Wool Picks Up Optimism, Sales Volume Larger

BOSTON, April 15-(AP)-An optimistic undertone in the wool market early this week developed progressively into more inquiries and a slight pickup in volume of business which was fairly good with some houses before the end of the week. Increased buying appeared to follow a strengthening the larger holders toward wool values. Ranges of prices varied little from last week's nominal quotations, but today's quotations are backed up with a larg-er volume of sales than was the case a week ago.

CORVALLIS, Ore., April 15. -(AP)-A sharp advance in butter prices along the coast coupled with continued low production, good consumptive demand and a storage report showing holdings far below a year ago in this territory, were highlights of an active week in the Pacific coast butter trade, it was stated in a review issued today by the U. S. D. A. bureau of agricultural economics 14 Acres of cooperating with the O. S. C. extension service.

Butter production is generally lower than a year ago with the greatest decline on the Pacific coast where pasture and feed conditions are poor. Storage holdings in this region are now only about 40 per cent of a year ago, according to latest reports. Large western markets were also stronger this week though price advances were not as pronounced as in the far west. Consumption has been fairly satisfactory, absorbing current arrivals and drawing somewhat on storage stocks. Total national storage holdings are slightly more than the total a year ago. PORTLAND, April 15 - (AP) There was another general advance in the price of cube butter on the produce exchange. For the weekend session there was a complete rout of the bear interests and all prices on cubes were 1c lb. higher with the exception of firsts which were up 1/4 c lb. However the best demand continues for standards and for firsts.

Advance of 1c lb. in the buying price on butterfat at 21c per 'A' grade followed the rise in butter at the weekend. The new price is being generally followed, here and there some independent paying an advance. Market for eggs continued very hadly mixed with prices actually lower in many retail shops than were being dumped upon the market by western Washington. Demand for turkeys was quite iberal along the wholesale way. Fancy dressed hens were easily moving to 18c lb. but few of this class were arriving. Toms were rather slow sale with inferior quality. General steadiness continued for country killed meats at the weekend. Veal, hogs, lambs and beef were cleaned up. The best call was for veal and hogs. Everything was being moved out, how-
