liquor sale ordinance, thus taking away the enforcement of the charter amendment, but under such circumstances, it is doubtful if it could collect license fees from beer vendors as would be desired, the city attorney explained. The other alternative is submission of the charter amendment to the people at the June 21 special election.

On repeal of the Anderson law, the city voted 4885 in favor and 4776 against the move, a difference of 115 votes on the repeal side. Most of the city aldermen, including those personally dry, of the people," though in this case the people's will apparently will set them on the top rail of the political fence.

At the request of one alderman, the city attorney plans to draw up as strong an ordinance as possible permitting and licensing sale of 3.2 per cent beer. He stated yesterday such a measure would be couched so as to license the sale of "beverages team defeated the Mt. Angel town containing over one-half of one team, 40 to 36, at Mt. Resident Heart Attack; two Daughters Hurt

W. A. Liston, pioneer Salem resident, suffered a severe heart attack early yesterday as the result of shock suffered Sunday night when an automobile in which he was riding, driven by Mrs. Blanche Niemeyer, his daughter, collided with a machine driven by W. Morgareidse of Dayton at Commercial and Center streets. The attending physician last night reported Mr. Lis ton was in serious condition but, with proper rest, would recover from the attack. Mrs. Niemeyer received a painfully sprained arm and shoulder and her sister, Mrs. A. J. Lennon of Portland, was badly shaken up. Damage to the Niemeyer car consisted of a smashed front fender, and to the Morgareidge machine, a bashed-in side. Three other accidents were reported to city police over the weekend: Frank Kaylor of Newport and Harry Corn, 148 South Commercial street, at High and Center; Thomas Hurhammer, route three, and Russell Jenkins of Silverton. at 12th and Mission; W. H. Paulus, 575 Mission, and J. E. Kuhns of Texas Oil company, at 575 Mis-

Opening of the rate hearing involving the Spaulding Logging company here is set for 10 a. m. today before the public utilities commissioner at the capital. Defendants in the rate case are the Southern Pacific.

The Spaulding company contends rates of $3.90 a thousand on logs, the joint charge made from the Polk county timber of the company to its log dump up the river from Salem, are excessive. Resumption of the local mill's operations depends upon the lower rates, the mill firm will hold. William P. Ellis represents the Spaulding interests. C. L. Starr will appear for the Valley & Siletz line. A member of Dey, Hampson and Nelson, Portland legal firm, will represent the Southern Pacific.

The case has been delayed saveral months in order to give defendants in the suit additional time for preparation.

50 Candidates out Including RESERVE OFFICERS HAVE LIVELY MEE

Returning from the Reserve Oficers' association annual convention held at Albany over the week end, local members reported lively sessions devoted largely to business and addresses, at which they pledged support to the United States army, the national guard and all national defense and patriotic organizations. Seven local men, including Col. Carle Abrams, attended.

Col. Abrams addressed the convention delegates on state legislative acts along military lines and pointed to the success of the fight to prevent a 50 per cent cut in the national guard appropriation. Bend was chosen the city for the 1934 convention, to be held ia May.

The following officers were

President, Col. Charles Steinhauser, quartermaster reserve, Hood River; first vice-president, Capt. Frank Prince, Eng. Res., Bend; second vice-president, Maj. Alfred F. Biles, Inf.
