SCIO, April 13.—The Baptist church choir attended the revival meeting at Crabtree Monday night, and sang two special numbers. The male quartet also gave a special number. Rev. Ernest Ralston of the Scio Christian church is conducting the meetings at Crabtree. Mrs. Enoch Shelton, who has been in poor health for several months, is to enter the Albany general hospital Friday afternoon and will undergo a major operation for the removal of a cancerous growth.

Norwegian "Fourth" To be Observed 17th

SILVERTON, April 13.—The Norwegian Independence day will be commemorated by at least two Silverton groups May 17. Both the Immanuel Ladies' Aid society and the Trinity similar group are planning programs and suppers for the occasion. Mrs. J. M. Jensen and Mrs. R. O. Solum will charge of the program at Immanuel church while Rev. C. L. Foss and Mrs. O. S. Hauge will plan the program for the Trinity group.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, April 13.—The second annual Easter egg hunt will be held Sunday afternoon at one-thirty in the city park with all little ones of the city invited to participate. Sponsors of the affair will be Angelo Grosso, James Mitchell, Walter Gerth, Lynn L. Sloper and Milo Jensen, and eggs will be provided for all. Perry Derobery of 249 N. 25th street, Salem was arrested on the charge of being drunk and disorderly and fined $10 and costs in municipal court. J. G. Minton and Lyle Johnson are both very ill at their homes here with pneumonia. Lyle Johnson is the son of Mrs. Myrtle Johnson. An Easter program is being prepared for the pupils and parents of the seventh grade, to be presented Friday afternoon. It will consist of a play, skit, readings and songs. Pupils of the fifth grade are drilling for a puppet show to be given soon also. Mrs. William T. Grier was a charming hostess at her home Wednesday afternoon at a large tea given by the Missionary society of the Congregational church of Salem. Many interested matrons came in during the afternoon and Mesdames W. D. Clarke, Mary Fake, W. M. Hanson and J. C. Tibbets presided at the urns at the tea hour following a fine program. N. T. McCoy, cabinet maker, has leased and fitted up the basement of the Robertson building for a shop and has moved from the McCall residence on Cascade drive where he has had his machinery installed.
