Irish Program Repeated by Request

By popular request the "Irish" program presented last Friday night in the Emerson room of the Unitarian church will be repeated Monday night at the same place and this time will be sponsored by members of the Unitarian church.

There were more guests for the benefit Friday night than could gain admittance and now that the program has been given it has received such high commendation many more are asking to see it.

An Irish play was presented by Miss Genevieve Thayer and Don Poudjide and has been repeatedly said to be one of the best of the several excellent productions in which Miss Thayer has appeared. Both players won unusual tribute from the Friday audience.

Quartet numbers will be presented by a male quartet under the direction of Prof. E. W. Hobson, and a Philharmonic string sextette will play under the direction of Miss Mary Schultz. Irish jigs will be played by Hume Downs as violin offerings.

The committee on arrangements include Mrs. F. A. Weil, Mrs. Blanche Jones, Mrs. Elsa Ebsen, Mrs. W. E. Anderson and Miles McKey.

A small admittance charge will be made for the affair.

The West Side Aid of Jason Lee church will hold an all day quilt tie at the church Friday. Potluck lunch will be served at noon.

Tea Attractive Event of Afternoon

The tea for which Mrs. Dan Fry, Sr. and Mrs. Kitty Garver will be hostess this afternoon at the Fry residence will be a unique and lovely affair as planned.

There will be on display 25 quilts made by the hostesses and Miss Priscilla Fry. These quilts of wide variety in design and will be of much interest to the enthusiastic quilt fancier of whom there are so many of recent months.

The tea which will accompany the display is planned to be an attractive complement to the beauty of the quilts. The service table at which will alternate Mrs. W. D. Clarke, Mrs. J. D. Simmons, Mrs. W. E. Hansen and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, will be placed in the large bay window overlooking the lovely gardens of the Fry home.

A Japanese linen cloth will cover the table and old blue dishware will be used for a bowl for pink plum blossoms combined with apricot bloom.

Mrs. R. D. Slater, Mrs. Ellsworth Ricketts, Miss Mary Fake and Mrs. W. T. Grier will assist with serving, and Mrs. Myers and Mrs. Fred Stusloff will assist about the rooms.

The affair is being given as a benefit for the First Congregational church funds. It is informal and the public is invited.

Crescendo Club "Swan Song" Tonight

"Swan Song," an entertainment unique in theme and original in musical development, will be given at Salem high school Friday night at 8:15 o'clock. The occasion is a benefit towards procuring a grand piano for the auditorium. The Crescendo club, numbering 40 students, is responsible for the production.

Officers of the club are: President, Bill Judson; vice-president, Helen Purvine; secretary, Lois Burton; treasurer, Ernest Savage; sergeant-at-arms, Carrol Cummings; and advisor, Lena Belle Tartar.

An interesting feature of the program is its theme which has been worked out by Bob Read. As a composer in need of funds he dreams a number of musical numbers which are presented by various members of the Crescendo club, and as a conclusion he awakes and plays what he recalls of that which he has dreamed and this results in snatches of the various musical numbers presented pieced together with an original improvisation by the young musical student which is said to be quite different and most interesting.

The entire program: I'll Sing You Songs of Arabi, Myriad McKinley, Melisande in French, Jean McElhinney, Jugglery, Charles Perry, Godard, Brahms, Wagnel, Elfin Dance, Celia's Quartet, Grieg, Reflects dans L'eau, Debussy, Then You'll Remember Me, Ealfe, Spanish Dance, Carl Mason, Metra, Calm as the Night, Helen Purvine, Berceuse from Jodel, Delbert Anderson, Bohm, Perpetuum Mobile, Rachel Pemberton, Gedard, Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms, Delbert Jensen, Nic, Sonata Impromptu, Earle Potter, Irish Air, Bob Read, Improvised.

Pythian Benefit Successful Event

Ten tables of "600" were in play Wednesday evening at the K. P. hall. This affair was the second card party in a series being sponsored by Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters.

High score for the women went to Mrs. Thad Eggeston, for the men to Charles Kinzer and William Gould. Dainty refreshments were served after which the card tables were cleared from the floor and dancing was enjoyed until midnight. The next benefit will be April 5.

Mrs. Ralph Barnes To Visit in Europe

One of the most interesting visitors in Salem during the year has been Mrs. Ralph Barnes, daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnes, who came home from Paris last spring with her two small daughters, Suzanne and Joan, to visit after several years spent abroad with Mr. Barnes who has been foreign correspondent for news services of the United States.

Mrs. Barnes in in Salem with her daughters for a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnes before she sails for Paris in time to join Mr. Barnes there May 1. Little Miss Joan and Miss Suzanne will remain with grandparents during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes plan to spend several weeks on the continent and then will go to Moscow where Mr. Barnes is now stationed. Mrs. Barnes plans to return to the United States this fall.

Mrs. Kenneth Powers will entertain for Mrs. Barnes Saturday afternoon and for Miss Ruth Barnes of Seattle who is also a guest of her parents for two weeks.

Mrs. Powers is asking for tea members of her bridge club and a few additional intimate friends of Mrs. Ralph Barnes.

Mrs. W. B. Baue Complimented

A pretty recent event was that for which Mrs. T. L. Lind was hostess at her home in compliment to her mother, Mrs. W. B. Baue, whose birthday anniversary was observed with a one o'clock luncheon followed by an informal social afternoon.

Informal program numbers were presented by Mrs. Nan Smith, Mrs. Lida Bowen, June Lind, Francis Dickson, and short talks were given in compliment to Mrs. Baue. A gift was also presented the honor guest.

Many spring flowers were used about the guest rooms and as an effective centerpiece for the table. The table was spread with a lace cloth and tapers flanked the bowl of spring blossoms.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Baue, Mrs. Nan Smith, Mrs. Alice North, Mrs. Lida Bowen, Mrs. Martha McDowell, Mrs. Lee Schomaker, Mrs. Merle Murphy, Mrs. Effie Cole and Mrs. T. L. Lind.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ferguson were hosts Saturday night at the "Wildwood" in compliment to 50 guests. Music was a feature of the delightfully informal evening which concluded with a midnight supper hour.
