Farewell Dinner is Compliment to Matron

Mrs. Mildred Waters, who is leaving shortly to make her home in California after several years in the motor vehicle department of the secretary of state's office, was the inspiration for a charming dinner party Tuesday night at the Bohemian. Gayly toned place cards suggestive of spring marked covers for 51 people. Bowls arranged with daffodils and fern and green and yellow tapers completed a lovely table decoration.

At the close of dinner amid expressions of appreciation from her fellow staff members, Mrs. Waters was presented with a farewell token from the department. Present were Mrs. Waters, guest of honor and Miss Alene Phillips, Miss Audra Winship, Miss Viola Lottis, Miss Ruth Cole, Miss Vivian Lettingwell, Miss Dorothy Erickson, Miss Velma Rulinger, Miss Lenora Heenan, Miss Lena Merrington, Miss Wilma Gleason, Miss Frances Feller, Miss Elaine Steingrube, Miss Elizabeth Schotthofer, Miss Lena Cox, Miss Hazel Harper, Miss Pauline Eyerly, Miss Bernice Humphreys, Miss Dorothy Bjork, Miss Mildred Mulvey, Miss Rose Peterson, Miss Ruda Quamme, Miss Grace Quackenbush, Miss Hester Hillpot, Miss Kathryn Reinhart, Miss Louise Bryan, Miss LaVern Kantner, Miss Cora Talkington, Miss Cora Thrapp, Miss Mary Chadwick, Mrs. Lila Bier, Mrs. Ruth Montgomery, Mrs. Charlotte Fike, Mrs. Bertha Bergman, Mrs. Sam Burkhardt, Mrs. Lily Vaughn, Mrs. Lot's Robbins, Mrs. May Moores and Mrs. M. G. Kittredge.

Cards and Jigsaw Evening Arranged

Members of the student body of Capital Business college will entertain this evening with a card and jigsaw social evening in the auditorium of the college. Spring flowers are being used for a decorative note for the guest room and will also be used for the service table.

General arrangements are in charge of H. H. Clement, president of the student body. He is being assisted by a committee on arrangements, Miss Mildred Kissling, John H. Farrar, Miss Jean Woodard, H. A. Leeper and J. Richard Rentfro; entertainment, Miss Colene Mennis, Mrs. Ruth Norris, Paul Forrette; refreshments, Miss Winifred Rowland, Miss Mabel Jacobsen, Miss Margaret Marland, Miss Helen Holford and Harry Erickson.

Nancy Thielsen Will Direct Broadcast

Miss Nancy Thielsen of Salem will direct the Albany college Polyphonic choir in its third radio concert at 11:30 o'clock Saturday over station KOIN. This concert is one of the six college concerts sponsored by the Portland Council of Churches during Lent.

Members will include Cherubim Song (Bortnyanski), Hymn to the Trinity (Gretchaninoff), Gallia (Gounod), Victory (Alsatian Easter carol arranged by Harvey Gaul), Christ is Risen (Kapolyoff), Legend (Tchaikovsky), Morning Hymn (Henschel).

Lincoln.—An interesting affair of Sunday was the joint birthday dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Heyden of Salem in honor of Mr. Heyden, whose birthday was 28, his two daughters, Mrs. H. J. Nelson of Lincoln and Mrs. Paul Fuhrer of Salem, whose birthdays were March 27 and 23, and a granddaughter, Miss Helen Neiger of Lincoln, whose birthday was March 22.

Skinner-Bennett Nuptials Pretty Ceremony at Independence Home

Odd Fellows and Rebekahs at Jefferson are Jointly Feted; old Timers Gather

Independence.—Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Skinner, was united in marriage to Dr. Ivan Bennett, son of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Bennett of Lebanon, at the home of the bride's parents, Sunday at 2 o'clock.

Miss Ruth Bedford of Salem played a piano solo, after which she accompanied Mrs. M. J. Butler, who sang, "Beloved, It is Morn." Miss Bedford played the wedding march.

The bride was charmingly dressed in a gray traveling suit, trimmed with gray fur, and carried black accessories. A reception followed the ceremony in the dining room, which was attractively decorated in white and yellow, a luncheon was served. At the table on which were tall yellow tapers and a centerpiece of plum blossoms, Mrs. Joe Smith, Mrs. O. D. Butler and Mrs. J. W. Smith, poured, and Miss Eleanor Calbreath, Miss Doris Krieg, Mrs. Wayne Mack, Mrs. Elsie Bolt, Mrs. Ivan DeArmond, Mrs. M. J. Butler and Mrs. Clarence Harwood served.

Guests included Rev. and Mrs. Charles Bennett of Lebanon, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith of Suver, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Mack, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith of Suver, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harwood, Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Butler, Dr. and Mrs. George Knott, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tallent of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Craven, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Mix, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan DeArmond of Suver, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Mort, Mrs. Frederick Krieg, Mrs. O. D. Butler, Mrs. Doris Riddell of Monmouth, Mrs. Elsie Bolt, Miss Doris Krieg, Miss Eleanor Calbreath, Miss Ruth Bedford of Salem, Miss Dora Hall of Monmouth, Miss Nellie Dale Sneed of Marshfield, Little Alice Elaine Smith and Gae Payne, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Skinner. The young couple left shortly after the reception for a wedding trip to Portland. They will reside here at the corner of C and Second streets.

Waldo Hills.—Mrs. Edson Comstock had invited members of the Silverton Methodist choir to her home Monday night for a practice and social hour, so great was the surprise of Fred Baker when the party proved to be a surprise for him and his wife on their 13th wedding anniversary. J. B. Alfred in behalf of the choir presented the honor guests with a large, lovely pewter pitcher.

Mr. Baker is director of the M. E. church concert orchestra.

Independence.—The Sigma Theta chapter of Delphians met at the home of Mrs. A. B. Robinson Monday to study French opera, with Mrs. R. D. Elliott directing the entire lesson. Mrs. R. D. Elliott and Mrs. E. M. Wunder played a piano duet; Mrs. Elliott played a piano solo; Mrs. Robinson showed several pictures of main scenes from operas, and Mrs. Hoag told of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln as told her by an eye witness of the tragedy.

Woodburn.—Mrs. Frank Aicher entertained with a birthday dinner Sunday for Joseph Aicher, who celebrated his 70th birthday. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. William Harris and family of Seio, Mrs. Augusta Nierring, Sr. of Portland, Joseph Theis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aicher, and the guest of honor, Joseph Aicher.

In the afternoon about 60 friends gathered and the time was spent at cards and later lunch was served by Mrs. Aicher, assisted by Mrs. Fred Reiner, Jr., Mrs. Arista Nendel, Mrs. Fred Eder, Mrs. Frank Adelman, Mrs. Sebastian Aicher, Miss Clara Eder and Miss Cecelia Pranti.

Woodburn.—A large attendance was present at the silver tea given by the women of the Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday afternoon as a benefit for the Ladies' Aid society. Mrs. G. H. Alden of Salem told of her trip to the orient and exhibited many curios and costumes. Peter Larson sang a solo, accompanied by Miss Nelma Saylor, and Miss Marybelle Adams gave two piano numbers, one composed by her grandmother, Mrs. Carrie B. Adams of Portland.

Mrs. Florence Goulet and Mrs. Carrie Young presided at the teas and Miss Beatrice Brown and Miss Lois Swisher assisted with serving.

Turner.—Victoria chapter No. 76, Order of Eastern Star of Turner, was hostess Wednesday for a hard times party and dance in the Masonic temple in compliment to members of Acacia chapter of Stayton. Special guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bert Peables, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schaffer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. William Ball, James Erwin and Baxter Fletcher. Special program numbers were given by Marjorie and Dorothy Tucker, Bobby Jones, Jessie Jones and Mary Kelly. A kitchen shower was observed in honor of Mrs. Jessie Jones whose home was recently destroyed by fire.

Jefferson.—Members of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges enjoyed a party Saturday night in the lodge rooms. A short program included numbers by the Ren Ashford family orchestra; songs by Bertha Dillon and Maude Durfee; piano solo, Beverly Wells, and a reading by Russell Miller.

Brush College.—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Himmel were hosts at an all-day meeting of the "Jolly Old-Timers club" at their rural home here Sunday. A special feature was the potluck dinner served at noon.

All members of the Past Matrons club are requested to be at the home of Mrs. Ida Godfrey by 7:30 o'clock Friday night. It is especially important that dinner be served at that hour. The hostess committee included Mrs. M. C. Petteys, Mrs. Rose Pratt, Mrs. Rose Babcock and Mrs. Monnie Hauser.

Music Contest April 15

The committee on arrangements for the music contest which is scheduled for April 15 at the chamber of commerce rooms beginning at 7 o'clock urge all teachers of music to enter students at once. The last date for such entry will be April 1. The blanks may be procured from Elma Weiler, head of the committee.

This is a new departure in the musical life of Salem which is being sponsored by the Salem Music Teachers association and in which any teacher of Salem may enter students, whether or not they are association members.

The purpose is to give an immediate objective to the student; to stimulate an artistic attainment through competition, and to give the student an opportunity to evaluate himself by contrast in competition.

Much enthusiastic interest is being demonstrated. The program will include piano solo work, hymn playing, violin and voice work.

North Salem W. C. T. U. is much interested in the silver medal contest which it is sponsoring Friday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Englewood United Brethren church at 17th and Nebraska streets. Those who have entered the contest include Mrs. Charles Fessenden, Mrs. Lena Lisle, Mrs. Ruth Toose, Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. Lydia Lehman and Mrs. L. D. Waterman. A program of readings and music will intersperse the contest.

Noted Speaker Will Talk on World Peace

Noted national lecturer, Frederick Libby, will be presented tonight at the First Methodist church by the National Council for Prevention of War committee of Salem, at 7:30 o'clock. This meeting is open to the public.

His talk is expected to be much more than ordinarily interesting because since his last visit in Salem he has attended the Geneva peace conference sessions and has made a more extensive study of the present world peace problems.

Encinitis Club Has 'Nationwide' Banquet

The annual observation of the "nationwide" banquet by members of the Encinitis club was observed Tuesday night at the Mar-ton hotel.

The table appointments indicated the scope of interests discussed with the arrangement of small tables alternated with spring flowers as a central decorative note.

The address of the evening was presented by C. A. Sprague who outlined in interesting manner the rise of women in the business world. A program of music and dancing added to the enjoyment of the evening, the numbers presented by Pauline Zoe Chambers, Eugene Sewell, dancers, and Martha Floor, Mrs. Darlow Johnson, Priscilla Meisinger and Albert Garrett, musical numbers. Mrs. Agnes Emmel acted as toastmistress.

Covers were placed for about 40 members and guests. Guests included Effie Grimes, Margaret Townsend, Beth Nowland, Mrs. F. L. Utter, Anona Welch, Elizabeth Gallaher, Thelma Young, Mabel Eastridge, Mrs. Darlow Johnson, and Mrs. Priscilla Meisinger.

He will lecture in the morning at the high school, at noon before the Lions club, at night for the dinner meeting of the Fraternus club and then for the public at 7:30 o'clock in the Methodist church.

A unique benefit is being planned for Friday afternoon between the hours of 2:30 and 6 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Dan Fry, Sr. At least 25 choice quilts made by Mrs. Fry, Mrs. Kitty Graver, and Miss Priscilla Fry, will be on display about the lovely rooms of the home. Any interested woman is asked to call. A silver tea is being served and the funds from this will go to the benefit of the First Congregational church.
