CHURCH TO OBSERVE 30TH ANNIVERSARY

HAZEL GREEN, April 1. — The Sunday school will present a pageant, "The Garden of the Lord," at 11 o'clock Easter Sunday.

The Women's Missionary society will hold its annual Good Friday prayer meeting at the home of Mrs. W. G. Davis at 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Robert Massie leading.

The official board voted to observe the 30th anniversary of the organization of the church April 23 with a homecoming.

The Otterbein Guild will have a tea instead of a banquet for the mothers and daughters meeting of the Women's Missionary society and guild. The guild will furnish the program. The guild presented Patroness Mrs. Looney with a creaming set in remembrance of her birthday, Miss Alice Cook, president, making the presentation. Miss Sargent of Liberty and Miss Paulson of North Howell were special guests of the guild.

The beginners and primary classes of Sunday school will have their annual egg hunt Saturday afternoon on the church grounds.

PLEASANT VIEW, April 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sturgis came down from Lacomb the first of the week and got about 1500 strawberry plants from M. A. Cook.

Frank Cook has had his cherry orchard grafted to Bings and Royal Annes. George Peterson of Lebanon did the work.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, April 12.—At the special session of the city council held at the city hall Monday night several ordinances were presented by the ordinance committee and given readings.

Aside from the beer bill, another deals with livestock running at large and another with the burial of oil tanks.

Names of drives on Kingwood terrace came in for consideration and it was decided to change the name of a portion of Cascade drive to Piedmont avenue, change a portion of Riverview to Terrace drive, and to give a short new private driveway connecting the present Cascade drive and the Glenn Creek road, lying outside of the city limits, the name of Cascade drive.

It is requested that those who have requisitions for seed for vegetable gardens get it at once from the residence of George Chapman facing the schoolhouse on Third street. Mr. Chapman states that numerous lots have even been plowed and harrowed, and with seed donated by the Red Cross and plots loaned, each family should at least have a good garden this summer.

The Boy Scouts took a hiking trip Sunday to the cabin site where they made cooking and other tests and demonstrations. On the Cook ranch situated between the Glenn Creek and Orchard Heights roads in the Polk county hills, a site has been provided for a camp cabin, and members of the Boy Scouts will erect the building this spring and summer. Already they have laid out the structure tentatively and actual work is to be begun soon.

Miss Clara Folbrecht of Portland, a former Salemite, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pattison the last of last week.

The regular monthly meeting of the Kingwood Tea and Talk club that was to have been held Thursday afternoon, will be postponed for a week and will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Forrester April 20, with Mrs. Lester Brannan in charge of the entertainment.

J. R. Brown has associated himself in business with the Larkin Realty company of Salem, opening the venture Monday morning.

Quake Refugees Here

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn O. Lewis with their two sons, Glenn Jr., and Donald Wilbur, who have been with the Firestone Rubber company for the past five years at Los Angeles, Calif., moved here last week. They moved here with Merle Pruitt and Sam McClintock, who drove from here down there, continuing to Old Mexico, visiting for a few days and all returning together. They had an unforgetable experience in the earthquake that was so violent that it crashed their heavy piano through an interior wall of their home twice, broke every dish in the cupboard and did other damage. For the present they will make their home with the Wilbur P. Lewises. They are son and daughter-in-law of the W. P. Lewises.

Mrs. Sloper Named President of Club At Independence

INDEPENDENCE, April 12. — annual business meeting of the Garden club was held at the training school Monday night, when officers elected were:

President, Mrs. C. O. Sloper; vice-president, Mrs. J. N. Janes; secretary, Mrs. R. M. Walker; treasurer, Mrs. Busby; auditor, Mrs. Elmer Addison.

This was the last meeting of the year.

WINKLEBLACK CASE HALTED SUDDENLY

DALLAS, April 12.—The trial of Albert Winkleblack on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon came to an abrupt close Tuesday afternoon when Judge Arlie G. Walker sustained a motion of the defense to rule out a witness. The state had just started presenting its evidence when Robert Kreason, attorney for the defendant, objected to Louise Stump being used as a witness on the grounds that she was of unsound mind and not competent to be a witness.

District Attorney Barnhart moved for a dismissal of the case as Miss Stump was the state's star witness.

Winnieblack was indicted last week on the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon with Miss Stump as the complaining witness. Following the dismissal of the Winkleblack case the jury was excused until April 20.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT UNION CONFAB

RIVERVIEW, April 12. — The Linn county convention of the Farmers' Union was held at Riverview Saturday with a large crowd attending from Aberdeen, Marion and Santiam Central locals and Polk county.

Speakers were Walter Russell, McMinnville; Roy Hewitt, Salem; State President L. H. McBee and Mr. Bell of Aumsville.

The first grade pupils of the Riverview school were taken by Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. Russel Kelley to Lebanon Saturday to put on a demonstration of reading for the teachers' institute there.
