

GATES ELECTS ALL TEACHERS

Principal Continues to Serve As Basketball Coach; Janitor Rehired

GATES, April 19.—Teachers of the Gates high and grade schools have all been rehired for the next year. F. W. Jones continues as principal and also acts as coach of the basketball team. Miss Dorothy McMaisters who came to the Gates school three years ago from Eugene will be assistant superintendent. E. Powers of Salem has the sixth, seventh and eighth grades for the seventh year. Miss Gwen Johnson, instructor in the third, fourth and fifth grades, will start on her ninth year and Mrs. A. D. Scott has had charge of the primary pupils for the past 12 years. Tilman Raines, who has been janitor for the past five years, will again be employed in this capacity the coming year.

The Gates schools are among the nicest in this part of the state. The grounds are kept in perfect shape and the buildings are well painted. In the high school building the basement has been divided into two large rooms where community meetings will be held as well as school activities. The Sunday school is also held here and at present the members of the Sunday school are having the benches and walls painted for privilege of meeting there. Mrs. O. C. Dike is superintendent of the Sunday school which now has an enrollment of over 70.

The improvement club members also have their clubrooms in the basement, which is equipped with a kitchen and cooking facilities.

BIG SCOUT MEETING HELD, WEST SALEM

WEST SALEM, April 19.—Scout history was made at the largest and most representative meeting for the Boy Scouts ever held here, that was put on the last of this week. The invitational list included mothers of the members, O. F. West, scout executive and the members of the scout committee and in addition Mr. E. L. Miller, master of troop three and Mr. Kennedy, master of troop four.

Mr. West discussed with the mothers the advisability of forming a "Mothers' club" and with the boys the scout oath and laws. Mayor G. C. Newgent gave an inspiring address and E. L. Miller, president of the community club presented star pins to W. Harry Wiedmaier, Harvey Griffin and Winston Gosser and merit badges to them, five to each and one to expertness in swimming to Raymond Griffin and a patrol flag to Ed. Maerz. Dr. Arthur Goffier gave a talk.

Troop 15, consisting of West Salem lads are planning a play to be presented soon.
