

TO LINK TRADE AND WAR DEBT

Ambassador Lindsay Talks With Secretary Hull; No Statement out

(Continued from page 1) ... guards trade and debt as subject to separate treatment in theory. It is believed by well posted observers that the attitude of the United States toward reducing the debt of any one nation will be determined to a great extent by that nation's contribution to revival of trade.

OLDER BOYS MEET

Draws Many Here

(Continued from page 1) ... ayne Thornley, Raymond Specht, Harold Davis, Independence, Tom Pomery, Eddy Pomery, Raymond Adams, Mario Butler; Stanton — Bob Banta, Ralph Sanders, Paul Clarke.

BANKS WILL SEEK CHANGE OF VENUE

Which was organized by Banks, was indicted for alleged slander of a bank

A hearing on the fitness of Sheriff Gordon L. Schermerhorn to continue in office opened today before Circuit Judge W. M. Duncan as soon as the grand jury had reported. The hearing was ordered by Governor Meier.

SHIPPING INCREASE

Seattle Forecast

SEATTLE, March 24—(AP)—Shippers of the Pacific northwest today requisitioned 139,123 railcars for the second quarter of the year. April, May and June.

City Liquor Law Used First Time Since Election

For the first time since the state dry laws were repealed last November, city police yesterday used the much-discussed liquor sale prohibition ordinance.

Youth is Charged With Snatching Purses at Dance

Arrested at Crystal Garden dance hall last night, Earl Buck, 29, giving his address as 248 Marion street, was booked at police headquarters on a charge of larceny.

TRIANGLES OVERDONE

Claims Author, and Proves It in Statesman SERIAL "MARY FAITH"

"She must be blind! The poor girl... She doesn't realize how her husband is carrying on! How can she tolerate it?" Those words Beatrice Burton maintains are frequently heard in every community.

ADVISORY GROUP IS PLANNED BY MEIER

Governor Meier revealed Friday that he is considering the appointment of an advisory committee to assist him in preparing and presenting applications for loans to the Reconstruction Finance corporation for self liquidating projects.

WEST LUMBER MART POSITION IMPROVED

SEATTLE, March 24—(AP)—Showing a marked rise in the rail and Atlantic coast trade, 178 mills of the Douglas fir region reported to the West Coast Lumbermen's association today new business of 8,000,451 feet for the week ending March 18.

Federals Arrest Pair on Grand Jury Indictment

Federal prohibition agents yesterday arrested Roy Lewis and Mrs. Hugh Aspinwall, both of Salem, on warrants growing out of secret indictments returned by a federal grand jury and charging violation of prohibition laws.

Lower Basis of Beer Sale Fees Is Now Favored

PORTLAND, Ore., March 24—(AP)—License fees were revised definitely downward in a new city ordinance to regulate the sale of beer.

Old Applications For Beer Vending Permits Not Kept

Would-be beer vendors in Salem who applied for licenses last November will have to file new applications in case the city commission passes an ordinance permitting the sale of 3.2 per cent beer here.

CHEMEKETA DRAMA PROVES CREDITABLE

A comedy with liberal dilution of melodrama, written by Perry Prescott Reigelman, local playwright and dramatic director

The story goes some of conventional materials of melodrama—love, a big estate; but it presents also some unique situations and binds them with the sprightly dialogue quite in the modern mood.

HOLMAN TO RETURN HERE IF NECESSARY

(Continued from page 1) ... purpose of establishing the constitutional validity of the warrant act, so that there would be no question as to liability of the state treasurer on his official bond in the payment of interest on loans to the state for replenishment of the general fund.

Mushroom Town Would Cater to Idaho's Thirsty

—(AP)—A mushroom town is being built 20 miles from here just across the Wyoming line, its promoters expecting to draw much trade from Idaho after May 18 when legalized beer will be on sale there.

Marsters Dies From Injury in Auto Collision

EUGENE, Ore., March 24—(AP)—A Carlos Marsters, Portland real estate man, died in a hospital here today from injuries suffered a week ago when his automobile collided with a state police car near Halsey.

Many Pupils at Salem Heights On Honor Roll

SALLEM HEIGHTS, March 24—Cecile Wiegand, principal of the Salem Heights grade school today announced the names of those on the honor roll for the third quarter.

Grand Jury Indictment

—(AP)—A Carlos Marsters, Portland real estate man, died in a hospital here today from injuries suffered a week ago when his automobile collided with a state police car near Halsey.

Lower Basis of Beer Sale Fees Is Now Favored

PORTLAND, Ore., March 24—(AP)—License fees were revised definitely downward in a new city ordinance to regulate the sale of beer.

Old Applications For Beer Vending Permits Not Kept

Would-be beer vendors in Salem who applied for licenses last November will have to file new applications in case the city commission passes an ordinance permitting the sale of 3.2 per cent beer here.

The Call Board

By OLIVE M. DOAK

WARNER BROS. ELGINORE Today—Richard Dix in "The Great Jasper."

Mickey Mouse NOTES

Right at this minute my ears are burning with criticism. Don't think I'm scared to take it—cause the more of that—the better I'll know exactly what you want on the programs.

SCHOOL BUDGET UP FOR SCANNING SOON

(Continued from page 1) ... budget. The appropriation for this year is $11,775. The district tax levy under the six per cent limitation for the year 1932-34 was $195,984.57.

WEST SALEM 'DADS' PLAN BEER CONTROL

Finding no liquor control provisions in either the city charter or ordinances, West Salem aldermen Monday night discussed possible regulations. At this time the ordinance committee expects to decide on a bill to be submitted at the next West Salem council meeting, April 3.

Marsters Dies From Injury in Auto Collision

EUGENE, Ore., March 24—(AP)—A Carlos Marsters, Portland real estate man, died in a hospital here today from injuries suffered a week ago when his automobile collided with a state police car near Halsey.

Many Pupils at Salem Heights On Honor Roll

SALLEM HEIGHTS, March 24—Cecile Wiegand, principal of the Salem Heights grade school today announced the names of those on the honor roll for the third quarter.

Lower Basis of Beer Sale Fees Is Now Favored

PORTLAND, Ore., March 24—(AP)—License fees were revised definitely downward in a new city ordinance to regulate the sale of beer.

Old Applications For Beer Vending Permits Not Kept

Would-be beer vendors in Salem who applied for licenses last November will have to file new applications in case the city commission passes an ordinance permitting the sale of 3.2 per cent beer here.

$10,000 IN SCRIP VOTED, SILVERTON

(Continued from page 1) ... torf money. The scrip is to be redeemable on or before December 31, 1934.

Those opposing the scrip movement stated that they feared some merchants might become loaded with the paper money and be unable to use it in payment for bills from out of town.

SCHOOL BUDGET UP FOR SCANNING SOON

(Continued from page 1) ... budget. The appropriation for this year is $11,775. The district tax levy under the six per cent limitation for the year 1932-34 was $195,984.57.

WEST SALEM 'DADS' PLAN BEER CONTROL

Finding no liquor control provisions in either the city charter or ordinances, West Salem aldermen Monday night discussed possible regulations. At this time the ordinance committee expects to decide on a bill to be submitted at the next West Salem council meeting, April 3.

Marsters Dies From Injury in Auto Collision

EUGENE, Ore., March 24—(AP)—A Carlos Marsters, Portland real estate man, died in a hospital here today from injuries suffered a week ago when his automobile collided with a state police car near Halsey.

Many Pupils at Salem Heights On Honor Roll

SALLEM HEIGHTS, March 24—Cecile Wiegand, principal of the Salem Heights grade school today announced the names of those on the honor roll for the third quarter.

Lower Basis of Beer Sale Fees Is Now Favored

PORTLAND, Ore., March 24—(AP)—License fees were revised definitely downward in a new city ordinance to regulate the sale of beer.

Old Applications For Beer Vending Permits Not Kept

Would-be beer vendors in Salem who applied for licenses last November will have to file new applications in case the city commission passes an ordinance permitting the sale of 3.2 per cent beer here.

MELLON RETURNS TO PRIVATE LIFE

NEW YORK, March 24—(AP)—Andrew W. Mellon, private citizen now, after serving his country for 13 years, came back to America today "glad to be free" of the cares of public office.

But although today was his 78th birthday, the erect former ambassador to Great Britain made it clear he has no thoughts of pursuing an inactive life.

EVICTON PROTEST HELD UNNECESSARY

HARLAN, Iowa, March 24—(AP)—Four hundred farmers who stormed the Shelby county courthouse protesting the threatened eviction of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCarthy from the farm dispersed late tonight after an apparently satisfactory agreement had been reached.

WEST SALEM 'DADS' PLAN BEER CONTROL

Finding no liquor control provisions in either the city charter or ordinances, West Salem aldermen Monday night discussed possible regulations. At this time the ordinance committee expects to decide on a bill to be submitted at the next West Salem council meeting, April 3.

Marsters Dies From Injury in Auto Collision

EUGENE, Ore., March 24—(AP)—A Carlos Marsters, Portland real estate man, died in a hospital here today from injuries suffered a week ago when his automobile collided with a state police car near Halsey.

Many Pupils at Salem Heights On Honor Roll

SALLEM HEIGHTS, March 24—Cecile Wiegand, principal of the Salem Heights grade school today announced the names of those on the honor roll for the third quarter.

Lower Basis of Beer Sale Fees Is Now Favored

PORTLAND, Ore., March 24—(AP)—License fees were revised definitely downward in a new city ordinance to regulate the sale of beer.

Old Applications For Beer Vending Permits Not Kept

Would-be beer vendors in Salem who applied for licenses last November will have to file new applications in case the city commission passes an ordinance permitting the sale of 3.2 per cent beer here.

MELLON RETURNS TO PRIVATE LIFE

NEW YORK, March 24—(AP)—Andrew W. Mellon, private citizen now, after serving his country for 13 years, came back to America today "glad to be free" of the cares of public office.

But although today was his 78th birthday, the erect former ambassador to Great Britain made it clear he has no thoughts of pursuing an inactive life.

EVICTON PROTEST HELD UNNECESSARY

HARLAN, Iowa, March 24—(AP)—Four hundred farmers who stormed the Shelby county courthouse protesting the threatened eviction of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCarthy from the farm dispersed late tonight after an apparently satisfactory agreement had been reached.

WEST SALEM 'DADS' PLAN BEER CONTROL

Finding no liquor control provisions in either the city charter or ordinances, West Salem aldermen Monday night discussed possible regulations. At this time the ordinance committee expects to decide on a bill to be submitted at the next West Salem council meeting, April 3.

Marsters Dies From Injury in Auto Collision

EUGENE, Ore., March 24—(AP)—A Carlos Marsters, Portland real estate man, died in a hospital here today from injuries suffered a week ago when his automobile collided with a state police car near Halsey.

Many Pupils at Salem Heights On Honor Roll

SALLEM HEIGHTS, March 24—Cecile Wiegand, principal of the Salem Heights grade school today announced the names of those on the honor roll for the third quarter.

Lower Basis of Beer Sale Fees Is Now Favored

PORTLAND, Ore., March 24—(AP)—License fees were revised definitely downward in a new city ordinance to regulate the sale of beer.

Old Applications For Beer Vending Permits Not Kept

Would-be beer vendors in Salem who applied for licenses last November will have to file new applications in case the city commission passes an ordinance permitting the sale of 3.2 per cent beer here.

WARNER BROS. EL SINORE Mickey Mouse Matinee 1 p.m. Special Feature Harold Lloyd in "Feet First" on the stage Rose Lee Nusbaum

The Great Jasper Sun.-Mon.-Tues. HELL BREAKS LOOSE! On High St. ... Hundreds flee for lives... as jungle beasts run amuck! And facing it all... The Lion Man! See the Live Monkey Jiggle!

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL TODAY and SUNDAY 2 BIG FIRST RUN FEATURES It'll Raise Goose-Pimples on Your Funny Bone! WILL ROGERS in his funniest picture Down to Earth with Dorothy Jordan Irene Rich AND ON THE STAGE IN PERSON a second Will Rogers GEORGE E. NEWTON formerly of the Tame Fox Company, with his rope and WHI Rogers chatter ALSO CHARLEY SCHULTZ AND HIS TRAINED MULE "DANGER" A Risk of Laughter