Onion Advance too Rapid to Confirm Orders: Live Chickens Stronger

PORTLAND, March 28-(AP) in a scramble for supplies today with the threat to buy even though the price is advanced. The journal said "organized interests have been hammering the local price . . . but have been defeated by supply and demand." The last session of the produće exchange showed extras unchanged at 18 cents, but there has been little demand for such offerings. On the other hand, standards and prime firsts were each up one-half cent, and firsts advanced one cent a pound. Butterfat again turned firm and in spots was higher. Market for eggs was generally without change. Undergrades continue the chief factor against the price, Co-ops were maintaining their price generally despite the talk of recessions. All lines of live chickens were showing a strong tone locally. Receipts from the Portland territory were scant but there was an increasing volume of brotlers from western Washington which was holding prices in check. While reports suggest that $1.15 has been paid for several carloads of onions at a west side
