Friday afternoon, with Keeney funeral home in charge. Mr. Darkins was born in Michigan in February, 1874. He was a farmer on route two here for many years.

NORTH HOWELL — George Darkins, who lived in this community until about a year ago, died Tuesday in Salem. Funeral services will be held at Independence where the family now resides, and burial will be at the Howell Prairie cemetery Friday afternoon. He is survived by his widow and eight children.

Girls' Letter Club Takes Trio Members
SCIO, March 16 — Helen Miller, Geraldine Rodgers, and Edris Thayer, who this year earned basketball letters, were initiated into the Girls' Order of the "S" Tuesday afternoon at school, and Tuesday evening were special guests at an Order of the "S" party at the home of Veloris Orenshaw. Others present were Norma Mumper, Veloris Orenshaw, Vanta McClain, Irene Falon, Sylvia Burt and Miss Doris Neptune, advisor to the order.

Community Meeting To View Short Plays

HAYESVILLE, March 16 — The Community club will meet Friday night, when two short plays will be given as program features. There will be a small admission charge, funds to go for repairs for the stage.

Mrs. Burr Teal became seriously ill at her home here Wednesday night. She is an old resident.
