Mills Show More Wool Interest as Price Rise Seen

BOSTON, April 20-(AP)-Sentiment in the wool market is very strong with mills showing considerably more interest and wool men are talking definitely higher prices. Quotations on many offerings of domestie wools have been withdrawn, and are either being withheld from the market or offered at materially higher prices. Some sales have been closed at prices showing an advance of 1 to 2 cents, scoured

GRAINS RISE WILDLY, FALL BACK EGGS ADVANCE CENT A DOZEN HERE

Wheat Soars 101/8c, Up 53/4c; Varying in Prices Foreseen

CHICAGO, April 20 .- (AP)-Excited by reported broadening of inflation plans and by United States abandonment of the gold standard, all grains rose wildly today, and then fell back.

Wheat soared to 10 % cents a bushel higher than Tuesday, up 5% from yesterday's finish, but lost more than half the new gain largely as a result of belief that existing conditions were unprecedented, and that rapid fluctuations were likely to be the rule hereafter rather than the exception. On the crest of today's huge buying, before selling assumed even greater proportions, all grains surpassed any prices heretofore reached this season, and in some cents above yesterday's finish, with corn 1 1/4-1 % up, oats %-1% advanced. Today's closing quotations: Wheat - May, 67-67 1/4; July, 68 14-%; September, 69 16-14. Corn - May, 35 1/4 : July, 37 1/2-%: September, 39 1/2-%.

First Home Asparagus On Market at $1.25; Cabbage Scarce

Egg prices advanced a cent a dozen on all grades locally yesterday, to 9 cents on mediums, 10 on standards and 11 cents on extras. Wheat afforded the heavy sensation of the day, with a threecent spurt, to 65 cents a bushel on both red and white. Butterfat continues steady, with a top of 20 cents. First home-grown asparagus appeared on the market, carrying $1.25 quotation per dozen. California asparagus was material for dealers' battle, with some selling yesterday as low as 4 cents a pound, or cost. Cabbage is scarce, but no price raise has developed.

PORTLAND, April 20-(AP) -While there appeared a somewhat mixed tone in local cash win et today, all prices, both cash and futures were higher. Sales of 93,000 bushel futures were shown during the session of the Portland exchange composed of 7,000 old May, 25,000 July and 31,000 September. There was a demand for considerably more for offerings were tightly held toward the finals. Closing on new

May was up 1%c, old May 2%c. July 24c and September 24c bushel. On the merchants exchange local cash wheat gained 1c and Montana 3c bushel. It was generally understood that country prices will be up - 1/2c bushel.

Flour advanced 10c again.

Barley, corn and millrun also were higher. Final figures show sales of but 500 tons of wheat to the Atlantic although reports in the trade suggested far more. There were numerous negotiations that were not closed. Space was scarce and bids from the Atlantic today perhaps 4 to 5c below
