University Circles Find Weekend Filled With Attractiveness

ONE of the gayest weekends of the year for Willamette university has been that April 8. The social events really began with Thursday and the opening of the national convention of the Daleth Teth Gimmel women's organization. Banquet, a colorful reception at the C. P. Bishop home, dinner at Lausanne, and many scenic drives and informal social events marked the three day conference which concluded Saturday night with a buffet supper.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Henry Cornoyer opened her home for a brilliant tea given in compliment to active members of the sorority, alumnae, patronesses, Faculty Women's club and to the Portland Mothers club.

D. A. R. Card Tea Plans Develop

Mrs. Norine Fick met the guests at the door and introduced them to the line in which stood, Mrs. R. C. Alken, Mrs. E. C. Richards, and Mrs. F. A. Erickson.

The guest rooms were colorful with a profusion of tulips and daffodils in shades of yellow. Acting as hostesses about these lovely rooms are members of the Beta Chi Mothers club of Salem.

The tea table was covered with a cloth of lace and centered with pink cherry blossoms in a bowl of blue. Here alternating during the afternoon presided Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. B. Earle Parker, Mrs. Frank Power, and Mrs. D. A. Hodge. Mrs. Arthur Gibbard, Mrs. Robert Craig and Mrs. John Balk assisted in serving.

Saturday night the alumnae of Delta Phi sorority entertained with an informal reception in the Emerson room of the Unitarian church for active sorority members, for members of the Mothers club, patronesses, and house mothers of campus organizations. Presiding at the gayly arranged table were Miss Beatrice Hartung and Miss Marion Bretz, group of the younger set and alumnae members assisted in serving.

Guests were greeted into a tastefully decorated room by Miss Virginia Mason. Mrs. Otto Julius, president of the alumnae association, headed the line.

A brilliantly presented and highly artistic play, Spanish in theme, was presented by Miss Genevieve Thayer, Lucius Singer, and Alex Volchok. Musical numbers are presented by Miss Jeanette Smith, Miss Margaret Lewis and Miss Ruth Bedford. Mrs. Velma Sweeney and Don Schopp gave a Mexican dance and Mrs. Eddie Joe Douglas presented an interesting talk on "Spanish and Mexican Audiences".

Monday afternoon the Alpha Phi Alpha Mothers club will compliment the May Queen, Miss Bernice Rickman, with a tea between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George Alden. All active sorority members and alumnae members are invited to attend the tea.

Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Minerva Holcomb, Mrs. H. B. Glaisner, and Mrs. O. F. Breithaupt.

Judge Carey To Address League

THE Salem Arts League will present Judge Charles H. Carey as speaker at the April general meeting of the League Tuesday evening, in the auditorium of the city library.

Judge Carey is a writer of note, especially in the field of history, and his talk Tuesday evening will deal with that subject, touching on phases of Oregon history. He has long been a contributor to the Oregon Historical Quarterly, and has written and edited numerous books on the development of the northwest. Two of his works which are particularly outstanding and valuable are his "History of Oregon" and "The Oregon Constitution and Proceedings and Debates of the Constitutional Convention of 1857". He is past-president of the Oregon Writers' League and a present director of the Portland Art Museum.

Judge Carey has been a resident of Portland for many years

Easter Tableau Will be Presented

The various stages of the life of Christ will be posed in a series of tableau pictures by the members of the Drama Guild of the First Methodist church at the regular evening service Sunday. These pictures have been selected from among the great religious masterpieces of the world. The music is in charge of Martin Anderson; there will be music by the choir and also by a quartet composed of Eleanor Moore, Ruth Schreiber, Ronald Craven and A. B. Hansen.

The readers for the evening are Mrs. Herbert Rahe and Joe E. Roe. Wilburn Swafford, Blanche Grentzenberg, Paul Tyler, Harry Mosher, Robert Holaday and Helen Breithaupt have planned the stage sets, the lighting, and the costumes for the evening.

The pictures and the cast of characters are as follows: I. Rossetti: "Behold the Handmaid of the Lord." Mary, Ruth Versteeg; Gabriel, Hanna Eymann.

II. LeRolle: "The Arrival of the Shepherds." Madonna, Martha Jane Hotel; Joseph, Eugene Watson; Shepherds, Paul Tyler, Robert Holaday.

III. Hofmann: "Christ and the Doctors." Boy Christ, Minnie Newfeld; Rabbits, Earl Litwiler, J. Burton Cray, Arnold Taylor, Everet Lisle.

The Junior Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet for a one o'clock covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. V. E. Kuhn Tuesday, Mrs. D. C. Roberts and Mrs. Lotta Smith will be assisting hostesses.

The Bohemian Girl

MEMBERS of Willamette university department of music have been developing with vast effort and attention to detail and artistry the lovely light opera, "The Bohemian Girl," and will present it Monday and Tuesday at the Capitol theatre against a background of stage setting which is said to be highly complimentary to the efforts of the troupe of 60 members.

Miss Elizabeth Clement, Miss Ruth Schreiber, Miss Bernice Rickman, Robert Mayne, Maurice Dean, Richard Smart and Ralph Barber are among those who will appear and pleasantly surprise Salem audiences with the excellence of production of the lovely opera, it is rumored. Hard, grueling work has been going on in rehearsals and in getting together the elaborate stage setting of castles, drawbridges and mountain effects as are necessary for the production. Costumes are elaborate and well planned to carry the gay spirit of the intriguing opera.

It is reported that certain sections of the theatre are entirely sold out and that tickets are being sold at rapid pace. Prof. Cameron Marshall has directed the opera as well as the orchestra of about 20 pieces which accompanies the singing.

Miss Elizabeth Clement, lovely as the heroine, Arlene, in the production "The Bohemian Girl", Willamette university production to be given Monday and Tuesday night at the Capitol theatre.

Younger Set A. A. U. W. to Compliments Maid Hear Noted Lecturer

MEMBERS of one of the younger circles are busy this weekend paying compliment to Miss Eleanor Trindle who is celebrating her birthday. Saturday night Mrs. William Trindle entertained at the Trindle residence with a pretty appointed dinner party complimenting her daughters.
