WOODBURN, April 21-At the Woodburn chamber of commerce meeting Wednesday night Representative Romeo Gouley of Brooks spoke on the state sales tax and expressed himself as being in favor of the tax, as it would tend to eliminate the personal property tax, thus relieving the farmers from taxes on their livestock and farm machinery. It provides for a two per cent tax on goods sold to the consumer and one half of one per cent on goods manufactured in the state. This does not apply to gasoline as there is already a tax on the sale of gasoline.
