Harmony Club Idea Makes Big Appeal

So Growth Rapid

WOODBURN, April 11-The Woodburn Harmony club, one of the most prominent social clubs of Woodburn has just completed four years of activities. The club was formed when a few families met at each other's homes once a week to enjoy music and singing, soon more became interested until now as many as 50 members meet each week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dickinson. Splendid programs are prepared and presented each week. There to no dues and only one rule for all-no criticism. Anyone is invited to the Monday meetings,

NEW YORK, April 11 .- (AP) Stocks were worn down a bit by profit-taking today, but offered good resistance and net changes were mostly of the narrow variety. Extreme fluctuations for many leaders were small and volume was reduced to 1,434,500 shares. For U. S. Steel, American Can. Westinghouse, Du Pont, Harvester, Case, Sears Roebuck and American Tobacco "B" net declines were measured in major fractions. Union Pacific and Santa Fe dipped nearly a point, but several other carriers were steadier. Procter & Gamble, learning of a regular quarterly dividend of 371/2 cents, firmed. American Telephone, whose first quarter earnings, soon to appear, are expected to be rather poor, was down 24. National Lead rose points as lead prices were advanced 1/4 cents a pound.

Coppers traded briskly and at steady quotations; the foreign market for that metal was stronger. Nash Motors lost more than a point on deferment of the dividend which had long been maintained against decreasing in-
