Society News and Club Affairs.

M y e r s - Claggett Nuptials Told Friday

In a beautiful ceremony solemnized Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, Miss Maxine Myers became the bride of Charles Claggett, son of Mrs. Cal Patton. The ceremony was read by Rev. Fred C. Taylor of Rose City church in Portland, in the presence of about 50

Preceding the ceremony Miss Yvonne Smith sang "I Love You Truly", and then played Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal party took its place.

Mrs. Deryl Myers was matron of honor and Lloyd Claggett, brother of the groom, acted as best

Following the impressive ceremony a reception was held in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Claggett. Mrs. Clara Myers, grandmother of Mrs. Claggett, and Mrs. Cal Patton presided at the urns. Those assisting with serving were Miss Phyllis Day, Miss Kreta Janz, Miss Isobel George, Miss Virginia Newland, Miss Rita Claggett, Miss Kathryn Laughridge, Miss Cynthia Delano, and Mrs. Willard Brown of Honolulu.

Mr. and Mrs. Claggett left immediately following the reception for a short wedding trip. They will return early next week to make their home in Salem where Mr. Claggett is in business, and where both as popular members of the younger circles of the city will be welcomed by a large group of friends.

Women's Day Opens Golf Season Friday

Mrs. F. C. Ritner was reelected captain of the Salem Golf club Friday when about 50 women met for the first women's day of the spring season on the club links. A no host luncheon was enjoyed at noon. Play was informal and awards were made for "blind" scores, these being drawn by Mrs.

Sephus Starr and Mrs. Robin Day. spring season within the next two bride of Dr. Ivan Bennett Sunday, and it is anticipated that the sea-

Priscilla Club Guest Of Mrs. Dunsford

attractive one o'clock luncheon followed by an informal afternoon for a pretty decorative effect.

group April 6.

Pattern

This season, you know, a yoke, you'll still have an extremely trager played a plano solo. smart effect. The bodice closing adds buttons for a chic note, and 20 at the home of Anne Bevens. a plain skirt is in keeping with the new silhouette.

Pattern 2578 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Sixe 16 requires 31/2 yards 39 inch fabric. Illustrated step - by - step instructions included with this pattern.

Send 15 cents is coins or stampe (coins preferred), for this pattern. Write plainly your name, address colorful pages of lovely Paris-inspired models for every spring need this beautiful book shows how to be this at avery hour of the day. Every style is practical, and easy to make. There are models for the larger figure, and pages and style number. Be sere to state size wanted. Send for the new spring fashion book. Containing 32 of delightful junior and kiddle styles. Price of extalog, 15 cents. Catalog and pattern together 25 cents. Address all mail orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 248 West 17th street, New York

FILM FAMILY VACATION BOUND

Sailing from New York on the liner Conte di Savoia for a vacation in Europe, Norma Shearer, famous screen star, poses with her director pushand, Irving Thalberg, and their son, Irving, Jr. This is the first published photo of the screen couple's child. They plan an extensive tour of European capitals before returning late in the Spring to resume

Shower Honors Mrs. Payne, Whose Wedding Will be Affair of Sunday

Veterans' Associations to Meet at Woodburn Church April 6; Rebekahs to Entertain work club composed of energetic

Bernice Grabenhorst. A pot luck

luncheon was enjoyed at noon and the day was spent at quilting for oline Susannah Fabry, Alice Stapleton, Bernice Grabenhorst, Car-

were Mrs. Charles Adams of King-

wood Heights and Myrna Bonney,

Alice Greer and Ruth Stapleton, afternoon. Mrs. K. W. Dalton received first prize and Mrs. C. W.

Sawyer the consolation. Mrs.

Grace Farrington of Newport, was

Woodburn - The Wednesday afternoon bridge club was entertained by Mrs. Henry D. Miller

Mrs. Blaine McCord received the

Will Dance Tuesday

The Tillicum Dancing club will

Reserves will leave the school house this morning at 10 o'clock for a hike. This is being taken in connection with the nature pro-

Mrs. S. P. Kimball entertained members of the Round Up club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs.

E. Hartley will be hostess to the

Mrs. Ruth Crites and Miss Marnie Crites spent several days in Portland this week and attended

"Tattle Tales" Wednesday night.

They returned to Salem Thurs-

upon this spring.

group in two weeks.

weekend.

Hill of Portland.

a special guest.

Tillicum Club

Independence - A pre-nuptial surprise shower was given Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. ladies of the neighborhood and Plans will be organized for the Alice Payne who will become the known as the "Sew So" quilting club met recently at the home of weeks, according to Mrs. Ritner, March 26. Mrs. Clara Williams, Mrs. Helen Walker, and Mrs. Kate son will be one of the most enjoy- Walker were hostesses for the afable and successful for some time. fair which took place at the home the hostess and cutting quilt of Mrs. Clara Williams. The color | blocks. scheme was in pink and green, and the table for the 1 o'clock luncheon was decerated in the sey, secretary, and Maude Adams form of a church aisle with a doll | reporter. Mrs. George Dunsford enter- bride and bridesmaid coming tained the Priscilla club with an down it. The ends of the table club hostess on April 12.

After luncheon bridge was en- Sealey, Jin. Clark, Maude Adams, at her home Thursday. Potted joyed for the afternoon with Mrs. Ellen Lyons, Lucille Greer. Doris plants and daffodils were used Ethel Skinner winning high score. Sweet, Elise Fabry, Emma Hilfik-When card playing was over er, Hilda Slater, Mary Van Lyde-Mrs. Raymond Walsh of Eu- the kitchen door opened and little graf, Hilda Allen, Sarah Key, Cargene, Miss Juana Holmes and Gae Payne, daughter of Mrs. Miss Priscilla Fry were special Payne, came in drawing a little guests for the afternoon. Mrs. W. pink wagon, on which was loaded ris Emory, Lena Hilfiker, Aneta F. Buchner will be hostess to the the gifts. She was dressed all in pink.

Guests for the shower were: The honor guest, Mrs. Alice Payne, Mrs. Fay Mott, Mrs. Thel- all of Pringle. ma Talent, Mrs. Marion Harwood, Mrs. Marie Mix. Mrs. Alice Robinson, Eleanor Calbreath, Mrs. Ann DeArmond, Mrs. Winifred Mack, Mrs. Josephine Reid, Mrs. Naomi Craven, Mrs. Lora Butler, Mrs. Ethel Skinner, and the hostesses, Mrs. Clara Williams, Mrs. Helen Walker, and Mrs. Kate Walker.

Woodburn. - Members of I. I. Stevens relief corps held their social meeting at the home of Miss Mabel Jackson, Thursday. Quilting and sewing was enjoyed prize for high score contract. and a pot luck dinner was served. The next meeting will be held Thurs_ay, April 6, when the Veterans' association of Marion county will hold an all-day meeting at the Methodist church. Members of all atriotic organizations are meet for its regular monthly invited to be present. A large dance Tuesday night in Castillian attendance from Silverton and Salem and other communities is Keizer-Mrs. C. C. Cole was hostess for an all day quilting bee Thursday. Present were Mrs. J. A. Reynolds, Mrs. Roy Melson, Mrs. Paul Pierce, Mrs. J. C. Ackman, Mrs. Arthur Cummings, Mrs. J. E. Putnam, Lois Keefer, Irma Keefer, Rae Kinkaid, Mrs. M. F. Bliven, Mrs. Ben Claggett, Mrs. W. E. Savage, Mrs. Truman Cummings, Mrs. Willard Savage, Mrs. G. N. Thompson and Mrs. C. C.

Guests from Salem were Mrs. C. E. Bowen, Mrs. D. C. Schomaker, Mrs. A. F. North and Mrs. Lucy St. Clair.

Hubbard - Meta Friend entertained the Pink and Lavender club at her home Thursday afternoon. Frieda Popinga played a pitie ends, and perky puffs are ano solo; a group of children essentially important, but have from the third and fourth grades you ever seen all three so clever- dramatized "The Hole in the ly combined before? Omit the Dike" under the direction of puffs for a sleeveless frock and Frances Friend; and Eilene Bon-

The next meeting will be April

Bethel-Mrs. J. M. Nichols and Miss Gladys Morgan were joint hostesses for a social meeting of the Bethel Dorcas club Wednesday afternoon. Guests were Mrs. Margaret Montgomery, Mrs. Harry A. Rowe and daughter Kathryn, and Mrs. P. A. King.

Hubbard. - The Rebekahs will have a social evening Tuesday, March 28, when they will entertain grests from Aurora and Needy: Ida Garland, Edith Painter and Caroline Smolinisky compose the committee in charge.

Talbot - The Talbot Women's club wei at the home of Mrs. Claud Johnson Wednesday afternoon. Bertha Olson was a guest of the club. The club has entered the rural club house building contest and is working part of the time on its 'Ideal' country home.

Nile Club Plans Bridge Benefit

One of the largest affairs of this coming week will be the on Fairmont hill.

Funds from the event will be used to give aid to the large number of children whom the Nile club is assisting either in the Shrine hospital or those who have been returned to their homes and are still in need of assistance for proper food and such like things.

Mrs. R. W. Hans Seitz has charge of the publicity for the benefit and committees will be announced upon the return of Mrs. George Burnett, president of the club.

Mrs. P. M. Tallman Entertains Club

Mrs. P. M. Tallman entertained for a group of friends at her home on Myrtle avenue, Thursday afternoon. Bridge was in play during the afternoon with high score being awarded to Mrs. C. W. Standish and second high to Mrs. Otto Shieman. Mrs. Tallman's rooms were very prettily decorated with daffodils and spring flowers. At a late hour an attractive lunch was served with Mrs. Schieman assisting the hostess.

Guests included Mrs. C. R. Pritchard, Mrs. Glener Rice, Mrs. Otto Shieman, Mrs. C. W. Standish, Mrs. E. A. Donnelly, Mrs. Fred Hester, Mrs. James Nash.

Crescendo Club Plans Benefit

A gay musical event of this coming week will be the production of the "Crescendo" club at the high school auditorium. The money earned from this will be added to the fund which is being created with which to secure a grand plane for the auditorium of the high school. Pringle - The newly organized

An hour's program has been planned and will be given entirely by the Crescendo club members. The performance has been entitled: "The Swan Song."

Progressive Dinner Is Gay Event

Officers of the group are Edna One of the gay affairs of the Sperling president, Minnie Wiltweek was that of Friday night when a group of 10 couples of Salem met for a progressive din-Mary Van Lydegraf will be next ner and then completed the evening with cards at five tables at man Steed.

Guests called for part of the dinner courses at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wooten, and more at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Scellars and then completed the event at the Steed home.

Bridge Clubs Begin Bonney and Edna Sperling, Guests "Closed" Season

Even though the days be chill and it appears that winter is still Salem Heights. - Mrs. Rav with us with summer a far dis-Austin of the Royal Court aparttant dream, yet one unmistakable sign of spring is at hand. A bridge ments, was hostess to the Salem club is closing its season. Heights bridge club Thursday

The first club to close for the year will be that which meets with Mrs. Elmer Daue Friday afternoon for a one o'clock luncheon and that followed by bridge.

Sunday morning the primary department of the First Congregational Sunday school will have as its special guests Vinton and Vernon Scott, twin sons of Dr. and Mrs. J. Vinton Scott, who will tell the young members of the department about their childhood in China.

Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck will entertain members of the Salem Women's Press club at her home Tuesday afternoon. A 1:30 o'clock des-sert luncheon will precede an afternoon of bridge. Among the dinner parties that will be observed for this dance

Miss Dorothy Alexander has will a 32 cover no host dinner been visiting friends in Hillsboro at the home of Mrs. Ida Godfrey. during the past week of spring The seventh grace Parrish Girl

Miss Roberta Mills will spend the weekend in Portland as a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Price. ject which the triangle is working Miss Vivian Schroeder of Portland is the weekend guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Duncan. Mrs. Elmer Wooten was among the Salem people to attend "Tattle Tales" Thursday night in Port-

Teacher Policy is Not Reversed For Was Never Defined

Mrs. George Burnett has been LIBERTY, March 24 - "Conspending the past two weeks in trary to printed reports, the Lib-Seattle and Portland visiting relerty school board did not reverse atives. She is expected back this any former policy in selection of its teachers this year," Joe Wil-Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Spaulding liams, chairman of the board, dehad as their dinner guests Friday clared today.
night Mrs. Walker and Fentress The board

The board this week reelected all teachers, one of whom married

Easter Specials

$1. and $1.50 Ringlet End

Marcels and 25c and up Finger 25c and up

SUTREME PERMANENT WAVES

Oregon Beauty Shop 426-7-8 Oregon Bldg.

INDEPENDENCE, March 24-The annual district meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star comprising Amity, Falls City, Dallas and Independence was held in the Masonie hall here Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. J. Scellers night. The worthy grand matron of Oregon, Mrs. Anna M. Ellis, made her official visit and was accompanied by Miss Nellie Mc-Kinley, grand secretary, and Mrs.

Reader, of Portland. Other grand officers present were Dr. Edith I. Phillips, grand conductress from Portland, Mrs. Monnie Hauser, grand associate matron of Salem, Mrs. Hattie Boyle, grand warder, of Portland, Mrs. Lottie H. McIntosh, grand organist, of this city and a number of past grand officers and matrons and patrons of surrounding chapters.

Adah chapter had charge of the opening and closing exercises, Amity did escort duty, Falls City exemplified the ballot while Dallas put on the initiatory work. The grand officers and other good of the order. Refreshments were served to about 200 guests. Mrs. Ellis was presented with a beautiful pair of hand embroidered pillow cases, coming from the four chapters present, Mrs. Margaret Hayter, a past grand matron, of Dallas, making the presentation.

during the current school year; a news story indicated that the board had previously gone on record against married teachers. This is not so, Mr. Williams states.

"The board did not go on record two years ago against hiring of married teachers," Mr. Wilgoing instructors were married, matrons. and the incoming single women.

WEST SALEM, March 24 — and Talk club met at an all day I. R. Beck of Dallas, county session with Mrs. J. R. Brown agent, and Mrs. Charles Bilyeu, to sew for the Red Cross and encounty chairman of the Red joy a pot luck noon luncheon, Cross were the speakers at a Thursday. Their next regular "Gardening" meeting held at the monthly meeting will be held at city hall Thursday night. In West Salem, vacant lots are offered for 13, with Mrs. Lester Brannen in gardening purposes to needy families and seed for the plantcharge of the entertainment. ings will be provided by the Red Cross. Mr. Beck gave the best District Officers methods of vegetable gardening workings of the Red Cross. Charles Batt, whose wife died very suddenly last week of heart trouble, has moved to Wilder, Idaho, to make his home. He has three sons living near there. plimenting the anniversary of Mrs. Lacey. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dymler, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lantz, Dean and Gordon Lacey and the hosts.

Kite flying is in vogue now among the younger set and Milton McFarland takes the cake for expertness in that line. With the visiting members spoke for the has made some wonderful flights of the refreshment hour. that have required expert manipulation.

> Wood Cut for Needy Many cords of wood are piled upon the property where stands the city hall, all donated, cut. hauled and piled by volunteer workers, all be devoted to the use of the needy in this area.

Community club will be held only one later was divorced. Monday evening : the Community hall with entertainment by the Salem chamber of commerce.

A cha. airgly appointed tea was held at the attractive home of Mrs. William T. Grier Tuesliams stated; adding that it was day afternoon when Mrs. Grier merely coincidence that when a opened he home to the members complete change of teachers was of the Etokta club, being assisted made two years ago all the out- by an octette of prominent Salem

Members of the Kingwood Tea

the home of Mrs. Forrester April

Of Woodcraft Visit and Mrs. Bilyeu explained the Monmouth Session

MONMOUTH, March 24 - At the meeting of Sunbeam Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, Tuesday night, district officers addressed A pleasant birthday dinner par- the members, Mrs. Beatrice Shoty was enjoyed at the Ray La- doin, Corvallis, district organizer; cey home Tuesday evening, com- Mrs. T. D. Pomeroy, Independence district magician; and Mrs. Clair Winegar, Independence, a member of the district and local woodcraft home council, gave talks.

> Mrs. F. E. Murdock and Mrs. R E. Derby had charge of the program which included musical numbers and readings, Mrs. J. F. Moreland, Mrs. J. E. Winegar and Mrs. Sheldon Cody were in charge

Announcement was made that woodcraft thimble club was contemplated for organization, all interested to meet Thursday with Mrs. Harry Sharrow.

Retiring as justice of the peace after eight years, Fred Kowalski of Brownsville, Tex., found he had The postponed meeting of the married 400 couples, of whom

Permanent Wave $1.00

Oil Permanent $3.00 Shampoo, Finger Wave, Manicures and Marcel 25c each Beauty Maid Shoppe Over Steusloff Market Tel. 4486

West Salem News

AMITY, March 24. - At the special meeting of the union high school board, Prof. A. N. Arnold was hired again for the next school term. C. N. Freeman of Portland, the architect for the gymnasium of the school, was in town and made a check up of the condition of the building. A few minor repairs were found needed and M. T. Henderson took care of the work. At the regular meeting of the Industry Rebekah lodge, No. 95, a 25-year veteran jewel was presented to Mrs. Clara Broadwell. The award was presented by A.

B. Watt, in behalf of the order. The East Side sewing club held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. J. W. Versteeg, Thursday afternoon. The time was spent in piecing blocks for a quilt and other needle work for the hostess. Music was furnished by Miss Hazel Versteeg. The next meeting will be at 'he home of Mrs. Lottie Tollman, March 30.

THE NEW COMEDY THE TOWN'S TALKING ABOUT Last Chance Tonight Admission Curtain 8:15 p.m.

"SALEM'S INTIMATE

THEATRE" Chemeketa at Liberty

UMPEK5 JUNIORS

Wool, wool-crepe or jersey for the jumpers; organdy, silk or gingham for the guimpes-the shops are showing them all. Anne Adams Patterns are for juniors and kiddies and adults and appear every day in this newspaper.

> THE MODELS ILLUSTRATED may be ordered through our Pattern Department. All are available in sizes 12 to 20. 15c each. Turn to the pattern feature for further ordering information.

school and college and wear about town . . . and, like all high fashions, featured in a delightful variety of

