Pattern

BY ANNE ADAMS Here's a tonic to offset the bothersome details of Spring cleaning. A frock like this keeps you thinking about how nice you look, and before you know it, the lay's work is done. Stock up on this simple, practical home frock—simple because its details are few, mighty easily accomplished—and especially well suited to a matronly figure. Practical because is it loveliest fashioned of the gay cotton prints that are very inexpensive, and very smart.

Pattern 2314 may be ordered only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Sizes 3 requires 3 3-8 yards 36-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with this pattern.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in colms or stamps (coins prefacred), for his pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. He sure to state size wanted.

Announces Poppy Sale

Salem will observe "Poppy day" this year on May 27, the Saturday before Memorial day, it has been announced by Mrs. T.

L. Kuhns, chairman of the poppy committee of Capital unit of the American Legion auiliary. The L. Kuhns, chairman of the poppy committee of Capital unit of the American Legion auiliary. The unit is making extensive preparations for the observance of the day and is hoping for the full cooperation of all other organ-izations and individuals.

Memorial poppies, to be worn in honor of the world war dead, will be made available to everyone in the city by volunteer workers from the auxiliary unit. Organization of the workers is going forward rapidly under Mrs. Kuhn's direction and the unit expects to have its "poppy girls" in all parts of the downtown district throughout the day. Flewers for the sale have been ordered from Portland where they have been made by disabled world war veterans. Some will be made by mental patients from Oregon now hospitalized at American

Poppy day is the day for personal tribute to the men who lost their lives in the country's service. The poppy is a patriotic symbol which means honor for the dead and service for the living. The customary contribution will be asked for the American Legion auxiliary poppies. The auxiliary wants everyone to wear a poppy. All contributions will be used for relief work among the disabled veterans and their families, the bulk of the money going to support the relief activities of the local auxiliary unit among needy families in this city.
