

Symphony Concert Attracts Attention for 3 o'Clock at Armory

Prominent Weddings Hold Spotlight of Attention in Salem's Social World This Week

Large Church Ceremony for White-Emigh Nuptials Will Lead the List Tonight

WERE not the weather so much in keeping with the calendar, one would be tempted to believe that June was here rather than blustery March for on all sides ring wedding bells and those not ringing out loud are beginning to sway.

Tonight at 6:30 o'clock after a season of being feted by charming and numerous affairs Miss Dorothy White, daughter of Major General and Mrs. George A. White, will become the bride of George H. Emigh, Jr., of Bend.

The ceremony will take place in St. Paul's Episcopal church. This affair which will be a stately formal wedding, with the church undecorated save for the soft glow of many white cathedral tapers. Invitations were extended to 250 guests and these will gather from all over the state. The wedding party, several of whom come from out of town, had arrived Saturday night and other guests will come during the day today.

Mrs. George Emigh, Sr., arrived Wednesday from Carthage, New York, as the first of the guests to arrive.

Following the wedding service which will be read by Rev. George Swift of St. Paul's, a reception will be held at the home of the bride-elect.

The guest rooms of the home will be decorated all in white. Freesia, stock, carnations and white tapers will be used to carry out this formal decorative motif.

Major General and Mrs. White, the bride and groom elect, and Mrs. George Emigh, Sr., will receive the guests.

Those assisting about the drawing room will be Mrs. Homer Smith, Sr., Mrs. Margaret LePurge, Mrs. George E. Allen, Mrs. Homer Goulet and Miss Ruthita Hoffmann.

Presiding at the urns and cutting loaves will be Mrs. James Humphrey of Salem, Mrs. Jefferson Myers, Mrs. Fletcher Linn and Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, all of Portland.

Mrs. Wallace Carson will be in charge of the dining room and assisting her will be a group of the younger set, including Mrs. Gordon Bennett of Albany, Mrs. Edwin Jack and Miss Edith Kelly, both of Portland.

Miss Kate Corey, Miss Margaret Corey, Miss Kay Langhribe, Miss Josephine McEllestrich, Miss Josephine Corvover, Miss Zora Farnsworth, Miss Myra Belt, Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., and Mrs. Frank Shafter.

Miss Maxine Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers will be the center of entertaining and attention following the Sunday wedding with her marriage to Charles Claggett an event of Friday, at the Myers home.

Miss Yvonne Smith will entertain with a large party Monday evening in compliment to Miss Myers. Miss Cynthia Delano and Miss Frances Martin entertained for her Saturday afternoon with an attractive tea.

A third wedding of interest to Salem will be that of Tuesday in Portland at which time Miss Mary Ellen Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Watson of Portland, will become the bride of Dr. Laban A. Steeves, son of Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves.

The wedding will be solemnized at 7:30 o'clock in the home of the bride-elect, Rev. Fred C. Taylor will read the service before a large assemblage of friends. About 60 people from Salem will motor down for the occasion.

A reception will follow the wedding ceremony and then the couple will leave at once to board the S. S. Peoples which leaves at 9:30 o'clock for the south. They plan to be gone two weeks and will then be at home in Salem.

Mrs. James Young entertained her club and Mrs. Wayne Loder as an additional guest Friday afternoon. A St. Patrick's 1 o'clock luncheon preceded the afternoon of contrast.

The birthday of R. H. Varley was celebrated Friday night with a cleverly arranged progressive dinner with courses served at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bones, Mr. and Mrs. George Orey, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Wilkerson, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Varley. Additional guests were Misses Roberts, Loreta, and Daisy Varley.

There will be no Town and Gown club meeting for March according to the customs of past years. This meeting comes during spring vacation at the university and many of the members are away from town.

Mrs. Frank Snedecor will entertain members of her contract club for luncheon and cards Monday afternoon.

Pythian Sisters will have charge of the banquet which will be served in compliment to the district convention of the Knights of Pythias Tuesday evening. Mrs. Wayne Greenwood, Mrs. Vera Compton, and Mrs. Jennie Gould make up the committee in charge.

Mrs. Edgar Pierce will be hostess to the members of Mrs. Robert M. Gathe's drama study class at the Pierce home Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Joan Button and Miss Edith Leake of Portland are weekend guests at the G. H. Gallagher home. Informal affairs have complimented the visiting maids.

Mrs. Mark Wald was an additional guest for the luncheon and afternoon of cards for which Mrs. Elton Thompson was hostess to her club members Thursday.

Mrs. Burton Myers will be hostess to members of the Alpha Chi sorority alumnae club at her home Monday evening.

ST. PATRICK FETED
MT. ANGEL, March 17. — St. Patrick's college boys put on St. Patrick's day program for the faculty and friends at the school auditorium Friday afternoon. The program took the form of a doubleheader basketball game interspersed with laugh-provoking stunts. The preliminary game between the high school and seminary second teams ended with victory for the "sema", 17 to 8. The game between the first team was an exciting nip-and-tuck affair and good throughout. The final score was 19-15 for the "sema".

ST. PATRICK'S TEA
A smartly arranged tea was that for which members of Hal Hibbard Auxiliary were hostesses Friday afternoon in compliment to all patriotic organizations of the city.

Shamrock, ferns, pussywillows, and daffodils afforded lovely mediums for decoration and were effectively used for the service tables.

Mrs. Leroy Hewlett and Mrs. Charles Brant poured for the first hour and Mrs. Arthur Welch and Mrs. John Seymour poured the last hour.

Mrs. Charles McKinley welcomed the guests. Short talks were made by representatives of the various organizations who called for tea. Additional program numbers were presented by Lawrence Alley, vocalist, Miss Bernice Downs, Mary Lou McKay, reading; Rachel Pemberton and Carl Mason, vocal duet; Carl Mason, soloist, accompanied by Rachel Pemberton.

Quilts on display added to the interest of the guests who called for the tea hours.

All former Minnesotians are invited to attend the potluck dinner at 6:30 o'clock and following that the program which is planned in observance of the mid-winter gathering of the Minnesota club at the Y. M. C. A. Monday night. Each guest is asked to bring his own table service.

Mrs. M. A. Marcy will be hostess to members of the Leslie Can Do class of the Leslie Methodist church at her home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. E. D. Roseman and Mrs. Charles Vick will be assisting hostesses.

Y. W. C. A. Presents Ceremonial Today
An interesting ceremonial is being presented as the evening service of worship at the American Lutheran church tonight at 7:30 o'clock by the Y. W. C. A.

The choir will be large and will include young women connected with various activities of the Y. W. C. A. Miss Gladys Edgar will be organist and Mrs. L. J. Stewart is directing the music.

The service will open with a call to worship by Miss June Weeks. Special talks will be made by Miss Ethel Abel on "What does the Y. W. C. A. Mean to Me?" and a second one by Miss Muriel White, on "What does the Y. W. C. A. Mean to the Community?"

A vocal duet will be sung by Miss Gwen Gallagher and Miss Clarice Kolbe and there will be chorus numbers by a group made up of the Girl Reserves of the grade schools and from Parrish and Leslie junior high schools.

The closing number will be an impressive and colorful serenade given by the high school choruses led by Mrs. L. O. Clement, president of the board of directors for the Y. W. C. A.

Ushers for the evening will be the ninth grade Parrish Girl Reserves.

2495
By ANNE ADAMS
The very best way to look your very best when occasion demands the very best is to wear as delightful a frock as the model sketched today. It reflects the newest in line... smart slender seeming in color... the dashy scarf and bow treatment at the neckline, and in detail... the puffed sleeves set in raglan fashion. New spring prints in devastating colors would be perfect.
Pattern 2495 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 14 requires 3 1/2 yards 39-inch fabric and 1/2 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with this pattern.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Monday, March 20

Minnesota club, potluck dinner at Y. M. C. A., 6:30 o'clock; all Minnesotians urged to attend.
Anniversary program for Rebekah lodge following regular business meeting at 7:30 o'clock in I. O. O. F. hall; any visiting Rebekah in city invited to attend.
Sigma Nu chapter of Delphians, city library, 7:00 o'clock.
Cemorial and election of officers special features of White Shrine of Jerusalem lodge meeting; 8:30 o'clock potluck dinner to precede evening meeting.

McKinley Parent Teacher association, 8 o'clock, in school building, program planned; interested public invited.

Tuesday, March 21

Security Benefit association with Mrs. W. G. Morehouse, 735 South Commercial street, 7:30 o'clock.
Etokta Women's club, tea at home of Mrs. W. T. Grier, 1479 Skinner street, West Salem; hours 2:30 to 5 o'clock.
Regular social meeting of American War Mothers, American Lutheran church, 2 o'clock.
Local institute, Salem W. C. T. U. in hall at Ferry and South Commercial street, 10:30 to 4 o'clock.
P. L. E. and F. club of Pythian Sisters, at K. P. hall, with one o'clock luncheon; business meeting followed by sewing, bring needles and sewing equipment.

Wednesday, March 22

Leslie Can Do class, 3 o'clock with Mrs. M. A. Marcy, 1449 North Cottage street.
Knight Memorial women plan tea, 2:30 o'clock in church parlors; sewing for Red Cross.

Thursday, March 23

North Salem W. C. T. U., with Mrs. Maehand, corner of Hood and Summer streets, 2 o'clock; Mrs. Hannah Martin speaker.

Friday, March 24

Daughters of Veterans, Women's clubhouse, 8:00 o'clock.
Three Link club committee sponsoring quilt show; invitation extended for entry of old fashioned or modern quilts; for information call 3122 or 3987.

Benefit Symphony Program Presented This Afternoon in Salem Armory; Society Strikes Slow Pace

Spring Lull Waits the Breath of Easter to Break Languid Spell

A BRILLIANT concert is being anticipated for 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Salem Armory when Jacques Gershkovitch and the Salem Philharmonic symphony orchestra repeat the program given recently, this time for a benefit, the fund from which will be placed in a sinking fund for a civic auditorium.

The program was a beautiful one as presented over a week ago and it is expected that it will be even better because of added work and an additional 20 players who because of the date being Sunday were able to come down from Portland to assist with the difficult numbers.

The program includes:
Overture: Oberon, Weber
Symphony, "Unfinished", Schubert
First Movement
Intermission
Berceuse, Chopin
Cesar Cui
String Quartet

At Church, Tchaikowsky
String Quartet
Marche Slave, Tchaikowsky
Second Movement of the week will be that which will be given in the lovely environment of the Emerson room of the Unitarian church this week. Musical and dramatic will be the numbers presented and they promise to be excellent. The funds from this will be turned into the symphony orchestra fund for needed materials.

As planned the numbers will be all Irish and will present a delicate, lilting beauty.

An Irish play, fresh, humorous, and cleverly full of homespun philosophy and Gaelic imagery of fairies and folklore will be presented by Miss Genevieve Thayer and Don Poudaj. The play is entitled "Wealth and Wisdom" and was written by Olliphant Down.

Additional numbers will be given by a male quartet directed by Prof. E. W. Hobson and composed of R. Whitcraft, Ronald Craven, Herbert Hobson, Laurence Maves and Stanley Maves.

Wendel Robinson will give a group of solo numbers among them some of John McCormick's favorites.

String ensemble numbers will be given by a group under the direction of Mary Schultz and will include, Margaret Savage, Dalbert Jensen, and Jeanne Patton, violin; Mary Zeran, viola; Marie Patton, cello, and Emory Hobson, piano.

Dalbert Jensen will present a group of violin numbers.

And then there is a lull. Following the weddings and the benefits society sits quite still and waits for Easter and the gay season which follows of comings and goings. Until then a few card parties, entertaining for the brides to be!

The program will include deceptions by Mrs. G. N. Thompson at 10:30 o'clock followed by:
11:00—The Aims of the Institute Work, County President Mrs. Buck.
11:15—Our W. C. T. U. Equipment, (a) Our Official Papers, Mrs. J. J. Nuss, (b) Our Literature, Mrs. Woodard, (c) Topical Programs, Mrs. Toote; (d) State Year Book, Mrs. Oliver; (e) National Hand Book.
Music.
11:40—White Ribbon Recruit Service.
12:00—Noontide Prayer.
Lunch.
1:30—Song Service, Prayer.
2:00—W. C. T. U. Machinery; Skit—"A General Officers Meeting"; Mrs. Lehman, Mrs. Robins, Miss Martin, Mrs. Toote and Miss Baker.
2:30—Music; Department Discussion (a) Motion Pictures, Miss Baker; (b) Medal Contests, Mrs. Lamberson.
3:00—Temperance Legislation, Mrs. Hannah Martin.
3:30—The Next Step.

The program topics will be presented by Mrs. Deckebach, Mrs. Wayne D. Henry, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. C. E. Robin, Mrs. Hugh Latham, Mrs. Charles McElhinney, Mrs. W. T. Jenks, Mrs. J. C. Perry, and Mrs. W. G. Stacy.

Mrs. Joseph Bernardi was pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening when 25 of her friends called to help her celebrate her birthday. The evening was spent in conversation. An amusing feature was the narration of incidents connected with the various birthdays of the guests. Guests brought the refreshments which were served at a late hour. Two large and beautifully decorated birthday cakes were presented Mrs. Bernardi as well as a gay shower of handkerchiefs, and lovely flowers.

Mrs. Ralph Kietzing will return to her home today following several weeks spent in Portland where she has been under a doctor's care. She returns much improved in health.

Mrs. Edith Scott of Eugene will be guest of honor for the meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Lena Shagman, 1040 South Liberty street, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Motoring to Portland Friday night for a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bescon, nee Mildred Carlson, was a group of Salem people, members of the staff of Montgomery Ward store. The party enjoyed a tour of window shopping for Spring opening in Portland and then refreshments at the Bescon home where St. Patrick's gay symbols added attractiveness to the pretty guest rooms.

Miss Helen May Corneli, daughter of Mrs. Alice Corneli, became the bride of Alfred F. Coats Jr. of Tillamook, son of Mrs. Alfred F. Coats of Seattle, Saturday in a quiet ceremony in Portland at Grace Memorial church.

The Bohemian Girl, O! to be presented by the Light Opera club of Willamette university, April 10 and 11 at the Capitol theatre, is one of the world's greatest classics. Its overwhelming popularity that has lasted for almost a century is not only due to the beautiful musical numbers, but to the stirring dramatic scenes, the tender romantic moments and the gay abandon of the gypsy and peasant choruses. Numbers such as "I Dreamt That I Dwelt," "In a Gypsy's Life," "The Heart Bow'd Down" and "Then You'll Remember Me" are as popular today as the day they were first presented.

Although the story has nothing to do with Bohemia, dealing with life of an abducted contess in a spy camp, in the English translation by Alfred Bunn, he read the title as "The Bohemian Girl" and so it has remained. The story is laid in Hungary about 1800. Soldiers, noblemen, courtiers, ladies-in-waiting, peasants, gypsies, tumblers and dancers pass in bewildering array in a riot of color and song.

All characters have been selected for the local production, and intensive rehearsals are held daily. Tickets will go on sale downtown Monday morning.

A gay St. Patrick's party was that for which Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Pittard were hosts at their home Friday night. Cards were in play. At a late hour, Mrs. Pittard was assisted in serving a pretty St. Patrick's supper by Mrs. W. B. Baker. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blener, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Derril Austin of Monmouth.

Motoring to Portland Friday night for a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bescon, nee Mildred Carlson, was a group of Salem people, members of the staff of Montgomery Ward store. The party enjoyed a tour of window shopping for Spring opening in Portland and then refreshments at the Bescon home where St. Patrick's gay symbols added attractiveness to the pretty guest rooms.

Mrs. Joseph Bernardi was pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening when 25 of her friends called to help her celebrate her birthday. The evening was spent in conversation. An amusing feature was the narration of incidents connected with the various birthdays of the guests. Guests brought the refreshments which were served at a late hour. Two large and beautifully decorated birthday cakes were presented Mrs. Bernardi as well as a gay shower of handkerchiefs, and lovely flowers.

Mrs. Ralph Kietzing will return to her home today following several weeks spent in Portland where she has been under a doctor's care. She returns much improved in health.

Mrs. Edith Scott of Eugene will be guest of honor for the meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. Lena Shagman, 1040 South Liberty street, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Motoring to Portland Friday night for a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bescon, nee Mildred Carlson, was a group of Salem people, members of the staff of Montgomery Ward store. The party enjoyed a tour of window shopping for Spring opening in Portland and then refreshments at the Bescon home where St. Patrick's gay symbols added attractiveness to the pretty guest rooms.

Miss Helen May Corneli, daughter of Mrs. Alice Corneli, became the bride of Alfred F. Coats Jr. of Tillamook, son of Mrs. Alfred F. Coats of Seattle, Saturday in a quiet ceremony in Portland at Grace Memorial church.

The Bohemian Girl, O! to be presented by the Light Opera club of Willamette university, April 10 and 11 at the Capitol theatre, is one of the world's greatest classics. Its overwhelming popularity that has lasted for almost a century is not only due to the beautiful musical numbers, but to the stirring dramatic scenes, the tender romantic moments and the gay abandon of the gypsy and peasant choruses. Numbers such as "I Dreamt That I Dwelt," "In a Gypsy's Life," "The Heart Bow'd Down" and "Then You'll Remember Me" are as popular today as the day they were first presented.

Although the story has nothing to do with Bohemia, dealing with life of an abducted contess in a spy camp, in the English translation by Alfred Bunn, he read the title as "The Bohemian Girl" and so it has remained. The story is laid in Hungary about 1800. Soldiers, noblemen, courtiers, ladies-in-waiting, peasants, gypsies, tumblers and dancers pass in bewildering array in a riot of color and song.

All characters have been selected for the local production, and intensive rehearsals are held daily. Tickets will go on sale downtown Monday morning.

A gay St. Patrick's party was that for which Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Pittard were hosts at their home Friday night. Cards were in play. At a late hour, Mrs. Pittard was assisted in serving a pretty St. Patrick's supper by Mrs. W. B. Baker. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blener, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Derril Austin of Monmouth.

Motoring to Portland Friday night for a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bescon, nee Mildred Carlson, was a group of Salem people, members of the staff of Montgomery Ward store. The party enjoyed a tour of window shopping for Spring opening in Portland and then refreshments at the Bescon home where St. Patrick's gay symbols added attractiveness to the pretty guest rooms.

Miss Helen May Corneli, daughter of Mrs. Alice Corneli, became the bride of Alfred F. Coats Jr. of Tillamook, son of Mrs. Alfred F. Coats of Seattle, Saturday in a quiet ceremony in Portland at Grace Memorial church.

The Bohemian Girl, O! to be presented by the Light Opera club of Willamette university, April 10 and 11 at the Capitol theatre, is one of the world's greatest classics. Its overwhelming popularity that has lasted for almost a century is not only due to the beautiful musical numbers, but to the stirring dramatic scenes, the tender romantic moments and the gay abandon of the gypsy and peasant choruses. Numbers such as "I Dreamt That I Dwelt," "In a Gypsy's Life," "The Heart Bow'd Down" and "Then You'll Remember Me" are as popular today as the day they were first presented.

Although the story has nothing to do with Bohemia, dealing with life of an abducted contess in a spy camp, in the English translation by Alfred Bunn, he read the title as "The Bohemian Girl" and so it has remained. The story is laid in Hungary about 1800. Soldiers, noblemen, courtiers, ladies-in-waiting, peasants, gypsies, tumblers and dancers pass in bewildering array in a riot of color and song.

All characters have been selected for the local production, and intensive rehearsals are held daily. Tickets will go on sale downtown Monday morning.

A gay St. Patrick's party was that for which Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Pittard were hosts at their home Friday night. Cards were in play. At a late hour, Mrs. Pittard was assisted in serving a pretty St. Patrick's supper by Mrs. W. B. Baker. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blener, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Derril Austin of Monmouth.

Motoring to Portland Friday night for a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bescon, nee Mildred Carlson, was a group of Salem people, members of the staff of Montgomery Ward store. The party enjoyed a tour of window shopping for Spring opening in Portland and then refreshments at the Bescon home where St. Patrick's gay symbols added attractiveness to the pretty guest rooms.

Miss Helen May Corneli, daughter of Mrs. Alice Corneli, became the bride of Alfred F. Coats Jr. of Tillamook, son of Mrs. Alfred F. Coats of Seattle, Saturday in a quiet ceremony in Portland at Grace Memorial church.

The Bohemian Girl, O! to be presented by the Light Opera club of Willamette university, April 10 and 11 at the Capitol theatre, is one of the world's greatest classics. Its overwhelming popularity that has lasted for almost a century is not only due to the beautiful musical numbers, but to the stirring dramatic scenes, the tender romantic moments and the gay abandon of the gypsy and peasant choruses. Numbers such as "I Dreamt That I Dwelt," "In a Gypsy's Life," "The Heart Bow'd Down" and "Then You'll Remember Me" are as popular today as the day they were first presented.

Dinner and Line Party Entertains Club

A dinner party at the Green Dragon tea room Friday evening and this followed by a line party at a local theatre made a delightful meeting for the Ecclesia club.

The dinner table was gayly arranged in keeping with St. Patrick's day symbols. A short program was given during the dinner hour and a special gift was presented to Miss Charlotte Horning in compliment to her birthday which occurs this month.

Present were Ann Heister, Esther Erickson, Velma Rominger, Charlotte Horning, Irene de Lisle, Golda Wheeler, Ruth Cole, Flora Turnbull, Edna McElhaney, Emadell Schwabbauer, Elnor Dorance and additional guests were Bybil White, Arlie Dorance, Helen Hiller, Mabel Alrick and Dorothy Travis.

Miss Edna McElhaney, and Miss Elnor Dorance were in charge of arranging the evening.

"Bohemian Girl" Stirs Musical Interest
"The Bohemian Girl," O! to be presented by the Light Opera club of Willamette university, April 10 and 11 at the Capitol theatre, is one of the world's greatest classics. Its overwhelming popularity that has lasted for almost a century is not only due to the beautiful musical numbers, but to the stirring dramatic scenes, the tender romantic moments and the gay abandon of the gypsy and peasant choruses. Numbers such as "I Dreamt That I Dwelt," "In a Gypsy's Life," "The Heart Bow'd Down" and "Then You'll Remember Me" are as popular today as the day they were first presented.

Although the story has nothing to do with Bohemia, dealing with life of an abducted contess in a spy camp, in the English translation by Alfred Bunn, he read the title as "The Bohemian Girl" and so it has remained. The story is laid in Hungary about 1800. Soldiers, noblemen, courtiers, ladies-in-waiting, peasants, gypsies, tumblers and dancers pass in bewildering array in a riot of color and song.

All characters have been selected for the local production, and intensive rehearsals are held daily. Tickets will go on sale downtown Monday morning.

A gay St. Patrick's party was that for which Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Pittard were hosts at their home Friday night. Cards were in play. At a late hour, Mrs. Pittard was assisted in serving a pretty St. Patrick's supper by Mrs. W. B. Baker. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blener, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Derril Austin of Monmouth.

Motoring to Portland Friday night for a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bescon, nee Mildred Carlson, was a group of Salem people, members of the staff of Montgomery Ward store. The party enjoyed a tour of window shopping for Spring opening in Portland and then refreshments at the Bescon home where St. Patrick's gay symbols added attractiveness to the pretty guest rooms.

Miss Helen May Corneli, daughter of Mrs. Alice Corneli, became the bride of Alfred F. Coats Jr. of Tillamook, son of Mrs. Alfred F. Coats of Seattle, Saturday in a quiet ceremony in Portland at Grace Memorial church.

The Bohemian Girl, O! to be presented by the Light Opera club of Willamette university, April 10 and 11 at the Capitol theatre, is one of the world's greatest classics. Its overwhelming popularity that has lasted for almost a century is not only due to the beautiful musical numbers, but to the stirring dramatic scenes, the tender romantic moments and the gay abandon of the gypsy and peasant choruses. Numbers such as "I Dreamt That I Dwelt," "In a Gypsy's Life," "The Heart Bow'd Down" and "Then You'll Remember Me" are as popular today as the day they were first presented.

Although the story has nothing to do with Bohemia, dealing with life of an abducted contess in a spy camp, in the English translation by Alfred Bunn, he read the title as "The Bohemian Girl" and so it has remained. The story is laid in Hungary about 1800. Soldiers, noblemen, courtiers, ladies-in-waiting, peasants, gypsies, tumblers and dancers pass in bewildering array in a riot of color and song.

All characters have been selected for the local production, and intensive rehearsals are held daily. Tickets will go on sale downtown Monday morning.

A gay St. Patrick's party was that for which Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Pittard were hosts at their home Friday night. Cards were in play. At a late hour, Mrs. Pittard was assisted in serving a pretty St. Patrick's supper by Mrs. W. B. Baker. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blener, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Derril Austin of Monmouth.

Motoring to Portland Friday night for a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bescon, nee Mildred Carlson, was a group of Salem people, members of the staff of Montgomery Ward store. The party enjoyed a tour of window shopping for Spring opening in Portland and then refreshments at the Bescon home where St. Patrick's gay symbols added attractiveness to the pretty guest rooms.

Miss Helen May Corneli, daughter of Mrs. Alice Corneli, became the bride of Alfred F. Coats Jr. of Tillamook, son of Mrs. Alfred F. Coats of Seattle, Saturday in a quiet ceremony in Portland at Grace Memorial church.

The Bohemian Girl, O! to be presented by the Light Opera club of Willamette university, April 10 and 11 at the Capitol theatre, is one of the world's greatest classics. Its overwhelming popularity that has lasted for almost a century is not only due to the beautiful musical numbers, but to the stirring dramatic scenes, the tender romantic moments and the gay abandon of the gypsy and peasant choruses. Numbers such as "I Dreamt That I Dwelt," "In a Gypsy's Life," "The Heart Bow'd Down" and "Then You'll Remember Me" are as popular today as the day they were first presented.

Although the story has nothing to do with Bohemia, dealing with life of an abducted contess in a spy camp, in the English translation by Alfred Bunn, he read the title as "The Bohemian Girl" and so it has remained. The story is laid in Hungary about 1800. Soldiers, noblemen, courtiers, ladies-in-waiting, peasants, gypsies, tumblers and dancers pass in bewildering array in a riot of color and song.

All characters have been selected for the local production, and intensive rehearsals are held daily. Tickets will go on sale downtown Monday morning.

A gay St. Patrick's party was that for which Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Pittard were hosts at their home Friday night. Cards were in play. At a late hour, Mrs. Pittard was assisted in serving a pretty St. Patrick's supper by Mrs. W. B. Baker. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blener, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Derril Austin of Monmouth.

Motoring to Portland Friday night for a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bescon, nee Mildred Carlson, was a group of Salem people, members of the staff of Montgomery Ward store. The party enjoyed a tour of window shopping for Spring opening in Portland and then refreshments at the Bescon home where St. Patrick's gay symbols added attractiveness to the pretty guest rooms.

Miss Helen May Corneli, daughter of Mrs. Alice Corneli, became the bride of Alfred F. Coats Jr. of Tillamook, son of Mrs. Alfred F. Coats of Seattle, Saturday in a quiet ceremony in Portland at Grace Memorial church.

The Bohemian Girl, O! to be presented by the Light Opera club of Willamette university, April 10 and 11 at the Capitol theatre, is one of the world's greatest classics. Its overwhelming popularity that has lasted for almost a century is not only due to the beautiful musical numbers, but to the stirring dramatic scenes, the tender romantic moments and the gay abandon of the gypsy and peasant choruses. Numbers such as "I Dreamt That I Dwelt," "In a Gypsy's Life," "The Heart Bow'd Down" and "Then You'll Remember Me" are as popular today as the day they were first presented.

Although the story has nothing to do with Bohemia, dealing with life of an abducted contess in a spy camp, in the English translation by Alfred Bunn, he read the title as "The Bohemian Girl" and so it has remained. The story is laid in Hungary about 1800. Soldiers, noblemen, courtiers, ladies-in-waiting, peasants, gypsies, tumblers and dancers pass in bewildering array in a riot of color and song.

All characters have been selected for the local production, and intensive rehearsals are held daily. Tickets will go on sale downtown Monday morning.

A gay St. Patrick's party was that for which Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Pittard were hosts at their home Friday night. Cards were in play. At a late hour, Mrs. Pittard was assisted in serving a pretty St. Patrick's supper by Mrs. W. B. Baker. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blener, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Derril Austin of Monmouth.

Motoring to Portland Friday night for a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bescon, nee Mildred Carlson, was a group of Salem people, members of the staff of Montgomery Ward store. The party enjoyed a tour of window shopping for Spring opening in Portland and then refreshments at the Bescon home where St. Patrick's gay symbols added attractiveness to the pretty guest rooms.

Miss Helen May Corneli, daughter of Mrs. Alice Corneli, became the bride of Alfred F. Coats Jr. of Tillamook, son of Mrs. Alfred F. Coats of Seattle, Saturday in a quiet ceremony in Portland at Grace Memorial church.

The Bohemian Girl, O! to be presented by the Light Opera club of Willamette university, April 10 and 11 at the Capitol theatre, is one of the world's greatest classics. Its overwhelming popularity that has lasted for almost a century is not only due to the beautiful musical numbers, but to the stirring dramatic scenes, the tender romantic moments and the gay abandon of the gypsy and peasant choruses. Numbers such as "I Dreamt That I Dwelt," "In a Gypsy's Life," "The Heart Bow