Federation Meet Is April 27 Event

Announcement is made of the spring meeting of the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs, which will be held at the Union Hill grange hall April 27, with the Union Hill Women's club as hostess.
This will be an all-day meeting. As usual, the morning will be devoted to reports. The yearly reports of work done by the various clubs is one of the most interesting parts of the program. Sister clubs glean many items of interest and inspiration for their own work.
Election of officers is another important item of business.
During the afternoon there will be an address by an outstanding speaker.
A complete program will be published later. This is being prepared by the federation president, Mrs. B. E. Bower of Sublimity.

Third District Meeting of Interest

An exceptionally large attendance marked the Tuesday meeting of the third district, Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, in Oregon City Tuesday. Large delegations attended from Salem, Woodburn, Silverton, Hubbard and other valley and coast towns.
Among prominent speakers were Mrs. Hannah Martin, president of the Marion County club, who gave a review of the work of the club this past year, and who also gave a discussion of the measures passed by the Oregon legislature this past session, and Mrs. Dorothy Lee who spoke on procedure of the legislature. Both Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Lee are members of the Oregon legislature.

Rainbow Girls To Initiate

Chadwick chapter, Order of Rainbow for Girls, will meet for formal initiation Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock in Masonic temple and at this time will take into the order Miss Barbara McDonald.
Miss Margaret Savage, worthy advisor, assisted by Ruth Johnson, Iris Jorgenson, Margaret Hauser, Ruth Nelson and other officers, will act as the installation work.
Following the installation work a reception will be held. Miss Margaret Hauser and Miss Ruth Nelson are in charge of plans for the social hours.

Artisans Will Meet For Social Evening

Salem artisans will meet tonight for a social session to which Artisans and invited guests are urged to come. Special guests for the evening will be delegates from the Artisans' lodge in Eugene.
Judge George Rossman will give the address of the evening and this will be followed by other program numbers and then dancing will be enjoyed. Special guests from Portland will be H. S. Hudson, president of the Artisans, and other guests.

Robin at Keizer Takes Challenge Of Portland Bird

KEIZER, April 12.—Not to be outdone by other communities who have had visitations from the shadow boxing robin, one has taken up his residence on the Seymour Jones place.
He flies around the house, lights in a maple tree near by and dashes against the window pane in an attic window. Then from the railing of the front porch he dives at his shadow against the dining room window.
He was first discovered Tuesday when the family were attracted by a peculiar tapping.
