

WOMEN OFFER BEST PROGRAM

Play Written by Mrs. Thomas is big hit of Competitive Event

TURNER, April 11 — Turner community club held one of the biggest meetings of the year Monday night with at least 300 present, to be entertained with the women's program, which was awarded unanimously first place over the men's program put on in March.

Miss Hattie Thomas wrote last evening's three-act play "Turnerville", and appeared in costume as she gave the introductory; costumes of dress of 60 years ago were featured as found in a milliner's shop and in the costumes of the customers who called, which scenes included, a women's improvement club, a children's story by an old black mammy, a love scene, a baby's program, put on in March.

A colorful Japanese number, "Gessha Girls Dance", was put on by Mrs. Mearl Hodges, Helen Witzel, Mabel Schifferer, Ruth and Elaine Morris, Janeth Barnes, Miss Gerguson. The Turner girls' chorus gave a number directed by Mrs. Agnes Booth, Lois Gunning, Rachel Riches, Alice Fowler, Katherine Sparks, Geneva Barber, LaVerna Whitehead, Letitia Catterson, Charlotte Parr, Guitar duet and southern melodies, Mrs. May Hadley and Mrs. J. R. Cox.

Vocal solo and a piano solo by Betty Peetz; readings by Rachel Riches; piano duet, Mrs. Hadley and Miss Gerguson. The Turner and vicinity historical review, written by Mrs. S. A. Riches, to enter in the county contest, was read by S. A. Riches.

Others taking parts during the evening were: Mrs. Hester Crume, Mrs. T. T. Palmer, Mrs. Agnes Bear, Mrs. Frances Whitehead, Mrs. Lucille McKinny, Mrs. Elizabeth Ball, Mrs. T. W. Smith, Mrs. Stella Miller, Mrs. Mary Ball, Mrs. Mary McKinny, Mrs. Eddie Ahrens, Mrs. Cleora Parks, Mrs. Vester Bones, Mrs. Birdie Deuyser, Misses Kate and Rana Ahrens, Harriett Frederickson, Ruth Clark, Helen Wetzel, Mabel Tucker, Margaret Clark, and a group of children.

M'NARY PLEDGES SUPPORT TO UNION

MARION, April 11. — Despite this being a busy time with farmers there was the usual attendance at the Farmers Union meeting Friday night. Membership cards were presented for Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Parker.

A reply from Senator McNary to the local was made in which he pledged his support for farm relief.

Those attending the Linn county Farmers Union convention on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Callivan, Mr. and Mrs. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gray, Roy Akin and Grover Stevens.

A large crowd witnessed the play, "Where is Grandma?" Saturday night, sponsored by the dramatic club for the benefit of the community club. It was one of the best performances ever given in Marion and much credit is due all those taking part and especially Mrs. Fred Schumacher, director. Proceeds were $10.

Davenport Cartoon And Silver Falls Feature on Scrip

SILVERTON, April 11—Scrip appeared at Silvertown Tuesday. The scrip being issued here is issued by the American Legion post and is backed 100 per cent by Marion county school warrants. The scrip is printed on heavy band paper. The background is green and resembles a federal bill. On the face of the bill is a picture of Silver Creek falls and at the side of the picture is the Legion emblem. Centering the back of the bill is a facsimile of the famous Homer Davenport cartoon of Al Coolidge. Charles Reynolds signature will appear on the scrip, Mr. Reynolds representing the Al Coolidge Company who sponsors the issuance.
