Prominent Lodge Woman Visits

Salem Rebekah lodge No. 1 was visited Monday night by the international president of the A. R. A., Mrs. Edythe Florence Kelley. An exceptionally large attendance of the local lodge members was swelled by 53 visitors from over the state. Among those visiting were Mrs. Hallie Ingle, grand marshal of the A. R. A.; Mrs. Ora Cosper, grand secretary of the assembly; Miss Ethel Fletcher, past state president; Mr. Watkins, brigadier-general of the Cantons; R. G. Henderson and P. G. Patriarch.

The committee on welcome, Grace M. Taylor, Edith McElroy and Elsie Simmeral, introduced the distinguished guest.

Miss Edythe Florence Kelley, accompanied by Miss Virginia Thompson, gave a group of solos; Mrs. Reiser presented a group of readings; violin solos were given by Ruthyn Thomas, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. P. Thomas, and vocal numbers were given by Mrs. Elsie Simmeral accompanied by Eugene Siegmund. Mrs. Kelley concluded the program with a much appreciated talk. The program committee included Wilda Seigmund, Elsie Townsend and Verda Olmstead.

Oregon grape, wild currant and daffodils effectively arranged about the lodge rooms made a pretty decorative note. The same decorative motif was carried out for the service tables from which refreshments were served at a late hour by the committee, Josephine Erickson, Helen McLeod, Jessie Moore, Jessie Beatty and Willie Warf.

The pupils of Mabel S. Powers had their regular monthly playing class Saturday morning at the studio. At this time the young students each played the work which he was studying at the time and following this discussion was had concerning each selection as it was presented.

Addin, to the enthusiasm of the meeting was the talk given by Miss Gretchen Kraemer who discussed the meaning of music study and "hat it means to the individual. The May meeting of this group was postponed until fall.

Mrs. W. M. Stoddard will be hostess to members of the Calvary Baptist church at her rural home Friday afternoon beginning at 2:30 o'clock. Cars will leave the church at 2 o'clock. Mrs. J. L. McMullen will have charge of the program. Mrs. W. A. Barkus will lead the devotions. China will be featured in the program.

Miss Charlotte Eyre entertained for the Four Aces club at her home Friday night. Easter theme was the decorative motif for the guest rooms and the service tables. Mrs. Charles Eyre, mother of the hostess, assisted at the supper hour. Winning scores were held by Miss Mills and Miss Dorothy Judson. Miss Judson was a special guest for the evening. Miss Ella Mills will be hostess to the group in a fortnight.

Dr. and Mrs. George A. Alden entertained at dinner for the senior history majors of Willamette university Tuesday evening at their home. Covers were placed for Olivia Bove, Carol Braden, Marcelle Delmyt, George Koehler, Esther McKinnimee, Dale Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tefft, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Schreiber, and Dr. and Mrs. Alden.
