Bride - Elect is Popular Honor Guest

Miss Josephine Albert, bride-elect of Bruce Spaulding, is being the center of much social attention before her marriage May 6 in a beautifully planned church wedding at the First Presbyterian church.

Younger Set Busy With Plans

One of the younger circles finds itself busy with plans for the last days of the week. Thursday night this group met at the home of Miss Lorraine Kinzer and enjoyed a hilariously funny "dress-up" party with each costume designed to be as grotesque and amusing as possible.

Wedding Anniversary Celebrated

The wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rierson, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hart, Program numbers were contributed by Mrs. M. J. Butler and Mrs. R. D. Elliott.

Prof. Tillson Directs Piano Ensemble

Prof. Edward W. Tillson returned Thursday from Portland where on Wednesday night he conducted the piano ensemble of the Allied Arts club in a concert which attracted a large audience.

W. L. Lewis Home Scene of Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lewis entertained at dinner Wednesday evening. The dinner table was attractive with its center piece of daffodils in a blue and crystal bowl flanked by yellow tapers in blue and crystal holders.

Announcement has reached Salem of the marriage in The Dalles Wednesday afternoon of Mrs. Mildred K. Waters, for many years a member of the staff of the hotel state, and L. S. Barnes, capitalist of Beverly Hills.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

Gay, spring-like, feminine and young. It is a wonder so many smart women are making this lovely model? Fashioned of one of those dainty prints... purchased by the yard for almost a song... it would be charming.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size wanted.

Back to Home Trend Gets Recognition at Safeway Cooking School Wednesday

The modern trend is back to the home—for games, conversation and good cooking. With this belief firmly in mind, Mrs. Marian Spencer, home economist of the Safeway Stores Home-makers' bureau is preparing for the modernized cooking school, "Kitcheneering," which will be conducted in Salem for three days beginning Wednesday, April 26.

The guest artist David Campbell of Portland, and members of the chorus were special guests. Additional guests included special friends of Mr. Campbell. The rooms of the Hamilton home were brilliantly decorated with a profusion of spring blossoms. Presiding at the service table were Mrs. W. T. Jenks and Mrs. Percy Kelley.

Beef Given Push In Selling Drive

A grower-consumer campaign intended to stimulate the sale of beef for the purpose of benefiting the great cattle-growing industry of the west, is being launched April 21 to May 6, inclusive, by the Safeway stores and its affiliated retail companies, according to an announcement made by R. W. Doe, vice-president of that organization. Two thousand seven hundred and twenty-six stores operating in Washington, Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Utah, Nevada, Oregon, California, Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas will participate in this selling and advertising program on beef alone has ever been held, covering this much territory at one time.

recipes are revamped, new dishes devised, and the bureau's seal of approval placed upon products which meet Mrs. Wright's rigid and uncompromising tests. Mrs. Julia Lee Wright, national director of the Safeway Stores Home-makers' bureau will bring to the women of Salem the results of expert, year-around food research and recipe experimentation at the bureau testing kitchen at the headquarters of the organization in Oakland.

There, in that modernized oratory of "kitcheneering," recipes are revamped, new dishes devised, and the bureau's seal of approval placed upon products which meet Mrs. Wright's rigid and uncompromising tests.
