Slack Business Brings Low Wool Bids at Boston

BOSTON, April 6. - (AP) -Lack of business in wool has encouraged some low bidding. A few buyers are trying to secure average French combing 64s and finer territory wool at 37-38 secured basis. It is understood, however, that little wool is available at these figures and the market is mostly around 40 scoured basis. Some offerings are being held at 42-43 scoured basis, but there is practically no demand at these

Peppermint, Hops Planted on Farms In Talbot Section

TALBOT, April 6 - Wm. Krebs is planting 65 acres of hops on his ranch near Talbot. David Jacobson has added one acre more to his field of hops and Claud Johnson is putting out about 30 acres of hops. Several acres of peppermint are being planted in the Talbot vicinity this spring. Geo. Potts and sons have planted about five acres of mint and D. E. Turnidge has put out a small acreage.

Hop Fields Open Up, With Nearly 100 Men on Jobs

DAYTON, April 6 - Ninetyseven men are employed in the 230-acre hop field of Ross Wood near Dayton, hoeing preparatory to the cultivation to be started at once. Twenty cents an hour is received for the work. All farm work is in full blast and spring seeding is being done

Silverton Hop Mart Has Temporary Quiet

SILVERTON, April 6 - Sixty-eight bales of hops were shipped from Silverton Thursday by Herst and Son of Independence who purchased them a week ago from George Elton. The hops have been with the Warehouse Service Corporation of which George Isrealson is manager. No recent sales are reported here. Growers are said to be holding for higher prices.

Walnut men Start Cleanup, Sell at 10-13c Pound: Onions Neglected

PORTLAND, April 6-(AP)-The advance of 1c dozen in the price quoted on standard eggs in some quarters means little inasmuch as there continued a badly mixed price situation all through issue, competing eggs were practically unchanged.

Market for butter continued to reflect at least steadiness within the local territory with no change suggested in open market or exchange prices. Butterfat, however remained firm with most local hids 16c for churning cream.

Live hen market continued to show a rather liberal degree of strength here but without further price changes. Light hens were still in far the best call with few arriving. Broiler easier.

killed meat market was today showing a steady tone at least here. Even veal were now moving out in improved volume but at late prices. Hogs and lambs were in active call. There was still more or less neglect in the market for onions at Willamette valley sources. Buyers were practically out of the market for carlots but growers were still holding. Texas new crop was moving to the east. Determination of wainut growers to clean up supplies has led to the lowering of values to the trade. Sales were being made here

10-13c lb., the latter being top.

$7.50 Quoted, Lamb; Season is Behind; Hogs at $4.10

First offers on 1933 spring lambs were quoted by local dealers yesterday, with $7.50 the figure. Only a few lambs are coming in so far ... The season is considerably behind 1932. Last year, opening offers on spring lambs were made March 17, with $8 the market. In a week the market climbed to $8.50, but dropped back to the $8 figure, where it stayed until quantity offered justified a lowered price.

Hogs made a gain on the local mart Thursday, with $4.10 the top offer.

25 Acres of Loganberries Grubbed Out

WACONDA, April 6-Twentyfive acres of loganberries are being grubbed out on the McGilchrist berry farm three miles nor west of Waconda on the Wheatland Ferry road; and spring grain will be planted. lwenty-five acres of old vines were removed last fail. This leaves 50 acres in bearing this year.

A 25-acre tract of logans to yield its first crop this season has made remarkable growth in spite of the cold winter. Those removed have been in bearing a number of years, and there was also some loss through freezing. in the patch. Most berry growers here are ed for logans due to other fruits having suffered damage. There are almost no strawberries here due to freezeout. The fine weather this past week has enabled rural folks to fairly "see things grow." The season's work is in full swing at last. Plowing is under way in a number of hop yards here and spring grain is being planted. Several farmers took advantage of the gas war last month and are busy at present using their low-priced fuel in tractors, hurrying to get plowing done before it rains, or before the long-absent sunshine dries off the ground too thoroughly for cul-
