JUNGLE THRILL IDEA BROUGHT INTO CITY

Crabbe, Champion Swimmer Has Lead in Photoplay At Elsinore Today

"King of the Jungle," animal thrill-drama which brings Buster Crabbe, world-champion swimmer to the screen in the role of the Lion Man, begins its runs at the Elsinore theatre today.

Crabbe is the central character in a story of animals in their native surroundings of a circus. He is cast as a youth who, orphaned in the jungle at an early age, grows up in company with a pack of lions. Captured and brought to the United States, he becomes head trainer in a circus.

The picture comes to a breath-taking climax when the orphaned animals break loose from their cages and stalk through city streets, leaving behind them a trail of blood and ruin.

A glimpse of the action in "King of the Jungle" now showing at the Elsinore with Buster Crabbe and Frances Dee.

STRANGE INTERLUDE IS BILLED APRIL 2

One of the most interesting announcements from Salem theatres for some time was made yesterday by the management of the Elsinore, to the effect that Eugene O'Neill's great play, "Strange Interlude," would be shown in its talking picture version at the Elsinore for a three-day showing, starting Sunday, April 2.

As a play, "Strange Interlude" has been the most discussed and praised stage work in history... and in its picture version it reaches heights never available on the stage.

Norma Shearer and Clark Gable are co-starred and have the assistance of a stellar supporting cast.

By all means, check this picture as one of the "must see" shows of the season. Regular prices will prevail.

'DOWN TO EARTH' IS HOLLYWOOD FEATURE

Back to his native Oklahoma again after filming his recent pictures against various foreign locales, Will Rogers has the star role in "Down to Earth," his new Fox offering which opens today at the Hollywood theatre.

With the recital of a business man's efforts to battle his dwindling income against his family's social ambitions and extravagance as its theme, the picture is being hailed everywhere as the most timely as well as the funniest production of the noted humorist's career.

Rogers fans will recall the hectic adventures of Pike Peters and his family abroad in "They Had To See Paris," his first talking picture. In "Down to Earth" the whimsical "Pike" reappears after his trip, once more guiding the destinies of his oil company.

SLIGHT FLURRY IN PRUNES IS RECORDED

2-Cent Price Continues in Report; 20 Tons Packed in Small Boxes

LIBERTY, March 25.—A little flurry in the prune market was seen here lately when a New York buyer spent several days here for the purchase of a four-carload lot direct from growers. Prices has not changed appreciably, but still hovers around the two-cent point for ungraded lots. Prunes are said to be quite well sold out now by growers.

The Jory Packing company handled the grading and packing. Twenty tons of the lot was packed into 1600 25-pound wooden boxes and some reacked after processing. The packed fruit was hauled from the plant to a Portland dock for consignment to New York by boat.

The work was undertaken at rather short notice, making it necessary to do some late night work in order to get the fruit out on time.

CYNICISM ABOUT LOVE Banned in Serial "Mary Faith" Coming in STATESMAN COLUMNS

In an age when young girls—particularly those who must get out and toil for a living—are supposed to be veneered with a bright, hard cynicism about love and life, Beatrice Burton has done a serial with a heroine who is demure and full of confidence in the essential whiteness of men's hearts.

"Of course," Miss Burton says, "my 'Mary Faith' is perhaps a bit more trusting and naive than the average, but that's just the type of girl I wanted to portray. I hope most hundreds like her. They still believe in Prince Charming. They still are sure that if you love long enough, the wildest playboy, the most fickle adventurer, will turn out all right."

"She won in the end. A great many Mary Faiths do win, the copy-book cynics to the contrary notwithstanding. There was good in Kim—a great deal of it. Find me a man you think hasn't any good in him, and I'll show you a man you don't thoroughly understand. And Mary Faith salvaged Kim's good qualities."

"Mary Faith," by the author of "Lovejoy" and "The Flapper Wife" thus unfolds another very modern and very human story. This time the girl has her first contact with men through an office where she works. Kim, she thinks, fulfills her whole ideal of a husband—but she hasn't seen the dangerous side of him.

He is as mercurial in his affections as he is in his business life. Up and down. He can't see being tied down to one woman—evanes Mary Faith. But with philosophy of marriage-making that is a novelty in this time, she overcomes her problems.

Don't miss the first thrilling chapter of "Mary Faith" starting next Wednesday in The Statesman.

TELEPHONE SHARES, DU PONT GO LOWER

NEW YORK, March 25—(AP)—Stocks made little pretense at activity today, sliding off slightly early but meeting better support as shorts covered for the weekend. Turnover amounted to only $76,400 shares.

American Telephone dropped a couple of points, then halted its loss. Du Pont bogged down 3 1/2 and closed 1 3/4 lower. Allied Chemical, whose directors meet for action on the $1.50 quarterly dividend early next week regained two-thirds of a 1 1/2 point dip. National Biscuit, Procter & Gamble, American Can, Westinghouse, National Biscuit and some coppers were down fractions at the close. The farm and beverage groups were firm.

Rails moved narrowly. Freight loadings for the week ended March 18 were 11,899 cars above the previous total, which was for the banking holiday week. Shipments of merchandise and grains were higher, though fuel traffic declined in conformance with seasonal trends. Carrier shares averaged fractionally lower, but their reaction was slight. Norfolk & Western dropped about 5 points.

South Carolina highway patrolmen stopped 50,000 motorists in 1932 to warn them of minor traffic infractions.
